K-STATE FOOTBALL

2025 MEDIA GUIDE

K-STATE UNDER KLIEMAN

- Second most wins in school history.
- K-State has won eight or more games in five of his six seasons, the lone exception being the COVID-19 campaign of 2020.
- No other coach in school history has more wins or eight-plus win seasons in their first six years.
- The Wildcats are one of only five Power 4 teams to win at least nine games each of the last three seasons with at least one conference championship in that timeframe (Alabama, Clemson, Georgia and Oregon).
- The Cats have five victories over teams ranked in the top 10 of the AP Top 25 since 2019, the most of any active Big 12 program.
- K-State has eight wins over top-20 teams since 2019, tied for the second most among current Big 12 teams.
- Has led players to 88 All-Big 12 honors in six seasons.
- Three of the program's 14 Consensus All-America honors have come since 2021, including the second two-time honoree (Deuce Vaughn) and first offensive lineman (Cooper Beebe).
- K-State has produced 212 Academic All-Big 12 honors since 2019.

2025 TEAM NOTES

WILDCATS RIDING MOMENTUM INTO 2025

• Coming off a third-straight season of at least nine wins in 2024, K-State looks to ride that momentum into the 130th season in school history in 2025.

• K-State brings back 45 letterwinners, including 13 players that started at least five games last year and seven that earned All-Big 12 honors in 2024.

GETTING THE PARTY STARTED

• Kansas State will be featured in the first Division I football game of the 2025 season when the Wildcats take on Iowa State in the Aer Lingus College Football Classic on Saturday, August 23, at Aviva Stadium in Dublin, Ireland.

• That matchup is one of only four FBS games that day before the entire slate gets underway the next week.

• The Cats will be playing abroad for just the second time ever as they played Nebraska in Tokyo, Japan, on December 5, 1992.

• This season will be the first ever Big 12 matchup in Ireland, the fourth edition of the Aer Lingus Classic and the 10th college football game all-time played in Ireland.

• The matchup against ISU will be the second time ever that the Wildcats will open a season with a Big 12 game, the first being the inugural Big 12 contest against Texas Tech on August 31, 1996.

SUPER SENIORS

• Kansas State has eight players who are returning to use an extra year of eligibility.

• Those playing a second (or third) senior season for the Wildcats are cornerback Justice James, transfer safety Gunner Maldonado, transfer wide receiver Caleb Medford, linebacker Beau Palmer, offensive lineman Taylor Poitier, defensive tackle Uso Seumalo, defensive end Cody Stufflebean and tight end Will Swanson.

• Poitier is the oldest of the group as he was a member of Chris Klieman's first recruiting class in 2019. After redshirting in 2019 and seeing time in four games in 2020, the Kansas City, Kansas, product suffered a season-ending injury during the 2021 fall camp and again in the first game of the 2022 season.

NEW FACES IN NEW PLACES

• K-State welcomes in 15 Division I/II transfers this season, which includes eight on offense and seven on defense.

• The incoming transfers for 2025 are running back Antonio Martin Jr. (Southeastern Louisiana/Georgia Tech); wide receivers Jerand Bradley (Boston College/Texas Tech), Caleb Medford (New Mexico/TCU) and Jaron Tibbs (Purdue); offensive linemen Terrence Enos Jr. (Pitt), George Fitzpatrick (Ohio State), JB Nelson (Penn State) and Amos Talalele (USC); defensive end Jayshawn Ross (Alabama); linebackers Ralph Ortiz (West Florida) and Gabe Powers (Ohio State); cornerbacks Amarion Fortenberry (South Alabama) and Jayden Rowe (Oklahoma); and safeties Gunner Maldonado (Arizona/Northwestern) and Qua Moss (West Georgia).

STATE PRIDE

• K-State has 11 total returning starters on offense and defense, which includes seven that hail from the state of Kansas.

• On offense, the Kansans are quarterback Avery Johnson (Wichita), running back Dylan Edwards (Derby) and offensive linemen Taylor Poitier (Kansas City) and Sam Hecht (Shawnee). Defensively, the list includes linebacker Des Purnell (Topeka), defensive end Cody Stufflebean (McPherson) and defensive tackle Damian Ilalio (Manhattan).

THE BIG 12's BEST

• Kansas State has totaled 144 Big 12 victories since the conference's formation in 1996, which stands as the most among active Big 12 programs.

ALL-TIME BIG 12 WINS

Rk.	School	Wins
1.	K-State	144
2.	Oklahoma State	132
3.	Texas Tech	118
4.	Iowa State	89
5.	Baylor	87

NINE IS FINE

• Kansas State has produced three-straight seasons with at least nine wins, the first time the Wildcats have accomplished the feat since doing so every year from 1993 through 2000.

• K-State is one of only 10 Power 4 teams – and the only Big 12 program – to win at least nine games each of the last three seasons, while the Cats are one of only five to do so and also claim a conference championship during that timeframe, joining Alabama, Clemson, Georgia and Oregon.

A TRACK RECORD OF WINNING

• A proven winner with a championship history, Chris Klieman holds a 120-41 career record, as his 74.5% career winning percentage ranks fourth among current FBS coaches that have led programs for at least 10 seasons.

• Klieman, who is 48-28 (63.2%) since arriving at K-State, has led the Cats to five victories over teams ranked in the top 10 of the AP Top 25, the most of any active Big 12 program since 2019.

- Had five touchdowns last year to tie for second in school history by a TE and third in school history by a sophomore
- Earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors last season in addition to Academic All-Big 12 honors the last two years

2025 OFFENSIVE NOTES

WELLS LEADING THE CHARGE

• After spending the 2024 season coaching the K-State quarterbacks and serving as co-offensive coordinator, associate head coach Matt Wells is now the full-time play caller for the Wildcats in 2025.

• All Wells did during his first season on staff was tutor Avery Johnson to a school-record 25 touchdown passes, while his sophomore signal caller ranked fifth in school history in passing yards (2,712) and completions (217).

• Additionally, Johnson was one of only five players in the nation and one of three from Power 4 schools to record at least 2,700 passing yards and 600 rushing yards, while he was one of nine signal callers nationally with at least 25 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns.

• Wells and Johnson helped guide a K-State offense that finished in the top 15 nationally in four categories and in the top 10 of school history in 15 game or season categories.

TOTAL OFFENSE

• K-State has totaled at least 375 yards of offense in 32 of the last 40 games dating back to the beginning of the 2022 season, including 10 of 13 games in 2024.

• During that stretch, the Cats held a 10-game streak against Big 12 foes with 375 or more yards, the longest streak in school history.

GROUND AND POUND

• K-State finished the 2024 season ranking 11th nationally by averaging 215.5 rushing yards per game, while the Cats were second in the country by averaging a school-record 6.08 rushing yards per carry.

• The average was driven by 95 rushes of at least 10 yards to rank seventh in the nation, while K-State's 34 rushing plays of 20 or more yards last season ranked second.

• Additionally, the Cats rushed for at least 200 yards in eight games a year ago, the most in the Big 12 and the second most among Power 4 schools (Penn State – 10).

RED ZONE THREATS

• Kansas State's tight end unit combined for 13 touchdown receptions in 2024, which led the nation.

• The 13 touchdowns came from four different players in Garrett Oakley (5), Will Anciaux (3), Will Swanson (3) and Brayden Loftin (2).

SECOND-YEAR STARTER

• Quarterback Avery Johnson is back for his second year of starting duties after setting the school record for single-season touchdown passes at 25.

• Additionally, Johnson finished second in school history in passing yards by a sophomore (2,712), fourth in pass attempts (372), fifth in overall passing yards and completions (217), sixth in total offensive yards (3,317) and eighth in touchdown responsibility (32).

• A product of Wichita, Kansas, Johnson opens the 2025 season ranked sixth in school history in career passing efficiency (137.2), ninth in passing yards per game (152.0), tied for ninth in passing touchdowns (30) and tied for 10th in touchdown responsibility (44). He is also 186 yards shy of entering the school's top-10 list for career rushing yards by a quarterback.

• Despite only starting 14 career games, Johnson has led the Wildcats to 10 wins to tie for 11th among K-State signal callers since 1990, while his 71.4% winning percentage ranks seventh among those that have started at least 10 games.

• His winning percentage also ranks second among active Big 12 quarterbacks that have started at least 10 games (Arizona State's Sam Leavitt – 84.6%).

A NEW ERA IN THE BACKFIELD

• Running back Dylan Edwards shined during his first opportunity as K-State's primary running back in the 2024 Rate Bowl, and he looks to carry that momentum into 2025.

• All Edwards did was set a school bowl record with 196 yards and two touchdowns on the ground, while he had 27 receiving yards and another score en route to Offensive MVP honors.

• Edwards, who helped K-State tally its largest comeback bowl victory in school history (17 points), ranked second in school history with 223 all-purpose yards.

• A native of Derby, Kansas, and former transfer from Colorado, Edwards finished second on the team last season with 1,117 all-purpose yards.

GOIN' DEEP

• Wide receiver Jayce Brown enters his junior season ranked eighth in school history by averaging 17.0 yards per reception in his career.

• He finished the 2024 season tied for fourth nationally with seven receptions of 40 or more yards, while his four receptions of 50 or more yards tied for eighth.

• Brown finished his sophomore campaign of 2024 with 823 receiving yards, which were the most by a Wildcat since Tyler Lockett in 2014 and the most in school history by a sophomore.

2025 DEFENSIVE NOTES

LIMITED POINTS PER GAME

• Since the K-State defense switched from a four-man front to a 3-3-5 alignment at the beginning of the 2021 season (53 games), the Cats are allowing just 21.8 points per game, which ranks 24th nationally and third among current Big 12 teams.
• Additionally, the Wildcats have allowed 131 offensive touchdowns over that time to rank 23rd in the nation.
• The Wildcats have finished each of the three previous seasons allowing less than 24.0 points per game, their longest streak since going 13-straight years from 1991 through 2003.
• Since head coach Chris Klieman's first year of 2019, K-State has held 42 of its 54 Big 12 opponents under their season average at the time it faces the Wildcats.

NONE OVER 200

• Kansas State did not allow a team to rush for 200 or more yards in any game last season, the first time the Wildcats accomplished that feat since 2016.
• K-State was one of only two Big 12 teams to not allow a 200-yard rushing game in 2024 (Arizona State).
• The Wildcats yielded -29 rushing yards last year at Colorado, which was the third fewest in school history, the second fewest allowed by an FBS team in 2024, the fewest allowed in a Big 12 game since 2006 and the fourth fewest allowed by any team in the nation over the last seven seasons.

CREATING TURNOVERS

• Over the last three seasons, K-State has forced 62 turnovers, which is the most among active Big 12 teams and tied for 13th among Power 4 teams.
• Of the 62 turnovers, 39 have been interceptions to also lead all active Big 12 programs and tie for 13th among Power 4 teams.

BEHIND THE LINE

• K-State finished the 2024 season tied for 25th nationally and ranked second in the Big 12 with 2.69 sacks per game, while it tied for 34th in the country and ranked third in the conference with 6.5 tackles for loss per game.
• The Wildcats tallied at least 4.0 tackles for loss in nine games last year – including 11 TFLs in each of the first two contests – while they had at least two sacks in eight contests – including a season-high six at Colorado.
• The Wildcats' four sacks in the 2024 Rate Bowl tied for fourth in K-State's bowl history.

HIGH SACK YARDAGE

• Kansas State's 35 sacks last season resulted in 249 lost yardage, which ranked 17th in the nation and was tops the Big 12.
• It was the most by the Wildcats since 2003 (345) and tied for the fifth most by a K-State team since 1996.
• K-State's six sacks at Colorado resulted in 74 yards of loss, the fourth-most ever by a Big 12 team in a conference game and second most by a Big 12 team in any game since 2012.
• It was the most sack yardage accumulated by the Wildcats in a single game since at least 1995. Their previous best over that timeframe was 72 yards against Baylor in 2002.

ROMAINE LED THE WAY

• Junior linebacker Austin Romaine, an All-Big 12 Second Team selection, returns after leading the Wildcats and ranking ninth in the Big 12 with 96 tackles (7.38 per game).
• Romaine was the first Wildcat with at least 90 tackles in a season since Jayd Kirby had 99 in 2017.
• A native of Hillsboro, Missouri, Romaine had two sacks at Tulane, the second of which caused a fumble that was returned for a 60-yard, game-winning touchdown in the fourth quarter.
• It was his first of two forced fumbles on the year that led directly to the game-winning points, as he had one against Kansas prior to the game-winning field goal.

BRINGING THE PAYNE

• Senior safety VJ Payne brings back stability in the form of 40 career games played and 30 starts to the secondary that is undergoing personnel changes in 2025.
• An All-Big 12 performer in 2024, Payne had a pair of interceptions on the season. His first came in the end zone with five seconds remaining to seal the victory at Tulane, while he had another one in the end zone at Colorado to halt a potential Buffalo scoring drive.

2025 SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

SCORING IN THE THIRD PHASE

• The Wildcats continue to lead the nation in total return touchdowns since 2005 with 62, which is 22 more than the next closest team in Alabama (40) and 28 more than the next closest Big 12 programs, Oklahoma State and TCU (34).
• Of the 62 total returns, a nation-leading 31 are on kickoff returns, and the next closest team is Houston with 21.

KICK/PUNT RETURN TDs SINCE 2005

Rk.	School	Kick/Punt TDs
1.	K-State	62
2.	Alabama	40
3.	San Diego State	35
T4.	Oklahoma State	34

DEFENSE ON KICK RETURNS

• K-State has not allowed a kickoff return for a touchdown since the 2013 season, going the last 151 games and 442 returns without allowing its opponent to find paydirt.
• The streak is the longest among the active Big 12 teams, 264 more than the next closest team (Arizona State – 178).
• Since K-State allowed its last kickoff-return touchdown, the Wildcats have scored 14 of their own.

A culture of selflessness, discipline, toughness and commitment is the cornerstone of a Chris Klieman-led K-State program, and that is what has led the Wildcats to sustained success and the distinction of being the winningest active program in the Big 12 Conference. In six seasons, Klieman has led the Wildcats to a 48-28 record as he has the second most wins in school history.

Under Klieman's leadership, K-State has won eight or more games in five of the six seasons, the lone exception being the COVID-19 campaign of 2020. No other coach in school history has more wins or eight-plus win seasons in their first six years. Klieman has led the Cats to five victories over teams ranked in the top 10 of the AP Top 25 – the most of any active Big 12 program since 2019 – while they have eight wins over top-20 teams since 2019 – which is tied for the second most among current Big 12 teams. Additionally, the Wildcats' overall record the last two years (18-8), three years (28-12) and four years (36-17) all lead the Big 12.

Sustained success is demonstrated by K-State being one of only five Power 4 teams to win at least nine games each of the last three seasons with at least one conference championship in that timeframe, joining Alabama, Clemson, Georgia and Oregon. The Wildcats' three-straight seasons of at least nine wins are the most since an eight-year streak from 1993 through 2000.

The latest of the stretch of nine-win campaigns came in 2024 as the Wildcats earned a pair of early-season victories over teams ranked No. 20. Those two top-20 wins propelled K-State to a 7-1 start, its best record over the first eight games of a season since 2014. Although the Wildcats finished the regular season with one win in their final four games, they ended on a high note with a thrilling 44-41 victory over Rutgers in the Rate Bowl. That game saw K-State trail by as many as 17 points in the middle of the third quarter and by 13 points early in the fourth before it put together the largest bowl comeback win in school history.

The Rate Bowl victory capped a school-record tying four comeback victories by Klieman's squad when trailing in the fourth quarter, matching the mark by the 2011 Wildcats. In addition to the bowl win, K-State also overcame a seven-point deficit in week two at Tulane for a 34-27 win; a four-point deficit by scoring on a 50-yard touchdown pass with 2:14 left at Colorado for a 31-28 win; and a one-point deficit with a 51-yard field goal with 1:42 left for a 29-27 win over Kansas, the latter being the Wildcats' 16-straight Dillons Sunflower Showdown victory.

Klieman presided over 17 All-Big 12 selections in 2024, the fourth-straight season Kansas State combined for at least 15 honors from the league's coaches. Headlining the group was Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year Brendan Mott, the third time a Wildcat earned the award in Klieman's six seasons.

A 9-4 campaign in 2023 was capped with a victory in the Pop-Tarts Bowl over NC State as the Wildcats finished the year ranked No. 18 in the Associated Press Top 25, No. 19 in the Coaches' poll and No. 25 in the final College Football Playoff Top 25. It marked the second-straight year the Wildcats were ranked in the final poll, doing so for the first time since 2011 and 2012. Additionally, it was the first time in the 10-year history of the CFP Top 25 that K-State has landed in the final poll in two-straight seasons.

Kansas State began 2023 non-conference play with a 2-1 record for a second-straight season, and for the second-straight season its lone blemish in those three games came to the eventual Cotton Bowl Champion, this time being at Missouri on an SEC-record 61-yard field goal as time expired.

The Wildcats jumped out of the gate in Big 12 play by winning four of their first five conference games, including a pair of blowout wins over the previous year's National Championship runner up TCU (41-3) and Big 12-newcomer Houston (41-0). K-State then went to No. 7 Texas and trailed, 27-7, toward the end of the third quarter before outscoring the Longhorns, 23-3, to force overtime before the eventual CFP Playoff squad eventually won, 33-30.

K-State rebounded from that defeat by topping Baylor, 59-25, and winning at No. 25 Kansas, 31-27, to secure the Wildcats' 15th-straight Governor's Cup victory.

The Cats went 6-1 at home during the 2023 season and were dominant in the six wins, averaging 43.9 points per game and winning those contests by an average 28 points. Of the four total losses on the season, three came to ranked teams and all four were one-possession games as the Wildcats' 5.25 average margin of defeat was the smallest in the nation for all three-loss and four-loss Power 5 teams.

The Wildcats saw 30 players earn All-Big 12 recognition in 2023, the third-most of any program. Leading the way was Outland Trophy finalist and Consensus All-American Cooper Beebe, who became the first offensive lineman in school history to earn Consensus All-America accolades. It marked the third-straight year a Wildcat earned Consensus All-America status, the longest stretch since going five-straight years from 1995 through 1999.

It only took year four of the Klieman era for a milestone to be reached at K-State as the Wildcats captured the 2022 Big 12 Championship – the fourth league title in school history and first since 2012 – and the Wildcats finished the season with a 10-4 record, the 11th double-digit victory campaign in school history. K-State finished No. 9 in the final College Football Playoff Top 25, the Wildcats' second-highest ranking ever in the CFP era and the highest for the final poll. K-State also ranked No. 14 in the final Associated Press Top 25 and Coaches' Poll, the highest final ranking since 2012.

The Wildcats' championship campaign was spearheaded by a school-record three victories over teams that were ranked in the top 10 of the AP Top 25, culminating with a 31-28 overtime victory over No. 3 TCU in the Big 12 Championship. In fact, since Klieman took over the reins of the K-State program in 2019, the Wildcats have five wins over teams ranked in the top 10 of the AP Top 25 poll, the most victories by any Big 12 program over that span.

Kansas State started the 2022 season with a 2-1 record in non-conference play, which included a dominant 40-12 victory over Missouri in which the Tigers did not score a touchdown until a final untimed down at the end of the game. The Wildcats then lost a 17-10 contest to Tulane – which finished with a 12-2 record and a win over USC in the Cotton Bowl – before going to No. 6 Oklahoma. All the Wildcats did in Norman was defeat a top-10 Sooner team for the third time in four seasons, kickstarting a 3-0 start to Big 12 play after wins over Texas Tech and at Iowa State.

After the Wildcats lost at TCU, K-State turned around and shut out No. 9 Oklahoma State, 48-0, which was the largest ever shutout victory by a lower ranked team over an AP Top 10 team. Following a narrow seven-point loss to Texas, the Wildcats closed out the regular season with three-straight victories – at Baylor, at West Virginia and against Kansas – to earn a trip to the Big 12 Championship.

Under Klieman's watch, running back Deuce Vaughn became just the second player in school history to earn back-to-back Consensus All-America honors. Vaughn was one of three players to earn First Team All-America accolades – the most by K-State in a single season since 2003 – and one of five overall All-Americans – the most since 2012.

The other two First Team All-Americans also earned individual awards from the Big 12 coaches as Felix Anudike-Uzomah was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year, while Beebe was the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year. In all, Klieman helped produce 17 All-Big 12 performers, the most by K-State since 2012.

A proven winner with a championship history, Klieman was named the 35th head football coach in Kansas State history on December 10, 2018. Among his 48 overall wins, Klieman has kept the Governor's Cup trophy in Manhattan with six wins over in-state rival KU, has collected 31 Big 12 Conference wins and seen his teams play in five bowl games.

Thanks to his 48 wins in Manhattan, Klieman holds a career head coaching record of 120-41 as his 74.5% winning percentage ranks fourth among current FBS coaches that have led programs for at least 10 seasons, trailing only Alabama's Kalen DeBoer (87.7%), Clemson's Dabo Swinney (79.3%) and Indiana's Curt Cignetti (77.8%).

Under Klieman, 10 Wildcats have been selected in the NFL Draft, including four in 2023 and three in 2024. In fact, Anudike-Uzomah was selected in the first round (No. 31) and Julius Brents was picked in the second round (No. 44) of the 2023 NFL Draft, marking the first time in school history two Wildcats were taken within the first 44 picks of an NFL Draft.

Not only has Klieman's tenure produced success on the field, but with his mantra of "how you do one thing is how you do everything" has come success in the classroom. Over Klieman's first six seasons, K-State has a combined 212 Academic All-Big 12 honors – the second most in the conference during that timeframe – which included a school record 45 in 2023. Additionally, the Wildcats boast three National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athletes under Klieman in Adam Holtorf (2019), Adrian Martinez (2022) and Beebe (2023).

The 2021 season started with three straight non-conference wins over Stanford, Southern Illinois and Nevada and a top-25 national ranking. Following three Big 12-opening losses to teams that were ranked in the top 10 at some point in 2021, the Wildcats reeled off four-straight Big 12 wins, which included a come-from-behind road triumph at Texas Tech, home victories over TCU and West Virginia, and the program's 13th-straight win over in-state rival KU. The 2021 season culminated with a 42-20 win over LSU in the TaxAct Texas Bowl.

Under Klieman's watch, Vaughn became the 11th Consensus All-American in school history as the sophomore was one of three players in the nation to top 1,000 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards on the year, while he ranked in the top 25 nationally in nine different offensive categories. Vaughn was one of 16 Wildcats that earned All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches, which included four first-team members in Anudike-Uzomah, Beebe, kick returner Malik Knowles and defensive back Russ Yeast.

Kansas State jumped out of the gate in Big 12 play in 2020 by winning its first four games, the first time the Wildcats went 4-0 to start conference play in six years and just the sixth time in the 25-year history of the Big 12. One of those victories was at No. 3 Oklahoma, the first road win over a top-five team in school history. The Wildcats were the first team to win two-straight games against the Sooners since 2013 and 2014 (Baylor) and the first to defeat top-five Sooner teams in consecutive years since 2001 and 2002 (Oklahoma State).

However, battling through the COVID-19 pandemic and losing senior starting quarterback Skylar Thompson for the season during the third game of the year, the Wildcats finished the 2020 season at 4-6. K-State was one of just two teams in the nation (Georgia Tech) to start true freshmen at both quarterback and running back in at least seven games in 2020. The running back turned out to be one of the best in the nation as Vaughn was named the True Freshman of the Year by 247Sports, landed on multiple All-America teams and was the Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year. Vaughn was one of nine Wildcats to earn All-Big 12 honors. The Wildcats also had another stellar year in the classroom in 2020 as they broke their own record from the year prior for Academic All-Big 12 honors with 33, which included 26 first-team members.

In Klieman's first year at the helm of the K-State program in 2019, the Wildcats managed to win eight games, finish in a tie for third in the Big 12 after being picked ninth in the preseason, knocked off No. 5 Oklahoma at home for the first time since 1996, won at Mississippi State – the Wildcats' first win in 11 tries inside an SEC stadium – kept the Governor's Cup in Manhattan following their 11th-straight win over rival Kansas and quickly got back to bowl eligibility after missing out the year prior. The eight wins by Klieman were the most in school history by a first-year coach and also ranked second nationally among first-year Power 5 head coaches in 2019, trailing only Ohio State's Ryan Day.

A total of 15 Wildcats earned All-Big 12 recognition in 2019, led by Special Teams Player of the Year Joshua Youngblood, who became the first true freshman in Big 12 history to be named Big 12 player of the year on offense, defense or special teams. His three kick returns for touchdowns led the nation in 2019 and sparked key Big 12 wins over Texas Tech and No. 23 Iowa State.

Prior to arriving at K-State, Klieman capped his five-year stint as head coach at North Dakota State by winning his fourth national championship in 2018. He tied Jim Tressel (Youngstown State) for the most FCS National Championships as a head coach, while he was a part of seven national championships at NDSU, which was the most in FCS history at the time of his departure.

 In Season Only*

Klieman guided the 2018 Bison to a perfect 15-0 record, just the fifth team in FCS history to go undefeated and untied on the way to a national championship. North Dakota State also claimed that feat in 2013 when Klieman was the defensive coordinator.

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Klieman left Fargo ranking first in NDSU history in winning percentage (.920) and third in victories (69).

Klieman's accomplishments as the Bison head coach came despite losing 23 seniors and welcoming seven new assistant coaches prior to his first season at the helm in 2014. That year, the Bison went 15-1 and won the national championship before going 13-2 with another national championship in 2015, 12-2 with a semifinal appearance in 2016 and 14-1 with a third national title in 2017.

Of Klieman's 69 wins at North Dakota State, 39 (56.5 percent) came over ranked opponents, while he had two wins in two tries over FBS competition – a 34-14 victory at Iowa State in his first game at the helm of NDSU and a 23-21 triumph at 11th-ranked Iowa in 2016. His teams were also stellar in protecting home field as evidenced by his 43-3 home record at NDSU, which includes winning each of his last 19 games at the FargoDome.

The Bison won the Missouri Valley Football Conference each of his five years as head coach and put together a collective 36-4 (90.0 percent) record against conference foes during that time. He was named the Bruce Craddock MVFC Coach of the Year in 2017, while he was the 2014 Rawlings Football/American Football Monthly FCS Coach of the Year and the 2018 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year.

Elevated from defensive coordinator to head coach at NDSU on December 15, 2013, Klieman's defensive units during his two-year run as coordinator each included top-10 rankings in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense and passing defense. Highlighting that run were No. 1 rankings in scoring defense in both 2012 and 2013, and total defense in 2012, the latter when he was named the Football Scoop FCS Coordinator of the Year. NDSU also led the nation in scoring defense when he was the defensive backs coach in 2011.

Klieman began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Northern Iowa, in 1991 and 1992 before being promoted to an assistant coach in 1993. He went on to Western Illinois as an assistant coach from 1994 to 1996 before serving as a graduate assistant at Kansas in 1997 and an assistant coach at Missouri State in 1999.

Klieman then moved on to Division III Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, where he was the defensive coordinator from 2002 to 2004 before taking over as head coach for the 2005 season. He returned to Northern Iowa in 2006 as an assistant coach before being elevated to defensive coordinator for the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

Klieman was a three-time All-Gateway Conference defensive back at Northern Iowa and four-year letterwinner from 1986 to 1990. He graduated from UNI in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in health education and a master's degree in physical education in 1992.

Klieman and his wife, Rhonda, are parents of two sons, Devin and Colby, and one daughter, Haley.

MATT WELLS

Associate Head Coach
Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
Utah State, 1996

kstatesports.com/CoachMattWells
@_CoachMattWells

A great offensive mind and developer of quarterback talent who has over 25 years of coaching experience, Matt Wells is in his second season at K-State and first as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach/associate head coach in 2025. Last season, he served as co-offensive coordinator.

Wells hit the ground running in his first season on staff, tutoring Avery Johnson to a school-record 25 touchdown passes, while his sophomore signal caller ranked fifth in school history in passing yards (2,712) and completions (217). Additionally, Johnson was one of only five players in the nation and one of three from Power 4 schools to record at least 2,700 passing yards and 600 rushing yards, while he was one of nine signal callers nationally with at least 25 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns.

Under the direction of Wells, Johnson guided an offense that finished in the top 15 nationally in four offensive categories, including rushing yards per carry (second; 6.08) and rushing yards per game (11th; 215.5). K-State also ranked in the top 10 in school history in 15 game or season categories. Among those were school record for offensive yards per play (6.57) and rushing yards per carry (6.08), while the Wildcats tied for third in passing touchdowns (25), ranked fourth in offensive yards per game (426.8), fifth in total offense yards (5,549), sixth in rushing yards (2,801), seventh in completions (222) and 10th in both passing yards (2,749) and pass attempts (383).

Wells, who boasts nine years of head coaching experience, came to Manhattan after spending the previous two seasons at Oklahoma as an advisor to the head coach/offensive analyst. Prior to that, he served as the head coach at his alma mater, Utah State, from 2013 through 2018 and at Texas Tech from 2019 to 2021. In addition to coaching quarterbacks during his 27-year coaching career, he has also spent time tutoring wide receivers and tight ends. In total, Wells has been a part of 13 bowl teams and two conference championships.

One of Wells' success stories tutoring quarterbacks was Jordan Love at Utah State, who accounted for 9,003 yards of total offense in his career – including a 2018 campaign in which he threw for 3,567 yards and 32 touchdowns – before declaring for the NFL Draft following his junior season of 2019. In addition to snapping five single-season school records in 2018, Love also ranked second in school history with 8,600 career passing yards and tied for second with 60 touchdown passes. He went on to be selected 26th overall by the Green Bay Packers in the 2020 NFL Draft, becoming the first Aggie to hear his name called in the first round since 1970.

With the duo of Wells and Love, Utah State went 11-2 in 2018 to match the school record for victories as the Aggies finished with a No. 21 ranking in the Coaches' poll and a No. 22 mark in the Associated Press Top 25. It marked only the fourth time in school history the Aggies – who climbed as high as No. 13 during the regular season – ended a year ranked in the final AP poll. The No. 13 ranking was Utah State's highest at any point in a season since the 1961 campaign. Additionally, the school's only two rankings in the College Football Playoff Top 25 came under Wells in 2018.

Utah State boasted one of the most dynamic offenses in the country in 2018, ranking second by averaging 47.5 points per game. The Aggies, who also ranked among the national leaders for fewest sacks allowed (fourth), total offense (11th), passing efficiency (14th) and passing offense (17th), lit up scoreboards to the tune of 618 points, snapping the Mountain West and Utah State single-season records in the process.

Wells, who was hired as the head coach following two seasons as an assistant, guided Utah State to its best stretch in history as the Aggies won 44 games and played in five bowl games under his guidance. He left the school being the only coach to lead the Aggies to at least three bowl games as well as multiple bowl victories.

Wells, the fourth-longest tenured coach in program history, departed Utah State as the only coach to lead the Aggies to at least three bowl games as well as multiple bowl victories. In fact, Wells was a player (1993), a coordinator (2012) or the head coach (2013-14) for four of Utah State's first five bowl wins in its history with the lone exception coming at the 2018 Gildan New Mexico Bowl after he had already accepted the job at Texas Tech.

Wells closed his tenure in Logan as the second-winningest coach in program history as his 44 victories trailed only the 128 wins put up by E. Lowell Romney, who coached 29 years from 1919 through 1948. Additionally, Wells compiled a 30-18 record in Mountain West play, trailing only Romney in all-time conference wins among Utah State head coaches.

The Aggies recorded two of their three 10-win campaigns in school history under Wells as Utah State finished 10-4 in only his second season in 2014 and then 11-2 in 2018. Utah State was also 9-5 during Wells' debut season in 2013, which marked the most wins for a first-year head coach in program history.

Wells was named the Mountain West Coach of the Year in both 2013 and 2018, making him just the fifth Mountain West coach to receive the honor twice in a career to join the likes of Sonny Lubick (Colorado State), Rocky Long (New Mexico), Urban Meyer (Utah) and Gary Patterson (TCU).

A native of Sallisaw, Oklahoma, Wells began his career coaching the quarterbacks, fullbacks and wide receivers at Navy from 1997 through 2001 in addition to serving as the head coach for the Midshipmen junior varsity team. He then spent five seasons back in his home state as he was the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Tulsa from 2002 to 2006.

Wells spent the 2007, 2008 and 2010 seasons at New Mexico as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator. During the 2009 season, he was the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Louisville.

Wells' tenure at Utah State began as the quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator in 2011 before being promoted to offensive coordinator a year later. As offensive coordinator, Wells helped Utah State claim the 2012 WAC title, its first outright conference championship since 1936 and just its third in school history. That season, Wells directed an Aggie offense that set single-season school records for total points (454), total offense (6,108), completions (285) and total yards per game (469.8), while ranking second in points per game (34.9) and total passing yards (3,445).

Wells was instrumental in the development of quarterback Chuckie Keeton, who earned First Team All-WAC honors in 2012 after setting single-season school records for touchdown passes (27), passing yards (3,373), completion percentage (67.6%), completions (275) and total offense (3,992). Keeton also earned WAC Offensive Player of the Week honors four times that year, which marked a new single-season school record.

While at Texas Tech, Wells helped four Red Raiders hear their name called in the NFL Draft as he became the first Texas Tech head coach to deliver multiple NFL Draft picks in each of his first two seasons since Jerry Moore over the 1982 and 1983 drafts. It also marked the first time since the 2004 and 2005 seasons where Tech boasted multiple NFL Draft selections in back-to-back years.

Wells, a quarterback for the Aggies from 1994 to 1996, was a member of two conference championship teams, which came as a redshirt freshman in 1993 and as a senior in 1996 when Utah State was a member of the Big West Conference.

The Aggies earned a share of the Big West title each of those two seasons, the first of which garnered Utah State an invite to the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl II. Utah State topped Ball State, 42-33, in that game for its first bowl victory in school history.

Wells earned his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Utah State in 1996, graduating cum laude. He and his wife, Jen, have two daughters, Jadyn and Ella, and one son, Wyatt.

VAN MALONE

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Pass Game Coordinator
Cornerbacks
Houston, 2002

kstatesports.com/CoachMalone
@coachvanmalone @VanBMalone3rd

Van Malone, a builder of culture who was a successful defensive back in both college and the NFL, enters his seventh season coaching the cornerbacks in 2025. He is also in his sixth season as the program's assistant head coach and defensive pass game coordinator, titles he added prior to the 2020 campaign.

Malone – who has tutored seven All-Big 12 cornerbacks in his six seasons on staff – has helped the Wildcat defense surrender only 21.8 points per game over the last four seasons to rank 24th nationally, 17th among Power 4 programs and third among current returning Big 12 teams.

Part of the success has been in forced turnovers – specifically interceptions – as K-State has tallied 62 turnovers over the 2022, 2023 and 2024 campaigns, which ranks 13th among Power 4 schools and are the most among current Big 12 programs.

Malone helped the Wildcats to their third-straight season of at least nine wins in 2024 as the defense finished fourth nationally in fourth down defense at 32.1%, its highest ranking since at least 2004 and lowest conversion rate allowed since 2001. K-State also ranked 28th nationally in rushing defense, its best mark since 2007.

He tutored Jacob Parrish to All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades – his second-straight year picking up the award – prior to the junior being drafted in the third round by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Thanks to Malone and his cornerbacks, K-State finished the 2023 season ranked in the top 30 nationally in eight categories, placing 11th in third-down defense, 16th in fumble recovered, 18th in pass efficiency defense, 20th in turnovers gained, 25th in interceptions, 26th in scoring defense, 28th in first downs allowed and 30th in red zone defense. The Wildcats also yielded only 39.4% of opponent red-zone trip touchdowns, which was the second-best mark in the nation.

Malone saw two of his pupils earn all-conference status in 2023, including Parrish, who tied for fourth in the Big 12 and 19th nationally in interceptions, while he ranked sixth in the conference in passes defended. Thanks to his on-field success, Malone was named the 2023 Big 12 Cornerbacks Coach of the Year by Our Coaching Network.

Malone's work in both on-field and off-field facets helped the Wildcats win the Big 12 title in 2022 as K-State ranked 10th nationally and second in the Big 12 in interceptions, its highest national ranking since 2003 and most interceptions since 2016. K-State also ranked 29th in the country and third in the Big 12 in scoring defense, marking the first time the Cats had consecutive seasons allowing less than 22.0 points per game since going 13-straight years from 1991-2003.

Under Malone's guidance, cornerback Julius Brents ranked 22nd in the country and third in the Big 12 with four interceptions en route to All-Big 12 First Team accolades from the league's coaches. Brents went on to be selected in the second round of the 2023 NFL Draft – No. 44 overall – by the Indianapolis Colts, the highest-drafted Wildcat cornerback since Terence Newman went fifth overall in 2003. Opposite Brents, Ekow Boye-Doe was an honorable mention pick in 2022, and he went on to sign a free agent contract with Kansas City en route to being a member of the active roster during the Chiefs' Super Bowl run.

On a personal level, the 2022 season also saw Malone honored on two occasions. Prior to the season, Malone was one of 12 coaches in the nation selected for the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches Coalition Academy. Additionally, Malone earned the Be the Match Champions Award from the Maxwell Football Club after the season for spearheading the Wildcats' effort for the Be The Match national bone marrow donor program.

The 2022 season came on the heels of Malone helping guide a 2021 unit to impressive results as the Wildcats allowed just 21.0 points per game – their best mark since 2003 – to rank 23rd in the nation. The turnaround was notable considering the year prior, as the team was ravaged by the COVID-19 pandemic, K-State allowed 32.2 points per game. Brents – who was in his first season at K-State after transferring in from Iowa – earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades from the league's coaches as a 13-game starter.

In his first season in Manhattan, Malone helped lead a defense that ranked second in the Big 12 by allowing 21.4 points per game. Thanks in part to Malone's work in the back end, Kansas State ranked second in the nation in third down defense at 28.0% – its best mark since at least 2003 – and second in the Big 12 in passing yards per game – its best finish in five years.

Malone tutored AJ Parker, who picked up All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades in 2019 despite missing the final five games of the year due to injury. At the time of his injury, Parker was tied for second in the Big 12 and 17th nationally in interceptions.

Malone's work may begin on the field, but he has also invested time to help others off the field. He is a member of the National Coaches Council for the Get In The Game/National Marrow Donor Program (NMDP), helping organize drives each of the last three years. The drives have had a combined 1,000 people join the registry in which six individuals agreed to become donors and save lives.

Additionally, Malone is a co-author of Path For Coaches Volume 1 – Mentoring, a leadership-focused publication that has achieved Amazon Best Seller status in its category. That is just a small part of the recognition he has received for advocacy work in coach development and minority leadership advancement.

Malone came to Manhattan after one year working as a defensive quality control coach at Mississippi State. For three years prior, Malone one was the defensive coordinator at SMU, including the 2017 season when he was named the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) National FBS Assistant Coach of the Year.

Malone went to SMU after a three-year stint at Oklahoma State where he coached the Cowboys' safeties in 2012 before switching to cornerbacks for the next two seasons. Malone's move to Stillwater came after two years serving as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Tulsa.

Malone first coached in the Big 12 from 2006-09 when he worked at Texas A&M, with three of those four years resulting in bowl appearances.

Malone coached defensive backs at North Texas during the 2005 season, and before that served as the cornerbacks coach and worked with the special teams at Western Michigan in 2004.

In 2003, Malone served an NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Detroit Lions and also worked with wide receivers at North Dakota State.

Malone played four seasons in the NFL after being drafted in the second round – the 57th selection overall – by the Detroit Lions in 1994. He was a four-year letterman (1990-93) at Texas, earning All-America honors and All-SWC his senior season. As a freshman in 1990, Malone earned Sporting News Freshman All-America honors.

A native of Houston who majored in education/sports management while at Texas, Malone completed his undergraduate work through the NFL's degree completion program and earned his degree in social science from the University of Houston in 2002.

Malone and his wife, Nedra, have three sons, Van, Vaughn and Vincent.

JOE KLANDERMAN

Defensive Coordinator
Safeties
Minnesota State, 2001

kstatesports.com/CoachKlanderman
@CoachKlanderman

Spearheading a defense that has been one of the best in the Big 12 over the last four seasons, Joe Klanderman enters his seventh season at Kansas State in 2025 and his sixth as the defensive coordinator. In addition to running the defense, Klanderman also tutors the Wildcat safeties as he has done since arriving in Manhattan in 2019.

Leading a dynamic shift in defensive philosophy prior to the 2021 season, Klanderman implemented a three-man front for the first time in his career, and the returns paid off as the Wildcats have averaged 21.8 points allowed per game over the last four seasons – a span of 53 games – to rank 24th nationally, 17th among Power 4 teams and third among current Big 12 teams. K-State has allowed fewer than 24.0 points per game each of the last four seasons, the longest streak since 1991-2003.

A key figure in the limited points surrendered is turnovers, as the Wildcat has forced 62 combined turnovers the last three seasons to rank first among active Big 12 schools.

Klanderman has helped Wildcat defenders to 41 All-Big 12 honors as defensive coordinator, while he has tutored safeties to eight all-conference accolades since his arrival, including honorable mention pick VJ Payne in 2024.

In 2024, the K-State defense ranked fourth nationally in fourth down defense at 32.1% (first in Big 12), 25th in sacks per game at 2.69 (second in Big 12) and 28th in rushing yards allowed per game at 118.7 (second in Big 12). The rushing defense figure and ranking was the Wildcats' best since 2007 (No. 13; 117.7) thanks to the fact that they did not allow a 200-yard rushing game in any of the 13 contests. K-State was one of only two Big 12 teams to lay that claim (Arizona State), while it was the first time the Wildcats accomplished the feat since 2016. Their best game against the run came at Colorado as its -29 rushing yards allowed was the third fewest in school history and the second fewest of any team in 2024.

K-State's No. 25 national ranking in sacks was its best since 2015 (No. 9), while the 2.69 sacks per game was the Wildcats' highest mark since 2020 (2.80). Additionally, the Wildcats' No. 4 ranking in fourth down defense was their best since at least 2004 and the 32.1% conversion rate was the lowest allowed since a 21.4% mark in 2001.

In another banner year defensively in 2023, K-State finished the season ranked in the top 30 nationally in eight categories, placing 11th in third-down defense (30.2%), 16th in fumbles recovered (10), 18th in pass efficiency defense (118.63), 20th in turnovers gained (23), 25th in interceptions (13), 26th in scoring defense (21.0), 28th in first downs allowed (225) and 30th in red zone defense (89.2%). Although they allowed points in nearly 90% of their opponents' red zone attempts, only 39.4% of those resulted in touchdowns, which was the second-best mark in the nation.

Klanderman saw Wildcat defenders pick up 12 All-Big 12 honors in 2023, including a pair of safeties in Kobe Savage (second team) and Marques Sigle (honorable mention).

In 2022, the defense helped carry the Wildcats to a Big 12 Championship as they ranked in the top 30 nationally in five categories. One of those was a No. 18 showing in fourth down defense (39.4%), which included a key 4th and Goal stop in overtime of the Big 12 Championship just prior to the game-winning field goal during the 31-28 victory over No. 3 TCU.

The Wildcats' 24 turnovers gained and 16 passes intercepted were both their highest since 2016, while K-State's No. 10 national ranking in interceptions was the best since the 2003 squad also ranked 10th. Additionally, K-State's pass efficiency defense of 123.36 was its best mark since 2013 (114.82).

Klanderman presided over a 2022 defense that produced First Team All-American Felix Anudike-Uzomah, who was also named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year. Anudike-Uzomah was one of seven Wildcat defenders to earn All-Big 12 honors. Anudike-Uzomah was one of three Wildcat defenders selected in the 2023 NFL Draft as he was taken in the first round by Kansas City, while cornerback Julius Brents was selected in the second round (No. 44 overall) by Indianapolis to mark the first time in school history two Wildcats were taken within the first 44 picks of an NFL Draft. Additionally, safety Josh Hayes was selected in the sixth round by Tampa Bay.

In 2021 – the first season of the Wildcats' new-look defense – K-State trimmed 11.2 points per game allowed from the previous season, down to 21.0 points per game to stand as their best mark since 2003 and rank 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12. Additionally, the defense allowed its fewest yards per game since 2009 (344.7) to rank third in the Big 12, while its 129.5 rushing yards allowed per game was its best effort in four seasons. K-State also finished with 90 tackles for loss on the year – its best mark since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

Overall, Klanderman helped nine Wildcats obtain All-Big 12 honors in 2021, including a pair of first-team honorees in Anudike-Uzomah and safety Russ Yeast. Anudike-Uzomah was also the co-Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year and earned votes for Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. In addition to Yeast, Klanderman also coached safety Jahron McPherson to All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades for a second-straight season. Following his lone season in Manhattan, Yeast was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams.

Klanderman oversaw a unit in 2020 that ranked seventh in the nation in interception-return touchdowns and 24th in sacks, the latter being the Wildcats' best mark in five years. The Wildcats had four All-Big 12 performers, including first-team honoree Wyatt Hubert as the defensive end ranked 16th in the nation and third in the Big 12 in sacks. Hubert went on to be drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals.

In his first year in Manhattan, Klanderman helped the 2019 Wildcats rank first in the nation in third down defense at 28.0%, which was the best by K-State since at least 2003. The Wildcats also ranked 15th nationally in first down defense (224) and put together a No. 2 ranking in the Big 12 in pass defense (202.9 yards per game), their best ranking in the conference in five seasons. Thanks in part to Klanderman's tutelage of the back end of the defense, K-State allowed just 21.4 points per game, their best mark since 2003. Under Klanderman's guidance, Denzel Goolsby earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades, the first Wildcat safety to do so since 2016.

Klanderman came to Manhattan from North Dakota State after helping the Bison win four national titles in his five seasons on staff, which included a perfect 15-0 record in 2018. He went to North Dakota State after a 12-year coaching stint at his alma mater, Minnesota State. While in Mankato, Klanderman served as the defensive line coach from 2002 to 2004 before moving to the secondary in 2005. He then took over the reins as defensive coordinator from 2007 to 2013 while coaching the linebackers.

Klanderman was a four-year letterwinner on the defensive line for the Mavericks from 1997 to 2001, serving as a starter for three of those seasons. A product of Hammond, Wisconsin, Klanderman was named an Academic All-Region honoree following his senior season in 2001.

A 2001 graduate from Minnesota State with a degree in social studies, Klanderman also obtained his master's degree in sports administration from MSU in 2004.

Klanderman and his wife, Amanda, are the parents of four children, Elle, Corryn, Jarrett and James.

A 30-year coaching veteran with a versatile background of coaching offensive skill positions, Brian Anderson is in his seventh season as K-State's running backs coach in 2025.

K-State running backs have found success every year with Anderson in Manhattan as he has tutored an All-Big 12 running back in each of his first six seasons on staff, including two of the four players in school history to record multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons in Deuce Vaughn (2021, 2022) and DJ Giddens (2023, 2024). Anderson's pupils have combined for four-straight seasons with a 1,000-yard rusher, the longest streak by the Wildcats since 2001-04.

The 2024 season saw the end of the career of Giddens, who Anderson coached to top-10 career marks in rushing yards per carry (2nd), rushing yards (3rd), 100-yard rushing games (3rd), receiving yards by a running back (4th) and rushing yards per game (5th). During his junior campaign in which he was named a Doak Walker Award semifinalist, Giddens set a school record with 6.55 yards per carry, which was also the sixth-highest average in Big 12 history (min. 200 carries). The All-Big 12 Second Team performer ranked eighth in the nation with that figure, while he also ranked eighth in scrimmage yards per game and 13th in rushing yards per game.

With Giddens doing a bulk of the work, Anderson helped the Wildcats finish second nationally in rushing yards per carry at 6.08 and 11th in rushing yards per game at 215.5. K-State also set school records for offensive yards per play (6.57) and rushing yards per carry (6.08), while it ranked fourth in offensive yards per game (426.8), fifth in total offensive yards (5,549) and sixth in rushing yards (2,801).

Anderson saw a running back transition in the 2024 Rate Bowl as he tutored Dylan Edwards – who earned votes for the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year award – to a school bowl record 196 rushing yards, while his 223 all-purpose yards ranked second in K-State's bowl history. Powered by Edwards, the Wildcats set the school record for total yards (542) and rushing yards (347) in a bowl game.

Edwards finished the 2024 season with a 7.4-yard average per carry to rank first among Power 4 running backs (min. 70 carries), while he teamed with Giddens (6.6) and Avery Johnson (5.4) to make K-State the only Power 4 team in the country with three players averaging at least 5.4 yards per rush (min. 70 carries).

In Giddens' first season as the full-time starter in 2023, the Anderson pupil ranked 18th nationally and fifth in the conference in total rushing yards (1,226) as he produced the 19th 1,000-yard rushing season in school history.

During the 2023 season, Anderson's backs helped K-State set a school record for fewest fumbles lost in a season (2), one fewer than the previous record set in 2012. The Wildcat running backs also helped the offense rank in the top 30 nationally in 11 statistical categories, including scoring (10th), rushing (11th), third down conversions (11th), rushing touchdowns (12th) and first downs (12th). Additionally, the Wildcats ranked second in the country by scoring touchdowns on 78.46% of their red zone attempts.

K-State put up top-10 rankings in 32 game or season school record categories in 2023. Among those was a program-best 30 passing touchdowns, No. 2 rankings in offensive yards per game (445.2) and first downs (310), and a No. 3 showing in total yards (5,788).

Under Anderson, Vaughn became just the second player in school history to earn consecutive Consensus All-America honors by picking up the nod in 2021 and 2022. All Vaughn did during his three-year career was finish second in school history in career rushing yards (3,604) in addition to setting the school records for receptions (116) and receiving yards (1,280) by a running back. Vaughn also finished in the top 10 in K-State history in 11 other career categories, and he went on to be selected in the 2023 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

Vaughn became just the third player in school history with multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons as he went for 1,558 yards in 2022 en route to First Team All-America honors. Vaughn, who finished the season ranking in the top 10 in school history in seven categories, was named the 2022 Big 12 Championship Game MVP after rushing for 130 yards in K-State's 31-28 overtime upset over No. 3 TCU.

Anderson's running backs helped the 2022 Wildcat offense account for 208.3 rushing yards per game to rank 15th in the nation, K-State's best ranking since 2003. That figure also ranked third in school history, while the Wildcats' 2,916 total rushing yards ranked fourth and 32 rushing touchdowns ranked 10th. The running backs also helped K-State rank second in school history in total offensive yards, fifth in yards per game and ninth in yards per play.

As a sophomore in 2021, Vaughn became the 11th Consensus All-American in school history as he ranked fourth nationally in total touchdowns, fifth in points per game, fifth in yards from scrimmage per game, eighth in rushing touchdowns and ninth in rushing yards per game. Vaughn picked up First Team All-America honors from the Associated Press and Sporting News, and he was a second-team pick by three other outlets.

Vaughn was one of the most electrifying true freshmen in the nation in 2020 thanks to Anderson's teachings, which was impressive considering a condensed fall camp due to COVID-19 protocols. Vaughn totaled 1,221 all-purpose yards – including 642 yards on the ground – in 10 games with nine total touchdowns. Vaughn was named the 247Sports True Freshman of the Year, a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and The Athletic, an Honorable Mention All-American by Phil Steele and the Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year by the league's coaches. Under Anderson, Vaughn was the first Wildcat true freshman to earn First or Second Team All-Big 12 honors on offense in the Big 12 era.

Anderson tutored a running back group in 2019 that helped the Wildcats finish fourth in the Big 12 in rushing offense and third in the league in rushing touchdowns. Due to its work on the ground, the Wildcats led the nation in red-zone offense, while they ranked ninth in the nation in time of possession.

Not only did Anderson have to teach the running back group a new offense, he had to do so with zero scholarship running backs on the roster when he arrived. However, Anderson and the Wildcats did benefit from a graduate transfer in James Gilbert, who went on to earn All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades.

Anderson came to Manhattan from Illinois State, where he coached the wide receivers in 2018. A bulk of Anderson's career was with head coach Jerry Kill at Southern Illinois (2001-07), Northern Illinois (2008-10) and Minnesota (2011-16).

Anderson has ties to the state of Kansas that go back to the late 1990s when he coached at Coffeyville Community College from 1997-2000, where three of his student-athletes went on to play in the NFL. He also coached two seasons at Highland Community College.

Anderson began his coaching career at Western Illinois, serving as a student assistant in 1994, before coaching wide receivers in 1995-96.

Anderson's playing career began at Ellsworth Community College in Iowa Falls, Iowa before transferring to Western Illinois, where he lettered as a wide receiver in 1991 and 1992.

Anderson holds a bachelor's degree from Western Illinois, and he and his wife, Kerri, have a daughter Annabelle.

BRIAN LEPAK

Assistant Coach
Offensive Line
Oklahoma, 2010

luh-PACK

@CoachBrianLepak

Brian Lepak, an intelligent young coach who has had a hand in K-State's offensive success the last three years, is in his fifth season overall at K-State and first as the Wildcats' offensive line coach in 2025. He served as the tight ends coach from 2022 through 2024, while he was a senior offensive quality control coach in 2021.

Lepak has found quick success during his first three years as a full-time coach for the Wildcats, tutoring Ben Sinnott to All-Big 12 First Team accolades in both 2022 and 2023, while the Wildcats had two tight ends pick up All-Big 12 honors in 2024 in Garrett Oakley (second team) and Will Swanson (honorable mention). It was the first time since 1997 that the Wildcats had a pair of All-Big 12 tight ends in the same season, while Oakley's second-team designation marked the first time in the Big 12 era that K-State had a first- or second-team all-conference tight end in three straight seasons.

Under Lepak's guidance, the K-State tight end unit combined for a nation-leading 13 touchdown receptions in 2024. Five of those came from Oakley, which tied for the second most in school history by a tight end and third by any sophomore. Oakley enters his junior campaign of 2025 with seven career receiving touchdowns to rank third in school history among tight ends.

An integral part of the offensive staff, Lepak helped Kansas State finish in the top 15 nationally in four offensive categories during the 2024 season as it ranked second in rushing yards per carry at 6.08 (first in Big 12), 10th in sacks allowed per game at 1.00 (second in Big 12), 11th in rushing yards per game at 215.5 (second in Big 12) and 12th in tackles for loss allowed per game at 3.92 (third in Big 12). Lepak also helped the 2024 Wildcats rank in the top 10 in school history in 15 game or season categories. Among those were school records for offensive yards per play (6.57) and rushing yards per carry (6.08), while K-State tied for third in passing touchdowns (25), ranked fourth in offensive yards per game (426.8), fifth in total offensive yards (5,549), sixth in rushing yards (2,801), seventh in completions (222) and 10th in both passing yards (2,749) and pass attempts (383).

Over his first two seasons tutoring the K-State tight ends, Lepak coached Sinnott to top-10 rankings nationally among the position group in receiving yards (third), receptions (fourth) and receiving touchdowns (tied for eighth). He left K-State by tying for the most career receiving touchdowns by a tight end (10) in addition to ranking third among the position in receptions (82) and fourth in receiving yards (1,138).

Under Lepak's leadership, Sinnott had a banner year as a junior in 2023 as he earned Honorable Mention All-America honors from Phil Steele and was a semifinalist for the John Mackey Award, the first player in school history to be named a semifinalist for the award that is presented annually to the nation's top tight end. All Sinnott did was record the most single-season receptions (49), receiving yards (676) and receiving touchdowns (6) by a tight end in school history, marks that each ranked in the top five nationally among the position group.

Sinnott was selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft – No. 53 overall – by the Washington Commanders, the highest-drafted tight end in school history.

Lepak's position group – a diverse one that not only excels in the passing game but also in run blocking – helped the 2023 Wildcat offense rank in the top 30 nationally in 11 offensive categories, including scoring (10th – 37.1 points per game), rushing (11th – 204.1 yards per game), third down conversions (11th – 47.9%), rushing touchdowns (12th – 32) and first downs (12th – 310). The Wildcats ranked 30th nationally in red zone offense (89.23%) but were second in the country by scoring touchdowns on 78.46% of their red zone attempts.

K-State also ranked in the top 10 in school history in 32 game or season categories in 2023. Among those was a school-record 30 passing touchdowns, No. 2 rankings in offensive yards per game (445.2) and first downs (310), and No. 3 showings in total yards (5,788) and completions (258). Thanks to his work, Lepak was named the Big 12 Tight Ends Coach of the Year by Our Coaching Network.

In Lepak's first season coaching the tight ends, Sinnott averaged 14.4 yards per catch to rank fourth nationally as he earned his first All-Big 12 honor. The K-State fullbacks and tight ends helped the Wildcats win the 2022 Big 12 title thanks to an offensive unit that ranked in the top 10 in school history in 11 categories, including ranking second in offensive yards (5,863) and plays (958), fourth in rushing yards (2,916) and fifth in yards per game (418.8).

The Wildcats ranked 15th in the country in rushing yards per game (208.3) in 2022, their highest national ranking since placing ninth in 2003. Additionally, K-State's 210.5 passing yards per game and 421.6 total yards per game were the most since the 2014 season.

Lepak came to K-State prior to the 2021 season as a Senior Offensive Quality Control Coach, spending a bulk of the 2021 season breaking down future opponents' tendencies and potential player matchups for the coaching staff, and he assisted with the early implementation of the game plan each week. Lepak then coached the Wildcat fullbacks and tight ends in K-State's victory over LSU in the Texas Bowl, seeing four of his pupils catch passes, including two by senior tight end Daniel Imatorbhebhe that went for 29 yards.

Prior to coming to Manhattan, Lepak served one year as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach at Southern. During his lone season in Baton Rouge, Lepak helped the Jaguars earn a top-20 final ranking during the 2021 spring season. Under Lepak's watch, all five Southern offensive linemen earned All-SWAC honors, including three first-team performers. Southern finished the COVID-shortened spring season with a 5-1 record.

Lepak spent the previous three seasons as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma. While on the Sooner staff, he assisted with the offensive line that helped pave the way for multiple national award winners – including two Heisman trophy winners – and helped lead the team to three consecutive Big 12 Championships and College Football Playoff appearances. In 2018, the offensive line was honored by winning the Joe Moore Award for the nation's most outstanding offensive line unit. He went to Oklahoma after spending the 2014 through 2016 seasons as a graduate assistant at Indiana.

A native of Claremore, Oklahoma, Lepak was an offensive lineman for two seasons at Colorado State before transferring to Oklahoma where he spent three years, including the 2010 Big 12 Championship season, while he was an Academic All-American that year.

After completing his playing career, Lepak was awarded the Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholar Award and attended law school at the University of Oklahoma College of Law where he was a member of the Oklahoma Law Review. He graduated in 2014 and was admitted to the Oklahoma Bar Association the same year. In addition to his law degree, he has dual degrees in Accounting and Finance from the OU Price College of Business where he was the Outstanding Senior in Accounting.

Lepak and his wife, Colleen, have four children, Thomas, Penelope, Luke and Margaret.

A native of Kansas City, Kansas and experienced coach at all levels of college football, Matthew Middleton is in his third season at Kansas State in 2025 coaching the wide receivers.

Over his first two seasons, Middleton has coached Jayce Brown to one of the best starts by a wide receiver in school history. Brown opens his junior campaign in 2025 ranked eighth in school history in career yards per reception (17.03), while he was the seventh-fastest player in school history to reach 1,000 career receiving yards (59th catch). Brown is also fifth nationally among active players with his 17.03 career average per reception.

Those career figures are buoyed by an 823-yard season in 2024, the new school record for receiving yards by a sophomore. Middleton also guided Brown to a tie for third in school history in touchdown catches by a sophomore (5) and a fifth-place ranking in receptions (47). He finished the 2024 campaign ranked 31st nationally and fourth in the Big 12 in yards per reception (17.51), while those rankings jumped to eighth in the nation and tops in the Big 12 among receivers with at least 45 catches.

Middleton was part of an offensive staff that guided the Wildcats to top-10 rankings in school history in 15 game or season categories, including a school record for offensive yards per play (6.57). The Wildcats also tied for third in passing touchdowns (25), ranked fourth in offensive yards per game (426.8), fifth in total offensive yards (5,549), seventh in completions (222) and 10th in passing yards (2,749).

Middleton made an immediate impact as his receivers helped the 2023 Wildcat offense rank in the top 30 nationally in 11 offensive categories, including scoring (10th – 37.1 points per game), rushing (11th – 204.1 yards per game), third down conversions (11th – 47.9%), rushing touchdowns (12th – 32) and first downs (12th – 310). The Wildcats also ranked 30th nationally in red zone offense (89.23%) but were second in the country by scoring touchdowns on 78.46% of their red zone attempts.

K-State also ranked in the top 10 in school history in 32 game or season categories in 2023. Among those was a school-record 30 passing touchdowns, No. 2 rankings in offensive yards per game (445.2) and first downs (310), and No. 3 showings in total yards (5,788), completions (258) and pass attempts (426).

During Middleton's first year in Manhattan, he helped close the book on the career of Phillip Brooks, who left K-State ranking fourth in school history in career receptions (182), seventh in career receiving yards (2,127) and tied for seventh in career receiving touchdowns (14).

Under Middleton, Brooks ranked ninth in the Big 12 in receptions per game (4.42) in 2023, the first Wildcat wide receiver to rank in the top 10 in the conference in the category since Tyler Lockett (second) and Curry Sexton (fourth) in 2014, and Brooks' 53 receptions were the most by a Wildcat in nine seasons. Brooks went on to earn All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades from the league's coaches as both a wide receiver and kick returner.

Middleton, a 17-year coaching veteran, came to Manhattan after spending the previous five seasons as the wide receivers coach at Kent State where he guided Golden Flash receivers to six all-conference selections, including four first-team honors. In 2022, wide receiver Dante Cephas earned his second All-MAC First Team designation, while Devontez Walker also picked up first-team honors as Kent State passed for more than 2,500 yards for the fourth time in Middleton's five seasons on staff. In addition to the two receivers, Middleton also coached Ja'Shawun Poke to All-MAC Second Team honors as a kick returner.

Under Middleton, Cephas finished the 2022 season ranked second in the MAC by averaging 82.7 yards per game. Cephas' best game was a school record 246-yard performance against Ohio, which was just one yard shy of the top receiving mark in the nation in 2022. In his first season as a starter, Walker set the program record with 11 touchdown catches to rank seventh in the country, and his 921 receiving yards ranked second in the conference and stood as the third-most in program history. He also finished amongst MAC leaders in receptions (58) and yards per catch (15.9).

In 2021, the Golden Flashes set a school record for passing offense (3,435 yards) and ranked fourth in the nation in total offense (493.7 yards per game). Cephas was named to the All-MAC First Team after totaling 1,240 yards to rank 16th in the nation to go along with nine touchdowns. Kent State won the MAC East Division, played in the MAC Championship and the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

In the shortened 2020 campaign, Middleton coached junior wide receiver Isaiah McKoy to All-MAC First Team honors after finishing third in the conference in yards per catch (18.1) and yards per game (113.0). McKoy topped 100 yards in three of four games and had at least one touchdown in all four games.

In 2019, the Golden Flashes averaged 405.6 yards per game (third in program history) and logged 2,849 passing yards (second in program history) while totaling 42 touchdowns (fifth). Kent State eclipsed 50 points in the program's first-ever bowl win, a 51-41 victory over Utah State in the Frisco Bowl. Middleton saw two of his pupils earn All-MAC honors in McKoy and Mike Carrigan. McKoy led the Flashes with 56 receptions, 872 yards and eight touchdowns, cracking the top 10 in program history in all three categories and leading the MAC in yards per game and touchdowns. Carrigan caught 44 passes for 570 yards and five touchdowns.

In his first year in Kent in 2018, Middleton's unit saw an immediate jump in production from the previous season as Antwan Dixon hauled in 52 receptions – the ninth most in a single season in program history – and Carrigan produced a team-leading 597 receiving yards and five touchdowns.

Middleton went to Kent State after serving as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at South Dakota the previous three seasons. In 2017, the Coyotes advanced to the second round of the FCS playoffs thanks to an average of 333.2 passing yards per game to rank sixth in the FCS.

Middleton began his coaching career at his alma mater, Ottawa, in 2008 before moving to Omaha to coach the wide receivers and returners for two seasons. He then coached the same two positions at Chadron State in 2011 and served as a graduate assistant at Kansas in 2012 before moving on to South Dakota.

Working concurrently with his collegiate jobs, Middleton also earned three Bill Walsh Minority Internships with NFL teams during the early part of training camp, working with the Chicago Bears (July 2015), Minnesota Vikings (July 2016) and Detroit Lions (July 2020).

After graduating from Bonner Springs High School, Middleton picked up four all-conference honors – including two in 2006 as a receiver and a returner – at Ottawa as he left the program as the school's all-time leader with 159 career receptions. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Ottawa in 2008 and went on to obtain a master's degree in recreation administration from the University of Nebraska Omaha in 2012.

Middleton and his wife, Jenna, have two sons, Evan and Elijah, and two daughters, Bria and Cora.

STEVE STANARD

Assistant Coach
Linebackers
Nebraska, 1989

@coachstanard

A veteran coach with ties to the Midwest and more than 30 years of coaching experience, Steve Stanard is in his sixth season at Kansas State in 2025 as the program's linebackers coach.

During his time in Manhattan, Stanard has coached nine Wildcat linebackers to All-Big 12 honors with at least one honoree in every season on staff.

The success of Stanard's linebackers has been a key cog in the Wildcats' successful change in defensive philosophy prior to the 2021 season when K-State moved to a 3-3-5 alignment. Since the switch, the Wildcats have averaged 21.8 points allowed per game – a span of 53 games – to rank 24th nationally, 17th among Power 4 teams and third among current Big 12 teams. K-State has allowed fewer than 24.0 points per game each of the last four seasons, the first time doing so since 1991-2003.

In terms of turnovers, the Wildcats tallied 62 over the last three seasons to tie for 13th among Power 4 programs and rank first among current Big 12 schools. Over the last three years K-State linebackers have forced 10 fumbles, recovered six fumbles and picked off six passes.

The 2024 season saw Stanard coach true sophomore Austin Romaine to All-Big 12 Second Team honors after he led the Wildcats with 96 tackles, the most by a Wildcat since 2017. Romaine ranked ninth in the Big 12 in tackles per game, while he tied for fifth in forced fumbles per game.

With Romaine leading the charge, Stanard's linebackers helped K-State finish in the top 30 nationally in three defensive categories as they ranked fourth in fourth down defense at 32.1%, 25th in sacks per game at 2.69 and 28th in rushing yards allowed per game at 118.7. The Wildcats' rushing defense ranking and mark was the best since 2007, and they did not allow a 200-yard rushing game for the first time since 2016 as K-State was one of only two Big 12 teams to lay that claim in 2024.

Three of Stanard's linebackers earned All-Big 12 honors in 2023, led by second-team honoree Austin Moore, who also picked up votes for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year award as he tied for team-high honors with 63 tackles and led the squad with 12.5 tackles for loss. Des Purnell earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades as he tied for 19th in the nation and second in the Big 12 in fumble recoveries. Romaine earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year award after being pressed into starting duties toward the end of the season.

K-State linebackers helped the Wildcats put together another stellar campaign in 2023, one in which the defense finished the season ranked in the top 30 nationally in eight categories, placing 11th in third-down defense, 16th in fumbles recovered, 18th in pass efficiency defense, 20th in turnovers gained, 25th in interceptions, 26th in scoring defense, 28th in first downs allowed and 30th in red zone defense. Although the Wildcats allowed points in nearly 90% of their opponents' red zone attempts, only 39.4% of those resulted in touchdowns, which was the second-best mark in the nation.

Stanard helped K-State capture the 2022 Big 12 Championship by tutoring a dynamic group of linebackers who helped lead one of the best defenses in the nation. K-State finished in the top 30 nationally in five categories, ranking 10th in interceptions, 14th in total turnovers, 18th in fourth down defense, 27th in third down defense and 29th in scoring defense. Of the 16 interceptions by the Wildcats in 2022, five came from linebackers to stand as the most by the unit since 1998.

The Wildcats' 24 turnovers gained and 16 passes intercepted were both their highest since 2016, while K-State's No. 10 national ranking in interceptions was the best since the 2003 squad also ranked 10th. Additionally, Kansas State's pass efficiency defense of 123.36 was its best mark since 2013.

Two of Stanard's pupils earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades in Moore and Daniel Green, the former of which led the Wildcats with 87 tackles.

The 2021 season also saw Stanard coach two All-Big 12 Honorable Mention picks as Green (89) and senior Cody Fletcher (75) ranked first and second on the team in tackles. Green, who ranked 22nd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12 in solo tackles per game, also led the Wildcats with 16.0 tackles for loss. His 6.85 tackles per game ranked eighth in the Big 12 and was the highest ranking by a Wildcat since 2017.

Thanks in part to the linebacking duo, the Wildcats saw their points allowed per game average go from 32.2 in 2020 to 21.0 in 2021 – K-State's best mark since 2003 – to rank 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12. The defense allowed its fewest yards per game since 2009 to rank third in the Big 12, while the Wildcats' surrendered only 129.5 rushing yards per game to stand as their best mark in four years. Additionally, K-State racked up 90 tackles for loss on the year – the most since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

In his first year in Manhattan, Stanard saw three of his linebackers rank in the top five on the team in tackles, and the Wildcats ranked 24th nationally in sacks to stand as K-State's best mark in five seasons. One of his linebackers, Elijah Sullivan, earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades.

Stanard, who has 20-seasons worth of experience as a defensive coordinator, came to K-State after spending the previous three years as the defensive ends coach at Syracuse. He began his coaching career at Nebraska following his playing days with the Huskers, and he crossed paths with head coach Chris Klieman at North Dakota State in 2012 and 2013 when Stanard tutored the Bison linebackers.

Prior to joining the Syracuse staff, Stanard served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Wyoming from 2014 to 2016. In 2015, Stanard protégé Logan Wilson led all conference rookies in tackles per game and was voted the 2016 Mountain West Freshman of the Year. Wilson went on to be selected in the third round of the 2020 NFL Draft by Cincinnati.

Stanard went to Wyoming from NDSU as he helped the Bison earn a 29-1 record and capture consecutive FCS national titles.

Stanard's experience as a defensive coordinator includes running defenses at six schools. In addition to his three years running the Wyoming defense, he spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Tulane (2009-11), five years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Colorado State (2003-07), three years as the defensive coordinator at New Mexico State (2000-02), one season as the defensive coordinator at South Dakota (1996) and five years as the defensive coordinator at Nebraska Wesleyan (1991-95).

Stanard began his college coaching career in 1988 as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, Nebraska. After a three-year stint with the Huskers, Stanard received his first full-time coaching job in 1991 at Nebraska Wesleyan as the defensive coordinator, and later, head coach.

Stanard earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1989 and later obtained his M.B.A. from the school in 1995.

Stanard and his wife, Jennifer, have four children – Austin, Paige, Max and Madison.

Mike Tuiasosopo, a veteran coach with over 30 years of experience, is in his seventh season at Kansas State coaching the interior defensive line in 2025.

Tuiasosopo and his defensive tackles have been instrumental in helping the Wildcats with their successful change to a 3-3-5 alignment prior to the 2021 season. Since the switch, K-State has averaged 21.8 points allowed per game to rank 24th nationally, 17th among Power 4 teams and third among current Big 12 programs. K-State has allowed fewer than 24.0 points per game each of the last three seasons, the first time doing so since 1991-2003.

In 2024, Tuiasosopo helped K-State rank in the top 30 in the nation in three defensive categories, as the Wildcats finished fourth in fourth down defense at 32.1%, 25th in sacks per game at 2.69 and 28th in rushing yards allowed per game at 118.7.

In terms of rushing defense, K-State's ranking and average was its best since 2007. Additionally, the Wildcats did not allow a 200-yard rushing game at any point in the season for the first time since 2016, while they were one of only two Big 12 teams to accomplish the feat in 2024. The best rushing defense effort of the year came in K-State's 31-28 win at Colorado when the Wildcats limited the Buffaloes to -29 rushing yards, the third fewest in school history and second fewest of any team in the country in 2024.

The Wildcats' interior defensive line was led by Damian Ilalio, who had 34 tackles, 4.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks. It was the most TFLs and sacks by a Wildcat defensive tackle since another Tuiasosopo protégé, Eli Huggins, in 2021, while it was the most tackles since 2017.

Under Tuiasosopo's leadership, the Wildcats have boasted an All-Big 12 defensive tackle in each of the 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023 seasons, including Uso Seumalo in the final year of that stretch. Seumalo and the tackles helped the K-State defense finish the season ranked in the top 30 nationally in eight categories, placing 11th in third-down defense, 16th in fumble recovered, 18th in pass efficiency defense, 20th in turnovers gained, 25th in interceptions, 26th in scoring defense, 28th in first downs allowed and 30th in red zone defense. Although the Wildcats allowed points in nearly 90% of their opponents' red zone attempts, only 39.4% of those resulted in touchdowns, which was the second-best mark in the nation.

Thanks in part to Tuiasosopo's coaching, the defense helped the Wildcats win the 2022 Big 12 Championship as they ranked in the top 30 nationally in five categories, including a No. 18 ranking in fourth down defense. One of the biggest fourth-down stops of the year came from Huggins, who assisted on a 4th and Goal stop in overtime of the Big 12 Championship just prior to the game-winning field goal during the 31-28 victory over No. 3 TCU. Tuiasosopo coached Huggins to All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades in both 2021 and 2022.

Tuiasosopo's linemen also helped the 2022 Wildcats rank 14th nationally in total turnovers, 27th in third down defense and 29th in scoring defense.

The 2021 season saw the Wildcats cut 11.2 points per game allowed off their total from the previous year as K-State's 21.0 points per game surrendered ranked 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12, and it was K-State's best mark since 2003. K-State also ranked 29th in the nation and third in the Big 12 by allowing 344.7 yards per game – its best effort since 2009 – while the Wildcats allowed only 129.5 rushing yards per game to stand as their best mark in four seasons. The Wildcat defensive tackles also helped K-State rack up 90 tackles for loss on the year – the most since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

Tuiasosopo's interior defensive line group in 2021 was led by Huggins, who set a career best with 3.0 sacks and tied his career best with 6.0 tackles for loss. Graduate transfer defensive tackle Timmy Horne enjoyed a productive year under Tuiasosopo before signing a rookie free agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons.

In year two, Tuiasosopo's defensive tackles helped the Wildcats rank fourth in the Big 12 and 24th in the nation sacks, the Wildcats' best mark nationally in five years. Senior Drew Wiley, who was starting for the first time in his career, earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors from the Associated Press after tying for 10th in the Big 12 in sacks and 14th in tackles for loss.

In his first season in 2019, Tuiasosopo helped the Wildcats rank second in the nation in third-down defense – their lowest mark since at least 2003 – and surrender only 368.4 yards per game – the best by a K-State defense since 2013. Additionally, K-State allowed its fewest points per game – 21.4 – since 2003.

The defense was led in part by a duo of starting senior defensive tackles coached by Tuiasosopo, Trey Dishon and Jordan Mittie. Dishon, who was a four-year starter, set career highs in tackles (30) and tackles for loss (5.0), while he tied his career high in sacks (3.0). Mittie, a former graduate transfer, carded 33 tackles and tied a career high with 5.5 TFLs.

Tuiasosopo came to Manhattan after serving one season as the defensive line coach at UTEP. Prior to his time in El Paso, he served as the special teams quality control assistant at USC in 2017, which claimed the Pac-12 Conference title for the first time in nine years. USC was the latest of several stops throughout the Pac-10/12 as he coached the outside linebackers and special teams at UCLA in 2014 after coaching the defensive line at Colorado in 2011 and 2012, while he coached the defensive tackles at Arizona from 2004 to 2010. He also spent the 2003 season at Utah.

Tuiasosopo got his start in coaching in 1990 and 1991 when he led the defensive line and special teams at Montclair Academy in Van Nuys, California. He then went on to become a graduate assistant at Pacific in 1991 and 1992, while he was the head coach at Berkley High School from 1993 through 1995. He earned his first full-time job collegiate job at Utah State in 1996, coaching four seasons for the Aggies. Tuiasosopo moved from Utah State to Nevada in 2000, coaching three seasons for the Wolfpack.

In addition to his work in high school and college, Tuiasosopo also served three NFL Minority Intern Fellowships, doing so with the San Francisco 49ers (1997), Green Bay Packers (2002) and Kansas City Chiefs (2013).

Tuiasosopo lettered four years as a defensive tackle at Pacific Lutheran University (1985-88), starting his final three years. He was a two-time First Team All-Columbia Conference performer, and in his junior year, Pacific Lutheran won the NAIA Division II National Championship. PLU was 36-7-2 during his career, and Tuiasosopo was the Lutes' captain during his senior season.

One of Tuiasosopo's younger brothers, Navy, played for both the Los Angeles Rams and St. Louis Cardinals. Another younger sibling, Titus, played for USC from 1988 to 1991. Two more of Tuiasosopo's cousins played collegiately and in the NFL – John Tautolo (offensive line, UCLA/New York Giants, New England) and Terry Tautolo (linebacker, UCLA/Philadelphia, Detroit, San Francisco, Miami). His nephew, Marques Tuiasosopo, was a quarterback at Washington and was drafted by the Oakland Raiders. Marques is currently the offensive coordinator at Rice.

Tuiasosopo graduated from Pacific Lutheran in 1989, while he earned his master's degree from Pacific in 1992.

Tuiasosopo and his wife, Kathy, have four children: Lanea, Maya, Titus and Luke.

LUKE WELLS

Assistant Coach
Tight Ends
Oklahoma, 2002

kstatesports.com/CoachLukeWells
@coachlukewells

A veteran offensive coach who has worked for three prior Big 12 programs over the course of his career, Luke Wells is in his first season as Kansas State's tight ends coach in 2025.

Wells, a 2002 graduate of Oklahoma who both played and coached for the Sooners, most recently coached in college at Tulsa in 2022, while he has also spent time coaching receivers and tight ends at Iowa State and Texas Tech during his career.

While at Texas Tech, Wells all but built the tight end position from scratch while helping three players from his position room earn All-Big 12 accolades in tight end Donta Thompson and inside receiver Dalton Rigdon in 2019 as well as inside receiver KeSean Carter in 2020.

Prior to arriving at Texas Tech, Wells served as Utah State's co-offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator from 2013 to 2016, working with the tight ends the first three years and then the quarterbacks in 2016. He shifted back to overseeing Utah State's tight ends and inside receivers his final two years in Logan where the Aggies boasted one of the nation's top offenses. It was the first time he worked under his brother, Matt, K-State's current offensive coordinator who was the head coach at both Utah State and Texas Tech.

Wells mentored one of the top tight ends in Utah State history in Wyatt Houston, who tallied 86 receptions for 933 yards and nine touchdowns over the 2013 through 2016 seasons, as all three of his marks ranked second in school history among tight ends. Houston earned All-Mountain West Honorable Mention accolades as a senior in 2016.

Prior to Houston, fellow tight end D.J. Tialavea thrived under Wells' direction before signing a rookie free agent contract with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2014. Tialavea went on to join the Falcons' organization a year later and was a member of the franchise when Atlanta played in Super Bowl LI. Another Wells pupil, Jefferson Court, joined the professional ranks in 2015 as he was the 37th player selected in the CFL Draft by the Ottawa Redblacks.

Offense was a prevalent theme of Utah State's success during Wells' final two seasons as the Aggies averaged 47.5 points per game in 2018, which trailed only Oklahoma for the top spot in the country. The Aggies racked up 618 points on the season, snapping the Mountain West and Utah State single-season records in the process.

Utah State scored at least 40 points in 13 different games over his final two seasons, including 10 times with 50 or more points. The Aggies reached the 50-point mark a school-record seven times in 2018 alone en route to breaking almost every offensive record in Utah State history.

In Wells' first season, the Aggies set school records for completions (297), total plays (1,073), touchdown passes (30) and first downs (310). Utah State scored 445 points that season and attempted 481 passes, which both ranked second in school history. Utah State's tight ends also set the single-season school record for touchdown receptions with nine, topping the previous record from 1993.

Prior to his time at Utah State, Wells was the wide receivers and tight ends coach at Iowa State from 2009 through 2012, helping the Cyclones advance to three bowl games in four years.

Wells arrived in Ames following six seasons at Louisiana-Monroe where he began as an offensive graduate assistant in 2003 before being promoted to tight ends coach for the 2004 through 2006 seasons and then tutoring the Warhawks' wide receivers in 2007 and 2008. He coached first team all-conference tight end Joey Trappey in 2005 and second-team honoree Zeek Zacharie in 2006 before producing an honorable mention wide receiver in Anthony McCall a year later. Wells also served as ULM's recruiting coordinator over his final two seasons, helping Monroe sign its highest-rated class in school history at that time.

Wells earned his first full-time coaching position managing the wide receivers at Denton (Texas) High School in 2002. He began his collegiate coaching career as a student assistant at Oklahoma from 1999 through 2001, helping the Sooners claim the 2000 Big 12 Championship and BCS National Championship.

Wells earned his bachelor's degree from Oklahoma in secondary education in 2002. He and his wife, Coby, have a son, Walker, and a daughter, Kinsley.

Buddy Wyatt, a respected defensive line coach who has worked in the Big 12, SEC, Big Ten and American Athletic Conference during his more than 30 years in the profession, is in his seventh season as Kansas State's defensive ends coach in 2025.

In his six seasons on staff, Wyatt has tutored defensive ends to eight All-Big 12 honors, including five first-team accolades. Wyatt's ends have helped the Wildcats average 21.8 points allowed points per game over the last four seasons – a span of 53 games – to rank 24th nationally, 17th among Power 4 teams and third among current Big 12 programs. K-State has allowed fewer than 24.0 points per game each of the last four seasons, the first time doing so since 1991 through 2003.

Wyatt has guided K-State players to three Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year honors over his first six seasons in Manhattan. In fact, when adding in his time coaching Adam Carriker at Nebraska to the honor in 2006, Wyatt has tutored the most Big 12 Defensive Linemen of the Year in league history.

The latest recipient of the award was Brendan Mott in 2024, who also earned All-Big 12 First Team honors. Mott, who also earned votes from the league's coaches for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year award, ranked 26th nationally and was tops in the Big 12 in sacks, while he tied for fourth in the Big 12 in tackles for loss. He led a defensive unit that finished with a No. 25 national ranking in sacks, which was its best ranking since 2015. Of the 35 total sacks on the year, 23 came from Wyatt's ends.

In addition to sacks, Wyatt helped coach a K-State defensive unit that ranked in the top 30 nationally in two defensive categories as the Wildcats finished fourth in fourth down defense at 32.1% and 28th in rushing yards allowed per game at 118.7.

Wyatt tutored two players to All-Big 12 honors in 2023 with Khalid Duke earning second-team honors in addition to earning votes for the Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year award, while Mott was an honorable mention pick. Wyatt's defensive ends helped the Wildcats finish the season ranked in the top 30 nationally in eight defensive categories, placing 11th in third-down defense, 16th in fumbles recovered, 18th in pass efficiency defense, 20th in turnovers gained, 25th in interceptions, 26th in scoring defense, 28th in first downs allowed and 30th in red zone defense. Although the Wildcats allowed points in nearly 90% of their opponents' red zone attempts, only 39.4% of those resulted in touchdowns, which was the second-best mark in the nation.

Wyatt's defensive ends in 2022 were headlined by Big 12 Player of the Year and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year Felix Anudike-Uzomah, who earned All-Big 12 First Team honors each of the final two seasons of his career. Wyatt helped Anudike-Uzomah tie for fourth in K-State history in career forced fumbles and sixth in career sacks. Anudike-Uzomah also picked up multiple All-American designations – including a first-team honor from USA TODAY – and was a finalist for the Ted Hendricks Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy. He was selected in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft by Kansas City, the Wildcats' first first-round draft pick since 2009. Along with Anudike-Uzomah, Wyatt tutored a breakout season for Mott, who ranked sixth in the Big 12 with 6.0 sacks.

The duo was part of a position group led by Wyatt that helped K-State rank in the top 30 nationally in five categories. One of those was scoring defense, as Wyatt assisted in K-State's transition from a four-down alignment to a three-man front prior to the 2021 season.

In 2021, Wyatt and his defensive ends helped K-State rank 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12 by allowing just 21.0 points per game – 11.2 less than the year prior – which was the Wildcats' best effort since 2003. K-State also only permitted 344.7 total yards per game – its best mark since 2009 – to rank third in the Big 12 and 29th in the nation. That effort included just 129.5 yards allowed on the ground, the fewest by the Wildcats in four seasons. The Wildcat defensive ends helped K-State rack up 90 tackles for loss on the year – the most since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

Wyatt coached Anudike-Uzomah, then a sophomore, to All-America honors, while he was the co-Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year and an All-Big 12 First Team honoree. Anudike-Uzomah, who also earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year award, tied for the national lead in forced fumbles per game, while he ranked 11th nationally and second in the Big 12 in sacks per game. His 11.0 total sacks tied for fifth in school history, and his six forced fumbles tied the school record. Opposite Anudike-Uzomah, Wyatt tutored Nate Matlack, who earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year award as he played in every game with starts in the final three contests and totaled 3.5 sacks.

Wyatt tutored Wyatt Hubert in 2020 to another All-Big 12 First Team honor from the league's coaches – and was the only unanimous choice on defense – as he tied for third in the Big 12 and 16th in the nation in sacks. Thanks to Wyatt's teachings, Hubert finished his career tied for eighth in school history with 20.0 career sacks, while he left ranking seventh in the nation among active players in sacks per game (0.59) and 10th in tackles for loss per game (1.00). Hubert went on to be selected in the 2021 NFL Draft by Cincinnati.

Arriving at K-State for the 2019 season, Wyatt went right to work with two dynamic ends, coaching senior Reggie Walker to All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades and Hubert to All-Big 12 First Team honors. Under Wyatt, Hubert tied for second in the Big 12 in sacks and ranked 10th in tackles for loss.

Wyatt's tutelage of the ends in 2019 was a major factor in the Wildcats leading the nation in third-down defense at 28.0%, the best mark by K-State since at least 2003. K-State also allowed just 21.4 points per game, the second-best mark in the Big 12 and the program's best figure since 2003.

As a team, the Wildcats ranked 27th in the nation and third in the Big 12 with 2.80 sacks per game, their best national ranking in five seasons.

Wyatt came to Manhattan after serving as a senior analyst at Kansas in 2018. His previous full-time assistant coaching job was tutoring the SMU defensive line from 2015 to 2017 under then-Mustang defensive coordinator and now K-State assistant head coach Van Malone.

Wyatt's tenure in Manhattan is his seventh tour of duty in the Big 12 having coached at Oklahoma State (1996), Colorado (1999), Texas A&M (2000-02, 2008-09), Nebraska (2007) and Kansas (2010-14, 2018).

Helping teams advance to 13 bowls during his career, Wyatt has also worked at a pair of Big Ten schools in Minnesota (1992-95) and Northwestern (1997-98), in addition to SEC school Alabama (2003-06). During his career, Wyatt has been selected to the NCAA Expert Coaches Academy, a program that addresses the shortage of ethnic minorities in college football head coaching positions and raises awareness regarding the deep pool of talented, qualified coaching candidates.

A native of Victoria, Texas, Wyatt was a defensive lineman at TCU from 1986 to 1989. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from TCU in 1990 and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Horned Frogs working with the defensive line in 1991.

Wyatt and his wife, Andrea, have two children, Fred and Ariel. Fred played collegiately at Northwestern and is the current defensive line coach at the Air Force Academy.

NATE KACZOR

Special Teams Coordinator/ Special Assistant to the Head Coach

Second Season

A 34-year veteran with stints as both a collegiate and NFL coach, Nate Kaczor is in his second season at Kansas State and first as the program's special teams coordinator and special assistant to the head coach. Kaczor originally came to Manhattan as the special teams quality control coach in 2024.

During his first season at K-State, Kaczor (pronounced KAT-sir) guided Dylan Edwards to a No. 4 national ranking in punt return touchdowns (1), while he ranked 35th in combined kickoff return and punt return yards (438) and 43rd in kickoff return average (19.9 yards). Additionally, kicker Chris Tennant ranked 41st in field goals per game (1.31) and field goal percentage (81.0%).

A native of Scott City, Kansas, Kaczor worked as an NFL coach for 16 seasons before rejoining the collegiate ranks. He got his start in the NFL as an assistant special teams coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2008-11) and was an assistant offensive line coach for the Tennessee Titans (2012) before serving as the special teams coordinator for the Titans (2013-15), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2016-18) and Washington Commanders (2019-23).

Prior to jumping to the NFL ranks, Kaczor was an offensive assistant at Utah State from 1991 through 1999 – crossing paths with current K-State assistants Mike Tuiasosopo and Matt Wells – in addition to serving as the offensive coordinator at Nebraska-Kearney (2000-03), co-offensive coordinator at Idaho (2004-05) and tight ends coach/co-offensive coordinator at Louisiana-Monroe (2006-07).

Throughout his career in the NFL, Kaczor made an impact on all aspects of special teams. During his time in Washington, Kaczor tutored punter Tress Way to a pair of Pro Bowl selections in 2019 and 2022, while special teamer Jeremy Reaves also earned a Pro Bowl in 2022. During the 2022 season, Way set a franchise record with a 44.3 net punting average in 2020, breaking his own record from the year prior (44.1). In 2021, Kaczor directed return units that finished sixth in the NFL in total return yards, while Washington was No. 4 in the league in kickoff return average (25.2) and No. 5 in kickoff return yardage (833) in 2019. During his final season in The DMV, Kaczor guided the Commanders to a No. 7 ranking in kickoff-return average (25.0).

During Kaczor's three seasons with Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers were one of the top punt coverage units in the NFL, allowing only 6.6 yards per return, the lowest mark in the league during that span. He also helped punter Bryan Anger set franchise records for both punts inside the 20-yard line (37) and net putting average (42.7) during the 2016 season. In the three seasons that Anger spent under Kaczor's tutelage, Anger ranked in the top 15 in the NFL in punts inside the 20-yard line and net average while only recording 14 touchbacks.

In his final season in Tennessee, Kaczor's units led the NFL in special teams takeaways, while in 2013 the Titans ranked third in the league in opponent punt return average and eighth in kickoff return average.

A center at Utah State from 1987 to 1989, Kaczor was a team captain who earned all-conference honors during his final season. Kaczor and his wife, Angie, have two children, Kaylee and Micah. Micah was a pitcher in the Colorado Rockies organization and is currently the pitching coach at King University.

MATT KARDULIS

Assistant Safeties Coach

Fifth Season

Matt Kardulis is in his fifth season at K-State in 2025 and first as the Wildcats' assistant safeties coach. He spent his first four seasons on staff as a defensive quality control coach and assistant director of recruiting.

During his time in Manhattan, Kardulis has helped K-State average 21.8 points allowed per game over the last four seasons – a span of 53 games – to rank 24th nationally, 17th among Power 4 teams and third among current Big 12 programs. Additionally, K-State has forced 62 turnovers the last three seasons to rank first among current Big 12 schools.

In 2024, Kardulis helped K-State finish in the top 30 nationally in three categories, ranking fourth in fourth down defense (32.1%), 25th in sacks per game (2.69) and 28th in rushing yards allowed (118.7). The Wildcats' rushing defense ranking and mark was the program's best since 2007. The 2024 Wildcats finished with a 9-4 record, the third-straight season with at least nine victories.

The 2023 season saw Kardulis aid in K-State finishing the season ranked in the top 30 nationally in eight categories, placing 11th in third-down defense (30.2%), 16th in fumble recovered (10), 18th in pass efficiency defense (118.63), 20th in turnovers gained (23), 25th in interceptions (13), 26th in scoring defense (21.0), 28th in first downs allowed (225) and 30th in red zone defense (89.2%). Although the Wildcats allowed points in nearly 90% of their opponents' red zone attempts, only 39.4% of those resulted in touchdowns, which was the second-best mark in the nation.

Kardulis helped the Wildcats win a Big 12 Championship in 2022 as they ranked in the top 30 nationally in five categories. One of those was a No. 18 showing in fourth down defense (39.4%), which included a key 4th and Goal stop in overtime of the Big 12 Championship. K-State also ranked 10th in the nation in interceptions (16) and 14th in total turnovers (24) as both those figures were the most by the Wildcats since 2016, while K-State's No. 10 national ranking in interceptions was the best since 2003. Additionally, Kansas State's pass efficiency defense of 123.36 was its best mark since 2013 (114.82).

In 2021, Kardulis helped the Wildcats pick up a victory in the Texas Bowl, one that capped a great turnaround by the K-State defense. During the 2021 campaign, the Wildcats allowed just 21.0 points per game to stand as their best mark since 2003 and result in a 12.2-point decrease from the previous season. Additionally, the defense allowed its fewest yards per game since 2009 (344.7) to rank third in the Big 12, while its 129.5 rushing yards allowed per game was its best effort in four seasons. K-State also finished with 90 tackles for loss on the year – its best mark since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

Kardulis came to Manhattan after spending the previous two seasons on staff at Virginia Tech as a defensive graduate assistant working under Hokie defensive coordinators Bud Foster (2019) and Justin Hamilton (2020). During those two seasons, he assisted in coaching two future NFL defensive backs, including Caleb Farley – a first round draft pick – while the Hokies reached the Belk Bowl in 2019.

Prior to his stint in Blacksburg, Kardulis was a defensive quality control coach at Campbell, helping the Camels rank first in the FCS in passing yards allowed. Prior to Campbell, he spent the 2017 season at his alma mater, Emory & Henry College, as a video coordinator and running backs coach. His coaching career began in 2016 at Frostburg State as a defensive graduate assistant.

Kardulis played defensive back for five years at Emory & Henry College in Emory, Virginia. He was a four-time academic all-conference performer and a member of the 2015 National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society. He graduated from Emory & Henry in December 2015 with a degree in mathematics and obtained his master's in education from the college the following May.

DREW LIDDLE

Assistant Offensive Line Coach

Eighth Season

Drew Liddle enters his eighth season on staff in 2025 and first as the program's assistant offensive line coach.

A former K-State offensive lineman, who is in his second stint on the Wildcat coaching staff, returned to Manhattan in 2024 as an offensive analyst. Assisting with the offensive line, Liddle helped K-State finish in the top 15 nationally in four offensive categories in 2024, including rushing yards per carry (second; 6.08), sacks allowed per game (10th; 1.00), rushing yards per game (11th; 215.5) and tackles for loss allowed per game (12th; 3.92). The Wildcats' ranking in sacks allowed was their highest since at least 2003 and best mark since 2000 (0.69), while it was their highest tackles for loss allowed ranking since 2008 (eighth) and best mark since at least 1999.

The 2024 Wildcats also ranked in the top 10 in school history in 15 game or season categories, including school records for offensive yards per play (6.57) and rushing yards per carry (6.08), as well as a No. 6 ranking in rushing yards (2,801).

Liddle worked the previous two seasons as the tight ends/fullbacks coach at UTEP. During the 2022 season, he saw Trent Thompson record nine receptions for 203 yards and a pair of scores to lead all UTEP tight ends, while he tutored James Tupou, who excelled from the fullback position by hauling in 12 receptions for 152 yards and two touchdowns.

Liddle went to UTEP after working as the offensive line coach at Abilene Christian during the 2021 season, serving on the same staff as K-State's current Director of Roster Management Clint Brown. Under Liddle's guidance, the ACU offensive line ranked No. 19 nationally in fewest sacks allowed per game (1.27) in addition to a No. 35 national ranking in rushing offense (164.2 yards per game).

Liddle, who played in 26 games throughout his four-year Wildcat career, was an Offensive Graduate Assistant at K-State for the 2015 and 2016 seasons before working as an Offensive Quality Control Coach and Assistant Director of Recruiting for the 2017 through 2020 seasons.

A native of Oak Grove, Missouri, Liddle earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Kansas State in 2014, while he obtained his MBA in 2017. He is married to the former Kelli Krier.

SEAN MAGUIRE

Assistant Quarterbacks Coach

Second Season

Sean Maguire is in his second season at Kansas State in 2025 and first as the Wildcats' assistant quarterbacks coach.

Maguire came to Manhattan in 2024 to serve as an offensive analyst. During his first season on staff, Maguire helped K-State finish in the top 15 nationally in four offensive categories and rank in the top 10 in school history in 15 game or season categories, the latter featuring school records for offensive yards per play (6.57) and rushing yards per carry (6.08). Additionally, the 2024 Wildcats tied for third in school history in passing touchdowns (25), ranked fourth in offensive yards per game (426.8), fifth in total offensive yards (5,549), seventh in completions (222) and 10th in both passing yards (2,749) and pass attempts (383). Maguire assisted in the guidance of Avery Johnson, who set the school record with 25 touchdown passes in 2024.

A former quarterback at Florida State, Maguire came to Manhattan after working the 2023 season at the University of Buffalo as a defensive analyst and quality control coach. He went to upstate New York after working four seasons at Texas A&M, the first two as an offensive graduate assistant in 2018 and 2019 before serving as an offensive analyst the next two seasons.

Maguire played four seasons at Florida State, including the National Championship campaign of 2013. His best season came during his junior season of 2015 when he made five starts and threw for 1,520 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Maguire obtained his undergraduate degree in social sciences in addition to a minor in business from Florida State in 2017. After graduation, he earned an invitation to the Tennessee Titans rookie mini-camp, while he was the quarterbacks coach and co-offensive coordinator at Pope John High School in New Jersey during the 2017 season.

DAVID ORLOFF

Outside Linebackers Coach

Fifth Season

David Orloff is in his fifth season at K-State in 2025 and first as the Wildcats' outside linebackers coach. He spent his first four seasons on staff as a defensive analyst.

Orloff has helped K-State average 21.8 points allowed per game over the last four seasons – a span of 53 games – to rank 24th nationally, 17th among Power 4 teams and third among current Big 12 programs. Additionally, K-State has forced 62 turnovers the last three seasons to rank first among current Big 12 schools.

Last season, Orloff helped K-State rank in the top 30 nationally in three categories, including a No. 4 ranking in fourth down defense (32.1%), a No. 25 ranking in sacks per game (2.69) and a No. 28 ranking in rushing yards allowed (118.7). The Wildcats' rushing defense ranking and mark was the program's best since 2007. The 2024 Wildcats finished with a 9-4 record, the third-straight season with at least nine victories.

Orloff helped K-State finish the 2023 campaign ranked in the top 30 nationally in eight categories, placing 11th in third-down defense (30.2%), 16th in fumbles recovered (10), 18th in pass efficiency defense (118.63), 20th in turnovers gained (23), 25th in interceptions (13), 26th in scoring defense (21.0), 28th in first downs allowed (225) and 30th in red zone defense (89.2%). Although the Wildcats allowed points on nearly 90% of their opponents' red zone attempts, only 39.4% of those resulted in touchdowns, which was the second-best mark in the nation.

Orloff was a part of K-State's 2022 Big 12 Championship run thanks in large part to a defense that ranked in the top 30 nationally in five categories, including a No. 10 ranking in interceptions (16), a No. 14 showing in total turnovers (24) and a No. 18 effort in fourth down defense (39.4%). K-State's interception and total turnover figures were their most since 2016, while the national ranking in interceptions was their best since 2003. Additionally, Kansas State's pass efficiency defense of 123.36 was its best mark since 2013 (114.82).

During his first year in Manhattan, Orloff helped the Wildcat defense to tremendous improvement as K-State allowed 21.0 points per game – a 12.2-point difference from the year prior – to rank as its best mark since 2003 and 23rd nationally during the 2021 season. Also, the Wildcats surrendered their fewest yards allowed per game since 2009 (344.7), which included 129.5 rushing yards per game to stand as the best effort in four years.

Orloff came to Kansas State after working the previous three seasons at Syracuse as a graduate assistant working with the linebackers, while he later was a quality control coach for the Orange.

Working with the Orange defense – including the 2018 and 2019 seasons with current K-State linebackers coach Steve Stanard – Orloff helped Syracuse finish third in the nation in takeaways in 2018 as Syracuse earned a 10-3 record and a victory in the Camping World Bowl. He went to Upstate New York after spending the three seasons prior as a defensive and special teams graduate assistant at UNLV.

A native of Laguna Niguel, California, Orloff earned his undergraduate degree from San Jose State in 2015 as he was an offensive undergraduate assistant for the Spartans for five seasons. He also has master's degrees from both UNLV (special education) and Syracuse (instructional design).

Orloff and his wife, Ainsley, have two children, Emery and Kaylin.

MIKAEL BRADFORD

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Second Season

Mikael Bradford is in his second season as a defensive graduate assistant for the Wildcat football program in 2025. In his role, Bradford assists in coaching the safeties.

In his first season in Manhattan, Bradford helped K-State rank in the top 30 nationally in three categories, including a No. 4 ranking in fourth down defense (32.1%), a No. 25 ranking in sacks per game (2.69) and a No. 28 ranking in rushing yards allowed (118.7).

Bradford came to K-State following a two-year stint as a defensive graduate assistant at Colorado State. He went right into coaching following his collegiate playing career as he was a defensive back for two seasons at Division II Minot State before transferring to Nevada for his final three seasons. He appeared in 12 games over two seasons at Nevada, totaling 40 tackles. Bradford helped the Wolfpack earn consecutive bowl appearances as they played in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl in 2020 and the Quick Lane Bowl in 2021.

A native of Compton, California, Bradford earned his undergraduate degree in discrete mathematics from Nevada in May 2022, while he obtained a master's degree in sports management from Colorado State in January 2024.

CAL CRINER

Defensive Graduate Assistant

First Season

Cal Criner is in his first season as a defensive graduate assistant at Kansas State in 2025 as he will help coach the linebackers.

Criner came to Manhattan after serving one season as the assistant secondary coach at Washington State, a year in which the Cougars accumulated an 8-5 record and earned a trip to the Holiday Bowl. WSU finished the 2024 season ranked 27th nationally with 14 interceptions.

Prior to WSU, Criner spent two seasons as a defensive graduate assistant at Boise State, culminating with a Mountain West Championship in 2023. While at Boise, he worked with current K-State offensive graduate assistant Will Farrar.

A two-time team captain at Eastern Washington during his playing days from 2016 through 2021, Criner recorded 273 career tackles – including eight for loss – nine interceptions and 20 pass breakups over his 54 career games, the latter of which ranked as the third most in school history. An All-Big Sky honoree as a senior, Criner left EWU ranking 15th in school history in career tackles and 11th in both interceptions and pass breakups.

Criner continued the legacy of wearing No. 4 for EWU as the coaching staff selected a leader on defense to wear the jersey, which symbolizes the defensive player who most embodies the characteristics of defense at Eastern – grit, toughness, effort, leadership and academic success.

Criner has football coaching bloodlines as his father, Mark, and grandfather, Jim, are long-time collegiate coaches. Mark spent time at Idaho, Portland State, Utah State, Minnesota, Eastern Michigan, Cincinnati, Middle Tennessee State, Lamar, Colorado State Pueblo and Southern Miss, as well as stints with Seattle and Las Vegas in the XFL. Jim was the head coach at Boise State, guiding the Broncos to the 1980 FCS (then I-AA) title. After accumulating a 59-21-1 record at Boise State, Jim was later head coach at Iowa State (1983-86).

WILL FARRAR

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Second Season

Will Farrar is in his second year as an offensive graduate assistant at K-State in 2025. In his role, Farrar assists with the offensive line.

In his first year in Manhattan, Farrar helped the Wildcats finish in the top 15 nationally in four offensive categories, including rushing yards per carry (second; 6.08), sacks allowed per game (10th; 1.00), rushing yards per game (11th; 215.5) and tackles for loss allowed per game (12th; 3.92). The Wildcats' ranking in sacks allowed was their highest since at least 2003 and best mark since 2000 (0.69), while it was their highest tackles for loss allowed ranking since 2008 (eighth) and best mark since at least 1999.

Farrar came to Manhattan after spending the previous season at Boise State as an offensive graduate assistant working with the offensive line as the Broncos won the Mountain West Championship, while they ranked sixth in the nation in rushing and 13th in sacks allowed. While in Boise, Farrar worked with current K-State defensive graduate assistant Cal Criner.

His coaching stint with the Broncos came on the heels of him finishing his playing career at Boise State as an offensive lineman during the 2021 and 2022 seasons. He went to Boise after spending the first four years of his career at Texas Tech, including the 2019 and 2020 seasons under current K-State offensive coordinator/associate head coach Matt Wells.

A two-time Academic All-Mountain West honoree, Farrar graduated with a degree in economics and a minor in personal finance from Texas Tech in May 2021, while he is currently working on his master's degree in athletic leadership.

ALEX WALLACE

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Fifth Season

Alex Wallace is in his third year as an offensive graduate assistant at K-State assisting with the wide receivers and quarterbacks.

During his first season in the position, Wallace helped K-State rank in the top 10 in school history in 32 game or season categories in 2023. Among those was a school-record 30 passing touchdowns, No. 2 rankings in offensive yards per game (445.2) and first downs (310), and No. 3 showings in total yards (5,788), completions (258) and pass attempts (426).

It was more of the same in 2024 as K-State finished in the top 15 nationally in four offensive categories and ranked in the top 10 in school history in 15 game or season categories, the latter featuring school records for offensive yards per play (6.57) and rushing yards per carry (6.08). Additionally, the Wildcats tied for third in school history in passing touchdowns (25), ranked fourth in offensive yards per game (426.8), fifth in total offensive yards (5,549), seventh in completions (222) and 10th in both passing yards (2,749) and pass attempts (383).

Wallace spent the previous two seasons working as an undergraduate coach at K-State. His gameday responsibilities included signaling offensive play calls and charting plays, while he assisted with individual drills and organized the scout team during practices. On a daily basis, Wallace helped generate practice scripts, created quarterback wristbands and helped with opponent breakdown among other duties.

Son of Spencer and Sondra Wallace, he was a three-year football letterwinner and two-year team captain at Olathe South High School prior to arriving in Manhattan. Wallace earned his undergraduate degree in education studies from K-State in May 2023.

Guided an offense that also ranked fourth in school history in offensive yards per game (426.8), fifth in total offensive yards (5,549), sixth in total rushing yards (2,801), seventh in completions (222) and 10th in passing yards (2,748)... Tied the school record by engineering four comeback victories when trailing in the fourth quarter in games against Tulane, Colorado, Kansas and Rutgers, the latter being in the Rate Bowl... Led K-State to a 17-point comeback win over the Scarlet Knights, the largest bowl deficit overcome for a victory in school history... Threw for three touchdowns in the Rate Bowl, tied for the third-most touchdown passes in school bowl history... Ranked 17th nationally and third in the Big 12 in points responsible for (196), 20th in the country and fifth in the Big 12 in touchdown passes, 43rd nationally and 10th in the Big 12 in total offense per game (225.2), while he was 44th nationally and seventh in the Big 12 in passing yards per completion... Also ranked seventh in the Big 12 in pass attempts, eighth in completions, ninth in both passing efficiency (136.37) and passing yards per attempt (7.29) and 10th in total passing yards... One of only five players in the nation – and one of three from a Power 4 school (along Alabama's Jalen Milroe and Arkansas' Taylen Green) – to record 2,700 passing yards and 600 rushing yards... Teamed with Dylan Edwards (7.4-yard average) and DJ Giddens (6.6-yard average) to make K-State the only Power 4 team in the country to have three players average at least 5.4 yards per rush (minimum 70 carries)... One of nine quarterbacks in the nation with at least 25 passing touchdowns and seven rushing touchdowns, including one of five Power 4 signal callers... Tallied six completions of at least 50 yards to tie for 10th nationally and second in the Big 12... Had at least one completion of 50 or more yards in three-straight games against Oklahoma State, Colorado and West Virginia, the first Wildcat with a three-game streak since Skylar Thompson in 2021 (Stanford, Southern Illinois, Oklahoma) and the first to do so in Big 12 play since at least 1999... Threw for at least 250 yards in each of the Oklahoma State, Colorado, West Virginia and Kansas contests, the longest streak by a Wildcat against conference foes since Jake Waters over the final four Big 12 games in 2014... Set a career high with 320 offensive yards against Kansas, which came on the heels of a career high 298 passing yards at West Virginia... Posted a career best passing efficiency rating of 186.0 at West Virginia, which was the highest by a Wildcat (minimum 25 attempts) since Skylar Thompson against LSU in the 2021 Texas Bowl (188.1) and highest by a Wildcat in a road game since Thompson at Oklahoma in 2020 (197.4)... Threw the game-winning 50-yard touchdown pass at Colorado with 2:14 left in the game... Had three passing touchdowns and two rushing scores against Oklahoma State, becoming the first Wildcat to hit those marks against a conference opponent since Collin Klein at West Virginia in 2012... It was only the 30th time since 1996 a player had at least three passing touchdowns and two rushing touchdowns against a team ranked in the AP Top 25 as he went on to earn Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week, Manning Award Star of the Week and Davey O'Brien Award Great 8 List honors... Also named to the Davey O'Brien Award Great 8 List after rushing for a career-high 110 yards against Arizona, the most rushing yards by a K-State quarterback since Will Howard had 125 yards against Oklahoma State in 2020... ▶ Game Notes

• Ty Bowman blocked a first-quarter punt that was returned one yard for a touchdown by Colby McCalister... It was the second career blocked punt for Bowman, both of which have been returned for touchdowns... His first-career blocked punt came in 2021 against West Virginia, which was returned seven yards to paydirt... It also represented the seventh-straight year the Wildcats have blocked a punt... Entering the 2024 season, K-State was tied with San Diego State by blocking a punt six-straight years.

• The blocked punt return touchdown was Kansas State's nation-leading 132nd non-offensive touchdown since 1999... It was also the 61st combined kickoff- or punt-return touchdown by the Wildcats since 2005, which also leads the country.

• Kansas State recorded 11 tackles for loss, their most since also recording 11 in last year's season opener vs. SEMO... It marked the third-straight season opener with at least 10 TFLs as the Wildcats had 10 TFLs in the 2022 opener against South Dakota.

• Junior running back DJ Giddens rushed for 124 yards on 13 carries... It was his fifth-straight game with 100 rushing yards, which is tied for the fourth-longest streak in school history.

• Sophomore running back Dylan Edwards, a native of Derby, Kansas, rushed for 43 yards and a touchdown, while he also hauled in two passes for 19 yards, which included a 15-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter... It marked his second-straight season with rushing and receiving touchdowns in the season opener as, last year with Colorado, Edwards had three receiving touchdowns and a rushing touchdown at TCU.

K-STATE ROLLS PAST UT MARTIN, 41-6

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Avery Johnson threw for 153 yards and two touchdowns with one interception, and sophomore transfer Dylan Edwards scored a rushing touchdown before his receiving touchdown helped No. 18 Kansas State to put away UT Martin, 41-6, before a sellout crowd in the season opener at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Although K-State showed some newness, or knocked off some early rust, it cranked things up after leading 17-3 after two quarters. The K-State offense isn't a finished product, but it showed progress as the game wore on to the delight of 51,240, which marked the 15th-straight sellout in Manhattan.

Johnson completed 14-of-21 passes and added three carries for 37 yards while starting as a quarterback for the first time in a game played in Manhattan. His favorite target was roommate Jayce Brown, who had five catches for 71 yards. That included a beautiful diving catch for 44 yards that gave the Wildcats the ball at the 1.

On the next play, Edwards, a sophomore transfer running back from Derby, busted through the line for his first touchdown as the Wildcats took a 27-6 lead late in the third quarter.

The Wildcats outgained the Skyhawks, 449-134, including a 283-36 margin in rushing. Junior DJ Giddens had 13 carries for 124 yards — including a 48-yard run — for his fifth straight 100-yard rushing performance.

Johnson played until the first minute of the fourth quarter before Jacob Knuth and then Ta'Quan Roberson saw their first action at quarterback. Johnson's first touchdown was a beautiful toss to Brayden Loftin that the 6-foot-5, 237-pound tight end turned into a 23-yard touchdown for the game's opening score.

But there was a teaching moment as well. Early in the second quarter Johnson threw his first-career interception when linebacker Chris Hunter undercut a pass intended for Giddens across the middle.

K-State's special teams and experienced defense came alive early. After Johnson's touchdown pass to Loftin, the Wildcats scored their next 10 points of the first half on special teams. First, Colby McCalister scored a touchdown off a Ty Bowman blocked punt. Then Chris Tennant booted a 43-yard field goal for a 17-3 lead at halftime.

It marked the second career blocked punt for Bowman, both of which have been returned for touchdowns. McCalister's score gave K-State 132 non-offensive touchdowns since 1999, which leads the FBS. K-State has now blocked at least one punt in seven straight seasons.

K-State linebacker Desmond Purnell had a game-high seven tackles and defensive end Tobi Osunsanmi had 1.5 sacks for a defense that clamped down on the Skyhawks. Kinkead Dent completed 7-of-14 passes for 87 yards and was sacked three times. UT Martin rushed 38 times for 36 yards.

Meanwhile, Johnson completed passes to seven different pass catchers. The fifth K-State sophomore since 1990 to start a season opener and just the second true sophomore to do so (Josh Freeman, 2007), Johnson tied a career high with two touchdown passes.

▶ Game Notes

• This was the third all-time meeting between K-State and Tulane with the Green Wave now holding a 1-2 record... Not only did the Wildcats pick up their first win over Tulane, but they also earned their first victory inside the state of Louisiana in six tries.

• The Wildcats put up 34 points at Tulane, their 10th-straight game with at least 28 points... It is K-State's longest streak of scoring at least 28 points since another 10-game streak over the 2002 through 2003 seasons... The current streak began with a 38-point outing last year at Texas Tech... The previous 10-game streak began by scoring 44 points at Baylor in 2002 and finished with a 38-point effort against UMass in 2003.

• Jack Fabris returned a fourth-quarter fumble 60 yards for a touchdown... It was the Wildcats nation-leading 133rd non-offensive touchdown since 1999... This was the longest fumble return touchdown by the Wildcats since Stephen Harrison went 85 yards for a score at Kansas in 2010... It is the second-straight year the Wildcats had a fumble return touchdown, the first time they had fumble return TDs in consecutive years since 1998 and 1999.

• DJ Giddens rushed for 114 yards on 19 carries... It was his sixth-straight game with 100 rushing yards, which is tied for the third-longest streak in school history... He now has eight career 100-yard rushing games, which is tied for 10th in school history... Giddens' career rushing total improved to 1,982 yards, the 12th most in school history... Giddens also added a team-leading 63 receiving yards on four catches... It was the third-highest receiving output of his career (86 yards last year vs. UCF and 75 yards last year vs. TCU).

BIG SECOND HALF LIFTS K-STATE PAST TULANE

NEW ORELEANS, La. – Kansas State players headed to edge of the Yulman Stadium seating to celebrate with their fans and Chris Klieman said into an ESPN camera that "our culture won this." The sweat that poured from the bill of the ballcap of the K-State head coach certainly epitomized the white-knuckled ride shared throughout Wildcat Nation on Saturday.

In one of the wildest finishes in recent memory, No. 17 Kansas State, 2-0, pulled out a 34-27 victory at Tulane, 1-1, at a stunned Yulman Stadium in New Orleans.

K-State posted its go-ahead score in dramatic fashion on a 60-yard fumble return from Jack Fabris that gave the Wildcats their lead with 8 minutes, 13 seconds left in the fourth quarter, then VJ Payne effectively ended the game when he intercepted dangerous Tulane quarterback Dorian Mensah in the end zone with 5 seconds remaining, giving K-State revenge after Tulane posted a 17-10 win in Manhattan in 2022.

In a game that was touted as a matchup between two of college football's more exciting quarterbacks in Johnson and Mensah, it was K-State's special teams and defense that stole the show in crunch time — a nod to the notion that K-State spent the offseason building a complete team with aspirations of reaching a Big 12 Championship and more in the 2024 season.

Non-offensive touchdowns have been a staple for K-State for more than two decades, and few might've been more dramatic than when linebacker Austin Romaine knocked the ball from Mensah and Fabris had the presence of mind to scoop up the ball and race more than half the football field into the end zone. K-State has now recorded 133 non-offensive touchdowns since 1999, which leads the FBS.

The defense, which failed to force a takeaway in its season opener, came alive as Payne intercepted a pass intended for wide receiver Yulkeith Brown in the end zone with 5 seconds left to preserve the Wildcats' first-ever victory in the state of Louisiana. The defense, victimized in the first half, clamped down in holding Tulane out of the end zone four straight times inside the 17-yard line on its final drive.

K-State had some big performances as well, as junior running back DJ Giddens had 19 carries for 114 yards and added four catches for 63 yards and one touchdown. Giddens has now rushed for 100 yards in six-straight games, which is tied for the third-longest streak in K-State history. Johnson, in his third career start at quarterback but his first in a true road game, fired a 45-yard touchdown pass to Giddens on fourth down in the third quarter for the longest completion of his career. Romaine had a career-high eight tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble.

K-State has scored at least 28 points in 10 straight games — its longest streak since the 2002 and 2003 seasons.

The win was particularly satisfying for K-State players after the plight they faced in the first road game of the season. They trailed 20-10 at halftime. Inside the locker room, they didn't point fingers. Instead, they grew tighter.

Their special culture and bond carried them undaunted through the final two quarters.

▶ Game Notes

• Friday was the eighth all-time meeting between K-State and Arizona but the first in Manhattan... Friday's victory was K-State's first home victory over a ranked non-conference team since the 2022 USC game when the Wildcats defeated the 11th-ranked Trojans, 27-20... It was Kansas State's first win on a weekday at home since the 1992 Iowa State game... Kansas State improved to 4-1 in the regular season against non-conference Power 4 opponents under Chris Klieman.

• Kansas State did not allow any second-half points, the first time shutting out a team in a half since shutting out Houston the entire game last season... The Wildcats allowed only seven points to Arizona after UA was averaging 41.5 points in its first two games... The 56 rushing yards allowed by K-State on Friday was the fewest against a Power 4 opponent since Oklahoma State had 54 yards in 2022.

• Quarterback Avery Johnson made his fourth-career start at quarterback, going 14-of-23 through the air for 156 yards and two touchdowns, while he rushed 17 times for 110 yards... He set a new career high in rushing yards with 110, bettering his 90 yards last year at Texas Tech... It is the most rushing yards by a K-State quarterback since Howard had 125 yards against Oklahoma State in 2020.

• During the contest, DJ Giddens improved his career rushing mark to 2,068 yards as he became the 12th player in school history to go over the 2,000-yard mark... He ranks 12th in school history in career rushing yards and is just 142 yards shy of tying for 10th in school history.

JOHNSON, DEFENSE HELPS K-STATE ROLL ARIZONA

MANHATTAN, Kan. – No. 14 Kansas State showed its Wildcats are for real while sophomore Avery Johnson threw and ran his way to his best performance yet in a 31-7 win over No. 20 Arizona that gave K-State a big victory on the big stage and in front of an unrelenting crowd at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Johnson threw for 156 yards and two touchdowns and ran for 110 yards while the defense for K-State clamped down on Arizona to snap Arizona's nation-leading nine-game winning streak and give K-State its first regular-season home victory over a ranked non-conference opponent since 2002.

The crowd was loud. K-State was proud. And K-State recorded one of its top wins in its six seasons under head coach Chris Klieman. In the history of the Big 12, K-State is 146-47 in games when it is the home team, which marks the most wins among all active schools in the league.

In a rare weekday contest for K-State, the purple-clad Wildcats dazzled in front of the college football universe and in front of a crowd of 51,290, the 16th straight sellout. Friday's matchup was a nonconference game and did not count in the Big 12 standings, but the first meeting between K-State and Arizona since 1978 no doubt opened eyes to the dangers K-State presents when it is clicking in all three phases.

From Johnson's two touchdown passes — both to tight ends — to a touchdown-saving interception in the end zone by cornerback Keenan Garber to a 71-yard punt-return touchdown by electric Dylan Edwards, K-State clicked, and clicked, and clicked against an Arizona squad that suffered its worst loss since a 34-0 defeat at Colorado on October 16, 2021.

Arizona averaged 39 points per game during a win streak that spanned nearly one year. Arizona suffered its first defeat since a 43-41 loss at No. 9 USC in triple overtime on October 7, 2023. K-State outgained Arizona 391-324 in total offense. K-State held a 235-56 advantage in rushing yards.

Although one of the more potent quarterback-wide receiver duos in the country appeared as tough as advertised — Noah Fifita completed 24-of-36 passes for 248 yards (with one interception) and Tetairoa McMillan had 11 catches for 138 yards — Arizona suffered nine penalties and went 5-for-14 on third downs against a K-State defense that forced turnover-by-downs on each of the final three possessions.

In the first quarter, it certainly seemed like it was anybody's game. Fifita drove Arizona 73 yards on 14 plays for a 1-yard touchdown run by Quali Conley and a 7-0 lead on a game-opening drive that consumed 7:28. Arizona converted two third downs and one fourth-and-1 to keep alive the opening possession.

Then Johnson led a monster drive of his own — a 15-play, 75-yard jaunt featured 58 rushing yards, including 34 by DJ Giddens, and that ended with Johnson hitting tight end Will Swanson for a 3-yard score to tie it with 1:01 left in the first quarter.

Almost unbelievably, each team effectively possessed the ball one time in the first quarter. The fireworks came shortly after.

When K-State forced an Arizona punt, the K-State special teams unit sprang into action. Edwards took a Tyler Loop 48-yard punt, caught a block to find the edge, and sprinted down the K-State sideline 71 yards for a touchdown and a 14-7 lead.

That gave K-State three non-offensive touchdowns in its first three games — one in each game. K-State's 134 non-offensive touchdowns since 1999 leads the FBS over that span.

• Saturday was the ninth all-time meeting between K-State and BYU with the Cougars taking a 4-5 advantage in the series... The Wildcats are now 14-15 in Big 12 openers, while they are 12-17 all time in their first Big 12 road game of the season... K-State opened conference play away from home for the 23rd time in the 29-year history of the Big 12.

• BYU scored 21 points off three K-State turnovers... It was the most points off turnovers against the Wildcats since Baylor also had 21 points off three turnovers on October 6, 2018... Last year, K-State surrendered only 27 points off 12 turnovers the entire season.

• Kansas State's 29-point loss was its largest since a 38-point loss to Texas in the 2020 finale... Last year, K-State did not lose by more than one possession in any of its four defeats... Saturday was the first time the Wildcats did not score a touchdown since a 45-0 loss at Iowa State in 2020, a span of 46 games.

• Senior kicker Chris Tennant went 3-of-3 on field goals, connecting on distances of 32, 27 and 28... He now has 33 made field goals in his career, moving into the school's top-10 list as he is now ninth.

MISTAKES COMPOUND IN 38-9 LOSS AT BYU

PROVO, Utah – No. 13 Kansas State looked to remain unblemished through the first four games of a season for the first time since 2012. Instead, BYU soared to a 38-9 victory in front of a packed house at LaVell Edwards Stadium in a contest that ended early Sunday morning.

In the first meeting since 1977 between K-State and BYU in Provo, Utah, the Wildcats, 3-1, seemingly had everything under control in a low-scoring affair — K-State led, 6-3 — until the final 2 minutes of the second quarter.

Then things went horribly haywire.

BYU, 4-0, emphatically took control and didn't let go to the glee of 64,201, the largest crowd at LaVell Edwards Stadium since 2009.

The Cougars scored 24 points in a span of 6 minutes, 8 seconds between the second and third quarters in a Twilight Zone-type sequence unlike any that purple-clad supporters have seen in recent memory.

K-State led 6-3 after the 2-minute timeout in the second quarter before disaster struck. Facing third-and-2 at the K-State 33-yard line, normally sure-handed DJ Giddens rushed to his right, spun and got hit by a defender, and the football flew away and bounced on the ground. Tommy Prassas picked it up and scooped and scored a 30-yard touchdown and a 10-6 lead.

After the ensuing kickoff, troubles struck again. This time, Avery Johnson threw a ball to Dylan Edwards that defensive end Tyler Batty intercepted at the 29. On the play, BYU went into a zone blitz and Batty sat in coverage, so when the ball went over the head of Edwards, Batty was there to catch it before it touched the ground.

Two plays later, BYU quarterback Jeff Retzlaff threw his best pass of the opening half when he found 6-foot-4, 210-pound Chase Roberts running left to right in the end zone for a 23-yard touchdown and a 17-6 advantage just before halftime.

It proved to be an uphill climb for K-State coming out of the locker room.

A second Johnson interception set up BYU at the K-State 27-yard line. Two plays later, Retzlaff fired a 3-yard pass to Darius Lassiter for a 24-6 lead.

After K-State was unable to move the ball, BYU's Parker Kingston took a 57-yard punt by Simon McClannan. It appeared that he had nowhere to go, then he looped around and sprinted down the sideline for a 90-yard score and a 31-6 lead with 11 minutes, 9 seconds to go in the third quarter.

It wasn't until a Chris Tennant 28-yard field goal with 5:12 left in the third quarter that the Wildcats managed their only points of the second half.

Johnson completed 15-of-28 passes for 130 yards and two interceptions and added 74 rushing yards on 11 carries. Giddens had 19 carries for 93 yards. Jayce Brown had four catches for 51 yards and Keagan Johnson had four catches for 30 yards.

Retzlaff went 15-for-21 for 149 yards and two touchdowns and no interceptions for a BYU team that was picked 13th in the Big 12 in the preseason. Sione Moa had 15 carries for 76 yards and one touchdown. Lassiter had three catches for 26 yards and one touchdown and Roberts had two catches for 47 yards and one touchdown.

BYU improved to 262-85 at LaVell Edwards Stadium.

AVERY JOHNSON

JOHNSON'S 5 TDS LEAD K-STATE PAST OSU

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Kansas State spent a week looking to respond after a disappointing first game of its Big 12 Conference season. The 23rd-ranked Wildcats might've made a statement on Saturday. Avery Johnson enjoyed a career performance and DJ Giddens rumbled for 187 yards and one touchdown in a 42-20 win over No. 20 Oklahoma State at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Both teams entered the game at 3-1 overall and 0-1 in the Big 12. K-State was picked second and Oklahoma State third in the Big 12 Preseason Poll.

Johnson enjoyed career highs across the board in completing 19-of-31 passes for 259 yards with three touchdowns and one interception while also rushing for 60 yards and two scores for the Wildcats, who scored a season-high point total behind a balanced offensive attack — 259 yards passing and 300 rushing — that featured plenty of Giddens.

While Johnson became the first K-State quarterback since Collin Klein in 2012 to throw for three touchdowns and rush for two more in a Big 12 game, the 6-foot-1, 212-pound Giddens had 15 carries for 187 yards and one touchdown — scoring on a 66-yard run early in the third quarter and in the midst of 35 unanswered points.

Meanwhile, Johnson appeared more comfortable than at any time in his young career. The sophomore completed passes to eight different pass catchers and fired touchdowns to tight end Garrett Oakley (19 yards), wide receiver Jayce Brown (55 yards) and tight end Will Anciaux (two yards), showing off his patience, improvising when necessary, and dashing down the field on designed runs.

K-State has won 11 of the last 14 meetings in Manhattan against Oklahoma State, which has now lost four-straight games against ranked opponents.

The Wildcats held a 559-490 advantage in total offensive yards. Oklahoma State was just 6-for-17 on third down and suffered three giveaways.

Oklahoma State quarterback Alan Bowman went 26-for-50 for 364 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions while Stribling had seven catches for 157 yards and one touchdown. The Wildcats held 2023 Doak Walker Award winner Ollie Gordon II to 76 yards on 15 carries, including only seven yards on four carries in the second half.

All that mattered to safety Marques Sigle, who had an interception, was that the K-State defense stayed in the fight.

K-State scored five of its touchdowns in a span of eight possessions, turning a 13-7 deficit midway through the second quarter to a 42-13 lead early in the fourth quarter.

▶ Game Notes

• With the win and a 31-7 victory over then-No. 20 Arizona their last time in Manhattan on September 13, the Wildcats earned consecutive home wins over teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time since 1995... That season, the Wildcats defeated No. 6 Kansas, 41-7, on October 28 before topping No. 25 Oklahoma, 49-10, on November 4.

• The Wildcats rushed for 300 yards against Oklahoma State... It was the first time hitting the 300-yard mark since a 343-yard effort last year against TCU... The Wildcats' average of 8.2 yards per rush on Saturday was their highest in a Big 12 game since going for 9.1 yards for rush in the 2018 Baylor game.

• Avery Johnson made his sixth-career start at quarterback, going 19-of-31 through the air for 259 yards and three touchdowns, while he rushed five times for 60 yards and another two scores... He set career highs in completions passing yards and passing touchdowns... He tossed a career-long 55-yard pass to Jayce Brown, which was also the longest reception in Brown's career.

• Johnson became the first K-State signal caller with at least three passing touchdowns and two rushing touchdowns in a Big 12 game since Collin Klein had three passing scores and four rushing touchdowns since the 2012 game at West Virginia.

• DJ Giddens rushed for 187 yards and a touchdown on 15 carries... His 187 rushing yards were the second most of his career to his 207-yard outburst last year against UCF... He went for a 66-yard touchdown early in the third quarter, a new career long that bettered his previous long of 51 yards earlier this year at Tulane.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State allowed -29 rushing yards to Colorado... It was the third-fewest rushing yards allowed in a game in school history... It was the fewest since a school-record -37 rushing yards at Baylor in 2002.

• Kansas State recorded six sacks... It was the most in a game since the Wildcats also had six against Texas Tech in 2022... The Wildcats' six sacks resulted in 74 yards of total loss.

• Jayce Brown carded 121 receiving yards and two touchdowns on six receptions, which included the game-winning touchdown with 2:14 remaining in the game... It was a career high in receiving yards – better the 96 yards he had last year at Kansas – while it was also a career high in receiving touchdowns... He is the first K-State player with 100 receiving yards since Ben Sinnott went for 136 yards last year against Iowa State, while it is the most by a wide receiver since RJ Garcia II had 119 yards against SEMO in the 2023 season opener... It is the first 100-yard receiving game by a K-State wide receiver against a Big 12 opponent since Malik Knowles had 111 yards at West Virginia in 2022.

• Brendan Mott totaled four tackles on Saturday, including 2.0 sacks, which resulted in 22 yards of loss... It was his sixth-straight game this season with at least 1.0 TFL, the longest streak since linebacker Daniel Green did so in the final six games of the 2021 season... It is the longest streak to open a season since Jordan Willis did so in the first seven games of the 2016 campaign... Mott recorded the second multi-sack game of his career, the first being a 3.0-sack effort at West Virginia in 2022.

LATE TD LIFTS K-STATE PAST COLORADO

BOULDER, Colo. – The nailbiter in Boulder ended in victory formation for No. 18 Kansas State, which led most of the game, then came from behind late in a 31-28 thriller over Colorado, giving the Wildcats a big road victory against an old rival at Folsom Field.

Avery Johnson laid a long pass over the left shoulder of Jayce Brown for the game-winning 50-yard touchdown with 2 minutes, 14 seconds left before Sanders saw his 40thand final passing attempt fall incomplete on fourth-and-5 at his own 30-yard line with 74 seconds to go, as K-State survived the 67th meeting between the former conference opponents — who are now Big 12 Conference foes again.

K-State, 5-1 overall and 2-1 in the Big 12, tied its best six-game start of the Klieman era, and outlasted Colorado, 4-2 and 2-1, which looked to reach its longest winning streak of the Deion Sanders era.

It marked the sixth win ever by K-State at Folsom Field, which rocked before a sellout crowd. The theme of the night was "Gold Rush," and it didn't take much mining to find gridiron excitement in what was one of the most hyped games of this college football season.

K-State has scored at least 28 points in 13 of the last 14 games and out-gained Colorado, 423 to 359.

Johnson threw for 224 yards and two touchdowns despite one interception and rushed for another score. DJ Giddens rushed 25 times for 182 yards. Brown had a career performance with six catches for 121 yards and the go-ahead touchdown. Dylan Edwards, who transferred from Colorado to K-State prior to the season, scored on a 1-yard touchdown run against his former team.

Shedeur Sanders, projected to be one of the top quarterbacks taken in the NFL Draft, was spectacular, completing 34-of-40 passes for 388 yards and three touchdowns and one interception. With Travis Hunter, a top Heisman Trophy candidate, on the sideline, Omarion Miller had a career night with eight catches for 145 yards.

It was toward the end of the first quarter that 6-foot-1, 212-pound Giddens truly came alive for the nation. With a bevy of punishing runs and long strides down the middle of the field, Giddens put on a show. By the end of the first half, he had 12 carries for 127 yards and averaged 10.6 yards per rushing attempt.

Colorado hadn't allowed a 100-yard rusher in its first five games. Giddens reached 100 yards with 4:15 left in the second quarter.

After rushing six straight times, Giddens went to the sideline for a quick breather. Edwards sprang into action with a 9-yard carry to the goal line and finished things off by taking the ball between tackles into the end zone for a 14-7 lead.

Colorado and Sanders struggled to respond. K-State disguised its pressures, at times rushing four with a linebacker as a spy, and Desmond Purnell flew through and sacked Sanders for a 16-yard loss in the final minute of the second quarter. The Buffaloes faced fourth-and-33 and let the game clock run out.

K-State fans held their breath with 12:59 left in the third quarter when Johnson immediately grabbed his left side after throwing a 33-yard pass to Brown. Johnson trotted to the locker room, giving the ball to backup Ta'Quan Roberson at first-and-10 at the K-State 29-yard line. Giddens paced the Wildcats, who drove to the Colorado 4 before Johnson returned to the game. Johnson promptly fired a 1-yard touchdown pass to Brown for a 21-7 lead.

Colorado stormed back as Sanders completed 6-of-7 passes on the drive and his 7-yard pass to Sheppard resulted in a touchdown.

Moments later, K-State got the first takeaway of the game when VJ Payne intercepted Sanders at the goal line — just one play after Miller left the game due to injury — but Colorado forced the Wildcats into their first 3-and-out of the second half.

Sanders went to work again, taking Colorado 70 yards in 10 plays before handing off to Isaiah Augustave for a 2-yard scoring run as the Wildcats' lead narrowed to 24-21 with 6:44 left in the fourth quarter.

Adversity struck K-State with 3:51 left to play. Facing fourth and 6 at the 31, Johnson attempted a pass to Brown. The ball flew up and cornerback Cooper Hood intercepted it. He raced the other direction before he tripped and fell. But Colorado had the ball at the K-State 17.

Three plays later, LaJohntay Wester caught an out route for a 11-yard touchdown to take a 28-24 lead with 3:12 left.

Turns out K-State didn't need that long to score. Johnson laid a long pass over the left shoulder of Brown, who caught the ball in stride for a 50-yard score as the Wildcats snatched back the lead at 31-28.

K-State defense stiffened and pressured Sanders over the final two minutes before the Wildcats regained possession and ran out the clock.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State has started 6-1 overall for the first time since 2014... That year, the Wildcats went on to win nine games... K-State is also 3-1 in Big 12 play for a third-straight season, the first time the Wildcats have won at least three of their first four Big 12 games in three-consecutive seasons since doing so every year from 1995 through 2000.

• Coupled with last week's 31-28 victory at Colorado, K-State has won consecutive Big 12 road games for the first time since defeating Baylor and West Virginia in consecutive weeks in 2022... It is the first time since at least 1971 that K-State earned road wins at night in consecutive weeks.

• Senior safety Marques Sigle returned an interception 43 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter... It was Kansas State's 135th non-offensive touchdown since 1999, which leads the nation... It was the fourth non-offensive touchdown by the Wildcats this season, their most since also tallying four in 2020.

• Sophomore quarterback Avery Johnson made his eighth-career start at quarterback, going 19-of-29 through the air for a career-high 298 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions... His previous career high in passing yards was 259 yards earlier this year against Oklahoma State, while he matched his career high in passing touchdowns with the three he had against the Cowboys... He also tied a career high in completions as he had 19 against Oklahoma State... Johnson now has 1,401 passing yards this season, which ranks fifth in school history among sophomores.

JOHNSON'S 3 TDS, DEFENSE CARRY CATS TO WIN AT WVU

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. – West Virginia focused on stopping DJ Giddens and the vaunted running attack by No. 17 Kansas State. Avery Johnson, Giddens and the Wildcats reached the end zone anyway.

Johnson threw for a career-high 298 yards and three touchdowns, Giddens rushed for a season-high two scores, and K-State tossed aside the Mountaineers, 45-18, to remain in the thick of things in the Big 12 Conference race.

Bowl-bound K-State, 6-1 overall and 3-1 in the Big 12, is off to its best start of the six-year Chris Klieman era.

The Wildcats scorched West Virginia, 3-4 and 2-2, with their best passing attack this season at a time when the Mountaineers keyed on halting Giddens, who entered the game ranked No. 4 in the FBS in averaging 131.0 rushing yards per game.

Giddens had 19 carries for 57 yards and scored a season-high two touchdowns to go along with a 53-yard catch to help the Wildcats outscore the Mountaineers, 28-8, over the final two quarters at Milan Puskar Stadium.

Johnson completed 19-of-29 passes, connecting with nine different pass catchers. He hit with Jadon Jackson for a 60-yard touchdown in the first quarter. He found tight end Garrett Oakley on a seam route for a 16-yard score in the third quarter. Then he found another tight end, Will Anciaux, racing across the end zone for another score moments later.

K-State, which entered the game ranked eighth in the FBS in averaging 241.0 rushing yards, managed just 114 yards on 26 carries, but the Mountaineers couldn't keep Giddens out of the end zone. Giddens' 1-yard run made it 38-10 and his 18-yard run provided the final points by either team.

K-State outgained West Virginia, 412-294. West Virginia had 74 offensive plays and K-State had just 55. The Wildcats entered the game averaging 6.77 yards per play, on pace to become the best by a K-State offense in a season. They averaged 7.50 yards per play against the Mountaineers.

K-State scored touchdowns on five of its final eight possessions. West Virginia tossed two interceptions and turned it over on downs four times.

K-State took a 17-10 lead into halftime thanks to a Chris Tennant 44-yard field goal, a 60-yard touchdown pass from Johnson to Jackson, and a pick-six by safety Marques Sigle.

K-State broke an early 3-3 tie when Jackson got behind the West Virginia defense on a 60-yard touchdown catch. Lined up as the slot receiver, Jackson tore past defenders and got ahead of safety Anthony Wilson Jr., hauled in the ball at the 20, and raced the rest of the way to the house.

Sigle and the blitzing defense added to that score as he dropped back in zone coverage and jumped in front of Hudson Clement to make an athletic interception. Sigle darted 43 yards down the sideline for a pick-six to increase the Wildcats' lead to 17-3 with 13:14 left in the second quarter.

West Virginia refused to quit as quarterback Garrett Greene capped a 13-play, 70-yard drive by firing a pass seven yards to Clement into the end zone on third down. The red-zone touchdown was somewhat rare against K-State as it entered the game allowing opponents to score a touchdown on just 8-of-18 trips (44.44%) inside the red zone, which ranked 15th in the FBS.

Although West Virginia shrank the lead to 17-10, the Mountaineers could've done more damage just before halftime. However, K-State stiffened despite Greene driving the Mountaineers 89 yards on 12 plays. Facing fourth-and-2 at the K-State 4-yard line, Green saw his pass fly incomplete to tight end Kole Taylor just before the teams went to the locker room.

K-State opened the third quarter with a big score keyed by an 11-yard catch by wide receiver Ty Bowman on fourth-and-5 in West Virginia territory. Johnson finished the 11-play, 74-yard drive by finding Oakley in stride on a 16-yard scoring strike.

The Wildcats led 24-10 — but only for a few minutes. That's because Giddens caught a pass at the West Virginia 45 and ran downfield until Anthony Wilson tackled him at the 1-yard line for a 53-yard gain. Three plays later, Anciaux caught his second-career touchdown to build a 31-10 lead.

Giddens' 1-yard touchdown run made it 38-10 with 12:09 left in the fourth quarter.

▶ Game Notes

• This was the 122nd all-time meeting between K-State and Kansas, the ninth most-played rivalry in FBS history... It was also the 114th-consecutive meeting between the two schools, the third-longest uninterrupted series in the FBS... The Wildcats have now won each of the last 16 meetings and 29 of the last 34 dating back to 1991... Kansas State defeated KU at home for the eighth-consecutive time dating back to 2009... The Jayhawks now hold a 65-53-5 advantage in the series.

• K-State picked up its 16th-consecutive victory over Kansas to improve the longest streak in the series by either team... Among active uninterrupted winning streaks (must have played and won every year), the Wildcats' 16-game streak over KU is tied for first in the FBS.

• Kansas State has started 7-1 overall for the first time since 2014... That year, the Wildcats went on to win nine games... K-State is also 4-1 in Big 12 play for a third-straight season, the first time the Wildcats have won at least four of their first five Big 12 games in three-consecutive seasons since doing so every year from 1995 through 1999.

• Kansas State, which played at home for the first time in 28 days, is now 15-3 in home games since the beginning of the 2022 season, which includes an 11-1 mark in its last 12 games inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium... The 15 home wins over the last two-plus seasons are the most in the Big 12.

• Chris Tennant connected on a 51-yard field goal with 1:42 left in the game, which ended up being the game winner... It tied his career long field goal, a mark he had last year against SEMO.

TENNANT'S LATE FG LIFTS K-STATE PAST KU

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Chris Tennant hit a pair of fourth-quarter field goals, including his game-winning 51-yarder with 1:42 to play, and No. 16 Kansas State made it 16 wins in a row over rival Kansas in a 29-27 victory in the Dillons Sunflower Showdown at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

K-State trailed 27-23 entering the fourth quarter when the Wildcats defense sprang to life and stymied dangerous Jalon Daniels and a Jayhawks offense that kept the home crowd on its toes all night.

Avery Johnson drove the Wildcats 66 yards on seven plays to set up Tennant for a 28-yard field goal with 13:23 left in the fourth quarter before the defense most emphatically clamped down. Linebacker Austin Romaine stripped the ball from Daniels, and defensive end Brendan Mott recovered the ball, setting up Tennant for his career high-tying field goal.

Turns out, K-State, 7-1 overall and 4-1 in the Big 12 Conference, remains money as well after coming from behind for victory for a third time this season.

K-State and Kansas, 2-6 and 1-4, will remember the 122nd edition of the Dillons Sunflower Showdown for a while as well.

Johnson completed 19-of-34 passes for 253 yards and two touchdowns and added 14 carries for 67 yards and one score while DJ Giddens had 18 carries for 102 yards for K-State, which led 16-14 at halftime thanks to recording a safety, which proved to be the margin of victory.

Kansas dropped to 0-5 in games decided by single digits, leading many of those games in the fourth quarter. Daniels went 18-of-31 for 209 yards with one touchdown and one interception and rushed 15 times for 66 yards and one touchdown. He was a constant headache for the Wildcats before Romaine forced him to fumble and Mott recovered the ball with 3 minutes, 44 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.

K-State took over at the Kansas 48-yard line and moved 15 yards in five plays to make it fourth-and-8 at the Kansas 33. Tennant's kick with 1:47 elicited thunderous cheers from the sellout crowd of 52,074.

In the final seconds, after Kansas was unable to manufacture a meaningful drive in the final minute for a chance at a game-winning field goal, TV cameras panned to a K-State fan holding a sign that read, "SWEET 16."

Sixteen straight wins over Kansas. That's 5,838 total days since the Wildcats' last loss in 2008. How sweet it is.

Daniels gave the Jayhawks their first lead of the second half when he capped a three-play, 54-yard drive by rushing 8 yards up the middle for a touchdown and a 27-23 lead with 36 seconds to go in the third quarter.

The Wildcats drove 66 yards in seven plays and came excruciatingly close to taking the lead, but Johnson saw his 11-yard pass slip off the hands of Anciaux in the back of the end zone. Tennant's 28-yard field goal made it 27-26 with 13:23 left in the fourth quarter.

That set up the final fireworks for the Wildcats.

▶ Game Notes

• This was the second all-time meeting between K-State and Houston with the Cougars evening the series at 1-1... K-State now holds a 29-38 all-time record in the state of Texas, including a 3-2 mark in the city of Houston... Saturday was just the second time ever K-State played a regular-season game in the city of Houston with the last one being a 34-7 win at Rice in 1996.

• Kansas State recorded 10 tackles for loss on Saturday, the third most this season behind a season-high 11 TFLs against UT Martin and Tulane... It was the first time carding 10 or more TFLs in a Big 12 game since also totaling 10 at Texas Tech in 2022.

• Avery Johnson went 23-of-39 through the air for 238 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions, while he rushed for 18 yards on eight attempts... His 23 completions were a career high, bettering the 19 he produced three times earlier this season against Oklahoma State, West Virginia and Texas Tech... His 39 pass attempts were also a career high, as his previous high was 34 last week against Kansas... Johnson had a long pass of 61 yards in the third quarter, the longest of his career... His previous long was 60 yards earlier this year at West Virginia.

• Linebacker Austin Romaine carded a career-high tying 12 tackles to go along with a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss... He equaled his mark in tackles that he previously set earlier this year at West Virginia, while his previous career best in TFLs was 2.0 earlier this year at Tulane.

• Senior place kicker Chris Tennant went 2-for-2 on field goals of distances of 23 and 47 yards... He now has 39 career field goals made, moving into a tie for fourth place in school history with Jamie Rheem (1996-97, 1999-2000).

FOURTH QUARTER TDS LIFT HOUSTON PAST K-STATE

HOUSTON, Texas – Missed opportunities and costly mistakes spelled big trouble for No. 17 Kansas State as it saw its four-game winning streak come to an end in a 24-19 loss at Houston amid downpours at TDECU Stadium.

K-State, which had come from behind in the fourth quarter to win three times this season, just fell short of pulling off another thriller while falling to 7-2 overall and 4-2 in the Big 12 Conference.

Houston, 4-5 and 3-3, used a late-game score to win back-to-back games for the first time this season.

Cougar sophomore quarterback Zeon Chriss raced 41 yards into the end zone with 2 minutes, 31 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, which proved to be the difference.

The Wildcats limited the Cougars to just 232 total yards and 3-of-12 on third down while forcing four 3-and-outs, but Chriss completed all 11 passes for 103 yards and one touchdown and added 22 carries for 75 yards and one score.

Avery Johnson completed 23-of-39 passes for 238 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. An offense that incurred its struggles while averaging just 4.4 yards per play was unable to put together a game-winning drive in the waning moments after Chriss' long touchdown run.

Johnson's final deep pass fell incomplete in the end zone as time expired on the Wildcats' first loss since September 21.

Houston possessed one of the top rushing defenses in the league and held the Wildcats to just 89 rushing yards on 34 carries. DJ Giddens had 17 carries for 50 yards and one touchdown late in the second quarter for a 10-9 deficit, but the Wildcats were unable to convert the extra-point attempt to tie the score.

Defensive end Tobi Osunsanmi gave the Wildcats a chance to snatch the lead. He hit Chriss from behind for a 12-yard sack while jarring the ball loose, and linebacker Desmond Purnell dove between two Houston players to recover the ball at the K-State 48 with 38 seconds to go until halftime.

Avery Johnson calmly led the Wildcats down the field and completed a 7-yard pass to Keagan Johnson in the end zone for the wide receiver's first touchdown catch of the season for a 16-10 advantage with 9 seconds to go until the break.

K-State had been undefeated when leading at the half. Houston had not won a game when trailing after two quarters.

A long pass from Johnson to wide receiver Jayce Brown set up the only score for either team in the third quarter. Just before Johnson was hit from behind in the pocket, he unloaded a long pass that Brown caught down the sideline and turned into a 61-yard gain. That set up Chris Tennant for a 49-yard field goal in driving rain for a 19-10 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

The Wildcats saw their lead dwindle as Houston mounted a drive and Chriss completed a 1-yard jump pass to Maliq Carr for a score, and suddenly the Wildcats lead was 19-17.

K-State was unable to move the ball, and a punt gave the Cougars possession at their own 44. Shortly after, Chriss raced through the middle of the field 41 yards into the end zone.

▶ Game Notes

• Junior running back DJ Giddens rushed for 133 yards on 14 carries and added a six-yard catch... Giddens now has 1,128 rushing yards this season, becoming the fourth player in school history to record multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons, joining Darren Sproles (2002, 2003, 2004), Daniel Thomas (2009, 2010) and Deuce Vaughn (2021, 2022)... It was the 20th overall 1,000-yard rushing season in school history... He now has 2,872 career rushing yards to rank fourth in K-State history... He also has 3,512 all-purpose yards in his career to move into ninth place in K-State history.

• Giddens notched his sixth 100-yard rushing game this season, moving into a tie for eighth place in school history... It was also the 12th 100-yard rushing game of his career, tying for fifth in school history.

• Junior safety VJ Payne finished the game with a team-high 11 tackles, a new career high... He topped his previous best of 10 tackles in each of the last two bowl games – the 2022 Sugar Bowl vs. Alabama and the 2023 Pop-Tarts Bowl vs. NC State... Senior linebacker Austin Moore notched 10 tackles, also a new career high... His previous high was nine in 2022 against Oklahoma and TCU.

• Kansas State was shut out in the first half... It was the first time the Wildcats were shut out in a half since the second half of the game at TCU in 2022... It was the first time they were shut out in a first half since being shut out the entire game at Iowa State in 2020.

K-STATE'S RALLY FALLS SHORT TO ARIZONA STATE

MANHATTAN, Kan. – No. 19 Kansas State saw its perfect home record and chances of contending for a spot in the Big 12 Championship Game come to a crushing end in a 24-14 loss to Arizona State before a stunned sellout crowd at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

In a matchup between teams that entered the day tied for third place in the league standings, Arizona State, 8-2 overall and 5-2 in the Big 12, picked 16th in the Big 12 preseason poll, rolled to a 21-0 lead after two quarters — its largest halftime lead over a ranked opponent since 2014 — and captured its first road victory over an AP Top 25 opponent since 2019.

The Wildcats, 7-3 and 4-3, suffered their second straight loss, and this one seemed much more painful than their 24-19 setback at Houston two weeks prior.

K-State played its second game in 49 days at home, where it was 4-0, and where the Wildcats had won 15 games over the last three years, the 16th-best such stretch in the nation.

But the Wildcats quickly fell behind a myriad of mishaps and could never fully recover — penalties brought back big gains, and the Wildcats had trouble with field goal placements, including one that could've made it a one-score game with 2 minutes left in the fourth quarter.

If there was a bright spot, K-State regained its running game, as running back DJ Giddens had 14 carries for 133 yards. Giddens' efforts gave him 1,128 rushing yards this season, becoming the fourth player in K-State history to record multiple 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

But the Wildcats ran into trouble in their first meeting against Arizona State as Big 12 foes and their first matchup in Manhattan.

K-State's troubles started from the game's second play when Johnson saw his pass to wider receiver Jayce Brown end up in the hands of Xavion Alford off a tipped pass near midfield. Arizona State quarterback Sam Leavitt promptly drove the Sun Devils 49 yards capped by an 11-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Jordyn Tyson. The score remained 7-0 until early in the second quarter when Leavitt connected with Tyson for a 30-yard score.

Leavitt threw for 275 yards and three touchdowns; Tyson had 12 catches for 176 yards and two touchdowns.

K-State tried to answer but after Brown caught a pass out of the slot on a curl route, Shamari Simmons stripped the ball and Javan Robinson recovered the ball to collect the Sun Devils' second takeaway of the game. The Sun Devils then drove 61 yards in seven plays and tight end Chamon Metayer scored on a 16-yard touchdown grab for a 21-0 lead with 10:10 left until halftime.

K-State trailed 24-0 with 11 minutes remaining in the third quarter and finally got on the scoreboard when Giddens had rushes of 27 and 19 yards and took the Wildcats to the 10-yard line, and Johnson ran into the end zone on the next play. However, the two-point conversion was unsuccessful, and the Wildcats trailed 24-6 with 2:51 left in the third quarter.

After being held below 200 total yards through three quarters, the Wildcats' offense came to life early in the fourth quarter, as Giddens raced 45 yards and wide receiver Dante Cephas caught a pass and turned it into a 26-yard gain to give the Wildcats first-and-10 at the Arizona State 19-yard line. Running back Joe Jackson then made his first-career reception for a 15-yard gain. Jackson took the handoff on the next play for his first-career touchdown. K-State scored the two-point conversion when Johnson found Tre Spivey in the corner of the end zone and cut the deficit to 24-14.

But that's as close as the Wildcats would get to catching the high-flying Sun Devils, who remain in contention for the Big 12 Championship Game, while the Wildcats prepare to rebound against Cincinnati on Senior Day.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State captured its eighth win of the season... It is the fourth-straight year the Wildcats have won at least eight games, the longest streak in the Big 12... It is the longest streak of seasons with at least eight wins by K-State since 2011 (10), 2012 (11), 2013 (8) and 2014 (9)... Entering the season, the Wildcats were one of 13 Power 4 programs to tally eight or more wins in at least four-straight seasons.

• Cincinnati went 0-of-5 on fourth downs on Saturday night... It was the second time this season the Wildcats stopped an opponent at least five times on fourth down as West Virginia went 1-of-6... It was the first time the Wildcats shut out an opponent on at least five fourth-down attempts since at least 2012.

• Quarterback Avery Johnson now has 19 touchdown passes this season, setting a new school record for passing touchdowns by a sophomore... He passed Josh Freeman, who threw 18 touchdown passes in 2007.

• Running back DJ Giddens pushed his career rushing yardage total to 3,015 as he is one of just three players in school history to eclipse the 3,000-yard mark... He moved into third place in school history in career rushing yards, passing John Hubert (2,993; 2010-13).

• Defensive end Brendan Mott recorded four tackles, including a half sack, while he recorded his first-career interception... It was the first pick by a K-State defensive lineman since Jaylen Pickle had one against Southern Illinois in 2021, while it was the first against a Big 12 opponent since Raphael Guidry against Iowa State in 2011.

K-STATE RUNS BY CINCINNATI ON SENIOR NIGHT

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Kansas State put together its best football in a month and sent its senior class out in style with a dominant 41-15 victory over Cincinnati in the first meeting between the teams as Big 12 Conference members.

DJ Giddens rushed for 143 yards and two touchdowns and Avery Johnson threw for 147 yards and two touchdowns to go along with 72 rushing yards and one score as the Wildcats, 8-3 overall and 5-3 in the Big 12, reached eight wins for a fourth-straight season for the first time since 2011-14. It is also the longest active streak in the Big 12.

Coming off a pair of costly losses, the frustrated Wildcats rolled up their sleeves and went to work, striking early and often against Cincinnati, 5-6 and 3-5, which suffered a fourth consecutive loss after starting the season with a 5-2 record.

K-State out-gained Cincinnati, 428-374, behind a rushing attack that churned out 281 yards and averaged a whopping 7.0 yards on 40 rushing attempts. K-State enjoyed its seventh game of 200-plus rushing yards this season, most in the Big 12.

Klieman said prior to kickoff that Johnson would run the ball — and Johnson did just that from the game's first snap. Johnson kept the football and raced around the right side of the line for a season-high 34-yard gain, igniting the 20th consecutive sellout crowd of 50,988, and setting the tone for a special night at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Johnson then found wide receiver Tre Spivey, who lowered his shoulder for a 12-yard gain, and then Johnson raced through the middle of the line for a 21-yard touchdown run. It was the first time K-State had scored a touchdown on its first possession since against Oklahoma State on September 28.

Things progressed from there as Chris Tennant went on to make a pair of field goals from 28 and 32 yards and the Wildcats produced two more touchdowns. The first score came on a sensational 32-yard touchdown run by Giddens, who spun out of a tackle by linebacker Antwan Peek and rumbled into the end zone for a 20-0 lead.

After Cincinnati made a 42-yard field goal, the Wildcats stalled, giving the ball back to the Bearcats. But Brendan Mott, the Big 12 sack leader, intercepted Brendan Sorsby and returned the ball 16 yards to the Cincinnati 6-yard line.

Two plays after Mott's interception, Johnson rolled to his right and completed a 6-yard touchdown pass to Spivey, who was running left to right in the back of the end zone. The Wildcats took a commanding 27-3 lead into halftime.

And K-State had plenty of trust in its defense. Cincinnati was just 3-for-12 on third down and 0-for-5 on fourth downs. It was the first time the Wildcats shut out an opponent on at least five fourth-down attempts since at least 2012.

The Wildcats forced a turnover on downs on two of the Bearcats' first four possessions, and then again on three of their final five drives to end the game. Three times the Wildcats manufactured points following a turnover on downs.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State and Iowa State played to yet another one-score game... It was the 13th one-score game between the two teams dating back to 2008, tied for the most in any series in the country (Arizona vs. USC).

• Kansas State played its ninth night game of the year... It is the most night games in a season since the 2012 season saw the Wildcats also play nine night games, but one of those was the Fiesta Bowl... This is the first time the Wildcats have played nine games at night in the regular season in the Big 12 era.

• Sophomore quarterback Avery Johnson had three touchdown passes, tying a career high... He now has 22 touchdown passes this season, which is tied for fourth in school history... It also marked K-State's third-straight season with at least 20 touchdown passes, the longest streak in school history... His 65-yard TD pass in the second quarter was the longest by a Wildcat since Adrian Martinez threw an 81-yard pass to Phillip Brooks at Iowa State in 2022.

• Sophomore wide receiver Jayce Brown ended the game with three receptions for 106 yards and two touchdowns... Brown now has five touchdown receptions this year to rank third in school history among sophomores, while his 763 receiving yards this season are the second most in school history among sophomores... It was his second two-touchdown game as he also had two at Colorado... It was the first time a Wildcat had two touchdown receptions in two games in a season since Isaiah Zuber also had two such games in 2018 (UTSA, Iowa State).

K-STATE DROPS REGULAR-SEASON FINALE AT ISU

AMES, Iowa – No. 24 Kansas State has at least eight wins for a fourth-straight year and now awaits its bowl destination following a 29-21 loss to No. 18 Iowa State at Jack Trice Stadium.

K-State, 8-4 overall and 5-4 in the Big 12, is one of just eight FBS schools to win at least eight games in each of the past four seasons, but the Wildcats fell just short of recording a nine-win regular season as the hard-charging Cyclones, 10-2 and 7-2, captured the first 10-win season in their 133-year history.

For a ninth time in the last 11 meetings, the rivalry game was decided by 10 or fewer points. K-State fought. It never led but clawed to within three points three different times, including late in the third quarter, but the Wildcats suffered two turnovers, one blocked field goal, two failed fourth-down conversions, one safety, and ran out of answers despite an impressive performance by their defense.

Avery Johnson completed 12-of-28 passes for 220 yards and three touchdowns and added 13 carries for 64 yards. DJ Giddens had 14 carries for 72 yards. Jayce Brown had three catches for 106 yards and two touchdowns, and Garrett Oakley had four catches for 78 yards and one score.

K-State out-gained Iowa State, 364 to 324, and held Iowa State to just 4-for-16 on third downs. Iowa State quarterback Rocco Becht completed 13-of-35 passes for 137 yards and two touchdowns. Wide receiver Jaylin Noel had six catches for 37 yards and one touchdown, and wide receiver Jayden Higgins had three catches for 53 yards and one touchdown.

K-State's challenges began on the first play from scrimmage. Johnson pitched the ball behind running back Dylan Edwards on an option play and ISU recovered the football at the K-State 27-yard line. Becht used six plays on the short field to take the Cyclones to their first score with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Higgins in the middle of the end zone with 12:24 left in the first quarter.

A brilliant play call and execution got the Wildcats on the scoreboard. Facing fourth-and-2 at the Iowa State 28-yard line, Johnson lofted a rainbow down the right sideline and into the awaiting arms of Brown for a touchdown to tie it at 7-7 with 5:39 remaining in the first quarter.

The K-State defense stepped up in allowing Iowa State just 29 yards on nine plays and the Cyclones settled for a 41-yard field goal from Kyle Konrardy with 13:31 left in the second quarter. However, K-State suffered its second turnover of the first half when wide receiver Keagan Johnson fumbled at the K-State 30. Becht then found Noel in the back of the end zone for a 9-yard touchdown for a 17-7 lead.

K-State needed just 12 seconds to jump back into the game. After the Cats halted the Cyclones, Johnson unfurled a deep pass to Brown, who caught the ball down the middle of the field. He beat Cooper and outran safety Beau Freyler into the end zone for a 65-yard touchdown to cut the deficit to 17-14.

But Iowa State rebuilt a two-score lead behind two explosive plays late in the first half before Becht punched the ball into the end zone from 5 yards out to make it 24-14 with 43 seconds to go until halftime.

After the K-State defense again forced an Iowa State punt early in the third quarter, the Cats drove down the field behind a 36-yard run by Giddens and had the ball inside the 5 but was unable to reach the end zone before Chris Tennant saw his 21-yard field goal attempt blocked.

Iowa State punted again and this time the Wildcats answered. First, Oakley caught a 28-yard pass across the middle. Then Johnson found a lane and rushed 21 yards to the Iowa State 10. That set up a 7-yard touchdown pass to Oakley, as the Wildcats again crept within a score at 24-21 with 4:41 left in the third quarter.

Disaster struck for K-State when, on a third-and-7 play at the 22-yard line, Johnson scrambled into the end zone and threw a pass that failed to reach the line of scrimmage. He was penalized for intentional grounding and Iowa State took a 26-21 lead. Iowa State also added a field goal with 6:16 left, and the deficit proved to be too great of a margin for the Wildcats to overcome.

▶ Game Notes

• Thursday was the 26th bowl game all-time in Kansas State history as the Wildcats are now 12-14 in their bowl history... The Wildcats are now 4-1 all-time in what is now known as the Rate Bowl.

• Kansas State picked up its ninth victory of the season on Thursday afternoon, marking the third-straight season with at least nine wins... It is the first time the Wildcats have tallied three-straight seasons of at least nine wins since doing so every year from 1993 through 2000... K-State is one of only seven Power 4 teams with at least nine wins in each of the last three seasons, joining Alabama, Clemson, Georgia, Notre Dame, Ohio State and Oregon.

• Paired with last year's victory over NC State in the Pop-Tarts Bowl, the Wildcats have won bowl games in consecutive seasons for the first time since the 2016 Texas Bowl and 2017 Cactus Bowl... Dating back to the 2016 Texas Bowl win, K-State has now won five bowl games in its last seven opportunities for the first time in school history.

• Kansas State trailed 34-17 at the 8:57 mark in the third quarter before the Wildcats came back for a 44-41 victory... The 17-point comeback was the largest in the school's bowl history, better a 13-point comeback against Arizona State in the 2002 Holiday Bowl... In that game, the Wildcats trailed 20-7 late in the second quarter before winning, 34-27.

• Sophomore running back Dylan Edwards rushed for 196 yards and two touchdowns on 18 carries en route to Offensive MVP honors... His 196 rushing yards was a new K-State record for a bowl game, passing the 158 yards that Alex Delton put up in the 2017 Cactus Bowl, also played at Chase Field.

CATS TALLY RECORD-BREAKING COMEBACK WIN

PHOENIX, Ariz. – There was no quit in these Cats. Kansas State saw Rutgers score its most points in a first half this season at the Rate Bowl on Thursday. The Scarlet Knights led by double digits most of the game and momentum appeared devastatingly on their side. In the third quarter, ESPN Analytics gave Rutgers a 95% chance of victory. Then the Wildcats flipped the script.

K-State bounced back from a 34-17 deficit midway through the third quarter and used a bowl record-setting night from running back Dylan Edwards to pull off the greatest bowl comeback win in school history in a 44-41 victory, using proverbial home-run hitters in Chase Field to smack away any doubt and clawing to nine wins behind a group of coaches and players that simply wouldn't give up in their final meeting together.

The nine wins proves significant for K-State, which joins Alabama, Clemson, Georgia, Notre Dame, Ohio State and Oregon as the only seven Power 4 schools to finish with at least nine wins in each of the last three seasons.

K-State started out the season in the national rankings and slipped in November, but it stayed the course and came away with a big win heading toward the 2025 season.

K-State, which allowed Rutgers 319 total yards in the first half, held the Scarlet Knights to just 82 yards in total offense over the final two quarters. A Rutgers offense that scored on each of its final five possessions of the first half, scored on its opening drive of the third quarter — then amassed just 20 total yards and one touchdown the rest of the way.

K-State rode the legs of Edwards to one final win for the 2024 season. Edwards had 18 carries for a K-State bowl-record 196 yards and two touchdowns, and he added two catches for 27 yards and one score. His 26-yard touchdown catch made it 17-17 with 6 minutes, 44 seconds left in the first half, his 65-yard run with 5:45 left in the third quarter brought the Wildcats to within 34-23, and his 36-yard run with 4:14 left in the game put the Wildcats ahead for good. Edwards, a sophomore transfer, was named Rate Bowl Offensive MVP.

Sophomore quarterback Avery Johnson saved one of his best performances of the season for last, throwing for 195 yards and three touchdowns and one interception and rushing for 57 yards and one score, becoming the all-time single-season leader in touchdown passes in a season (25) and finishing with the fifth-most passing yards in a single season. Coupled with the Pop-Tarts Bowl victory a year ago, Johnson became the first K-State quarterback to lead the Wildcats to consecutive bowl wins in his first two years on campus.

K-State trailed 27-17 at halftime and searching for answers. After a Rutgers touchdown, Edwards put the Wildcats on his back and raced through the middle of the offensive line and outraced a pair of defenders for his 65-yard touchdown to cut it to 34-23.

K-State got another shot of momentum when defensive back Daniel Cobb intercepted Athan Kaliakmanis and returned the ball 11 yards. From there, Johnson rushed up the middle 27 yards to the Rutgers 13. Then Johnson found Garrett Oakley on a short slant and the tight end rumbled into the end zone for a 13-yard score, cutting the gap to 34-29.

Moments later, when K-State was unable to move the ball, Christian Dremel returned a punt 67 yards to the K-State 18 to set up an Antwan Raymond 1-yard touchdown as the Scarlet Knights took a 41-29 lead.

Lesser teams might fold. There was no quit in these Cats. Johnson fired back on a 14-play drive that took the Wildcats 85 yards in 6:53 to make it 41-36. Dante Cephas caught a 35-yard pass on fourth down to keep alive a drive that ended with Johnson hitting running back Joe Jackson for a 9-yard touchdown. It marked Johnson's 25th touchdown pass of the season, a new school record, and vaulted him to fifth-most passing yards in a single season.

K-State wasn't finished. It saved its best for last. Edwards went around the left side, caught a block to the inside, then swung outside and outran a pair of defenders for a 36-yard touchdown with 4:15 left in the game. Johnson hit Oakley in the end zone for the two-point conversion and Oakley did snow angels to celebrate the 44-41 advantage.

MICHAEL BISHOP

Quarterback • 1997-98 • Class of 2023

The namesake behind the "Wildcat" formation, quarterback Michael Bishop brought a new dynamic to college football as one of the game's first true dual-threat quarterbacks. Bishop, who led the Wildcats to a 22-3 record during his two-year career, left K-State holding 26 game, season or career records, including career rushing yards by a quarterback (1,314), career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback (23), lowest interception percentage in a season (1.36% in 1998), single-game passing yards (441 vs. Louisiana-Monroe in 1998), passing yards in a season (2,844 in 1998), passing touchdowns in a season (23 in 1998), career passing touchdowns (36), longest pass (97 yards vs. Louisiana-Monroe in 1998) and total offensive yards in a season (3,592 yards in 1998).

Quarterbacking the Wildcats to a victory in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl over Syracuse, Bishop led K-State to an 11-0 start to the 1998 campaign as the Wildcats earned their first No. 1 ranking in school history as they sat atop the coaches' poll toward the end of the season. K-State generated 479.4 yards of total offense that season thanks to Bishop, who accounted for 37 touchdowns. After totaling over 1,500 passing yards and 500 rushing yards as a junior in 1997, Bishop improved those figures during his final campaign when he threw for 2,844 yards and 23 touchdowns while rushing for 748 yards and another 14 scores.

A product of Willis, Texas, who came to K-State from Blinn Junior College, Bishop won the Davey O'Brien Award in 1998 in addition to being a runner up for the Heisman Trophy and finalist for the Maxwell and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm awards. Bishop's outstanding 1998 season came on the heels of a 1997 campaign in which he was named the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year and MVP of the 1997 Fiesta Bowl, a 35-18 victory over Syracuse.

Following his time at K-State, Bishop was drafted in 1999 by the New England Patriots. He later went on to play 10 seasons in the Canadian Football League, helping lead the Toronto Argonauts to a victory in the 2004 Grey Cup.

Bishop was selected to the K-State Football Ring of Honor in 2015, while a year later he was inducted into the K-State Athletics Hall of Fame. He was also inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2012.

DARREN SPROLES

Running Back • 2001-04 • Class of 2021

One of the most electric and prolific runners in college football history who left Kansas State as the school's all-time leading rusher and holding more than 20 school and conference records, Darren Sproles was enshired in the College Football Hall of Fame in 2021

A First Team All-American in 2003, Sproles finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting after leading the nation with 1,986 rushing yards. A three-time All-Big 12 performer, he earned first team honors in 2003 and 2004 and second team accolades in 2002. In 2003, Sproles led K-State to the Big 12 title – its first conference title since 1934 – after posting 345 all-purpose yards, catching a 60-yard touchdown pass and rushing for a Big 12 Championship Game record 235 yards in an upset win over No. 1 Oklahoma. One of three finalists for the 2003 AP Player of the Year, he earned Honorable Mention All-America honors in 2002, and he led the FBS in all-purpose yards (2,067) in 2004. The 2003 Doak Walker Award finalist led the Wildcats to three postseason berths, including a win in the 2002 Holiday Bowl, and two top-15 finishes in 2002 (No. 7) and 2003 (No. 14).

Sproles finished his career 11th all-time in rushing and sixth all-time in all-purpose yards in NCAA history. A 2015 inductee into the K-State Football Ring of Honor, he left Manhattan with 28 single-game, single-season or career records, 21 of which are still standing. The senior team captain boasts program career records for rushing yards (4,979), all-purpose yards (6,812), rushing attempts (815), rushing yards per carry (6.11), 100-yard rushing games (24) and consecutive 100-yard rushing games (10). Sproles still holds three of the top five single-season rushing performances in school history, including the top mark of 1,986 in 2003. His 2,735 all-purpose yards in 2003 are a Big 12 and K-State single-season record, and he also holds conference records for career 100-yard games and career all-purpose yards.

A fourth-round pick by the San Diego Chargers in the 2005 NFL Draft, Sproles played 15 seasons in the league with the Chargers (2005-10), New Orleans Saints (2011-13) and Philadelphia Eagles (2014-19). The three-time Pro Bowl selection was a member of the Eagles team that won Super Bowl LII. Currently ranked sixth in NFL history with 19,696 all-purpose yards, Sproles set the single-season league record with 2,696 in 2011.

BILL SNYDER

Head Coach • 1989-2005, 2009-2018 • Class of 2015

Bill Snyder, the architect of the "greatest turnaround in the history of college football," became just the fourth person in the history of college football to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as an active coach as the legendary K-State coach was part of the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame Induction Class of 2015.

A five-time national coach of the year honoree and seven-time conference coach of the year recipient, Snyder compiled an amazing 215-117-1 record in his 27 years at the helm of the Wildcat program, leaving as the 20th winningest coach in FBS history. Called the "coach of the century" by hall of fame coach Barry Switzer, Snyder's accomplishments at K-State were nearly unthinkable considering what he inherited during his first tour of duty beginning in 1989. The Wildcat program was in the midst of an 0-26-1 run when he was hired and had been to just one bowl game in its first 93 seasons. During a the span of 11-straight bowl seasons (1993-2003), Snyder's Wildcats won nearly 80 percent of their games, chalking up 109 victories – a staggering 10 wins per season – and making K-State the nation's second winningest program over that period. His first tenure included a Big 12 Championship in 2003 in a 35-7 win over No. 1 Oklahoma, while his 1998 team held a No. 1 ranking.

The 14th fastest coach in college football history to win 100 games at the time of his induction, Snyder was a three-time Big Eight and four-time Big 12 Coach of the Year, and he took home almost every major college football coaching award after the 1998 season, including those presented by Walter Camp and the Associated Press.

Following a three-year hiatus, Snyder returned to the sidelines in 2009, and it was more of the same as his teams accumulated a 79-49 record and eight bowl berths in his final 10 seasons.

Included in the second tenure was a pair of 10-win campaigns in 2011 (10-3) and 2012 (11-2). The 2012 Wildcats captured the program's second Big 12 Championship and held another No. 1 national ranking. After turning 75 years old on Oct. 7, 2014 – which qualified him to be included on the 2015 ballot – Snyder's team promptly traveled to No. 11 Oklahoma and pulled out a 31-30 victory, a key component of the Wildcats' nine-win season in 2014.

MARK SIMONEAU

Linebacker • 1996-99 • Class of 2012

Former Consensus All-American Mark Simoneau became just the second Wildcat football player to be elected to the Hall of Fame as he was enshrined as a member of the Class of 2012.

A two-time All-American, Simoneau stands as possibly the greatest defender in Kansas State history. A three-time team captain, Simoneau holds a school record with 251 career unassisted tackles, ranks third in school history with 400 total tackles, 52 tackles for loss and eight forced fumbles. The 1999 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year also notched 15.5 sacks and seven fumble recoveries.

A 1999 Butkus Award runner-up and a three-time First Team All-Big 12 selection, he led Kansas State to one of the greatest stretches in school history. With Simoneau on the roster, the Wildcats earned a 42-7 record, which included a 28-4 mark in Big 12 play, a claim to two Big 12 North titles, three AP top 10 finishes, the first No. 1 ranking in school history, and wins in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl and the 1999 Holiday Bowl. He became the school's seventh Consensus All-American when he earned the nod in 1999.

Drafted in the third round of the 2000 NFL Draft, Simoneau played 11 seasons for the Atlanta Falcons, Philadelphia Eagles, New Orleans Saints and Kansas City Chiefs. He recorded 370 total tackles in 124 career NFL games.

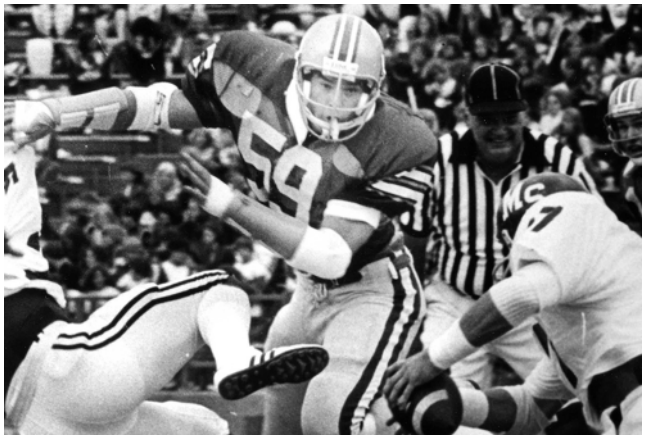

GARY SPANI

Linebacker • 1974-77 • Class of 2002

Gary Spani became the first K-State player to be inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (2000) and the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame (2004) in addition to being in the charter class of the K-State Football Ring of Honor in 2002, Spani was Kansas State's first-ever consensus All-America in 1977, and also was a three-time All-Big-8 Conference selection. Additionally, Spani was Heisman Trophy Linebacker Award finalist and was named defensive MVP in both the East-West Shrine Game and the Japan Bowl.

Spani led the Wildcats in tackles in three-straight seasons and was twice named the team's most valuable player. To this day, he continues to dominate the K-State career record book as the program's all-time leader in career tackles (543), assisted tackles (343) and assists in a season (110). He averaged 17 tackles per game his senior year, and recorded at least 20 tackles in four games.

Following graduation in 1978, Spani was chosen in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. He went on to play all nine years of his career with the Chiefs and led the organization in tackles four straight seasons. He is the all-time leading tackler in Chiefs history with 999 career stops thanks to posting five 100-tackle campaigns. He was inducted into the Chiefs Ring of Honor in 2003.

CHARLES BACHMAN

Head Coach • 1920-27 • Class of 1978

Charles Bachman, who coached the K-State football team from 1920-27, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1978. Bachman began his coaching career at Great Lakes Naval Station in 1918 and led that team to the 1918 Rose Bowl title and the national championship. He moved to Northwestern University in 1919 before joining the Wildcats in 1920. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (1995), Bachman's eight-year record at K-State was 33-23-9.

LYNN "PAPPY" WALDORF

Head Coach • 1934 • Class of 1966

Lynn O. "Pappy" Waldorf coached K-State to its first conference championship in 1934 while posting a 7-2-1 record in the Big Six Conference with wins over Oklahoma, Nebraska and Kansas. He was elected into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966. A graduate of Syracuse, his coaching career included stops at Oklahoma City University (13-5-3, 1926-27), as assistant at Kansas in 1928, at Oklahoma A&M (34-10-7, 1929-33), Kansas State (7-2-1, 1934), Northwestern (49-45-7, 1935-46) and California (67-32-4, 1947-56).

Renamed in honor of legendary head football coach Bill Snyder by a proclamation of the Kansas Board of Regents on Nov. 16, 2005, Bill Snyder Family Stadium will host its 58th season of Wildcat football in 2025.

Originally named KSU Stadium, the facility was built at a cost of $1.6 million and financed from student fees, athletics gate receipts and contributions. The stadium opened its doors Sept. 21, 1968, with a 21-0 shutout of Colorado State. The original seating capacity was set at 35,000, and an expansion in the summer of 1970 added 4,000 permanent bleachers on the east side and 3,000 temporary bleachers on the west side.

Following the 1998 season, the addition of a deck and sky suites on the east side of the stadium increased capacity to more than 50,000. On Nov. 11, 2000, 53,811 fans witnessed Kansas State's 29-28 win over Nebraska. It remains the largest crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the state of Kansas.

A complete teardown and rebuild of the Vanier Family Football Complex, the installation of new video and message boards, in addition to an enhanced sound system and the implementation of public WiFi are some of the most recent additions to Bill Snyder Family Stadium since 2015.

Prior to the 2025 season, Kansas State installed Hellas' Matrix Helix turf system inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium in addition to the indoor and outdoor practice fields.

The following is a rundown of the other facelifts that have been added during the 53-year history of the stadium:

1970: A statewide spring fund-raising drive raised $250,000 for the installation of Astroturf, replacing the original natural grass.

1972: The office/dressing room complex at the north end of the stadium was added. It housed all the K-State football offices and has dressing facilities for the Wildcats and their opponents.

1980: New artificial turf was installed prior to the season.

1983: Permanent stadium lights were added allowing the Wildcats to play night games.

1987: An addition to the office/dressing room complex was made in the summer of 1987, which provided more dressing and training room facilities.

1989-1992: A $2 million renovation project was undertaken to revamp the entire football complex. The result was one of the most spectacular football complexes in the country, complete with plush locker rooms, a 6,500-square foot weight room, state of the art classrooms equipped with the latest video equipment, a training room, a players' lounge and the picturesque Big Eight Room. The structure carried the title "Vanier Football Complex" in honor of the Vanier family of Brookville, Kansas.

1991: New Astroturf was laid down prior to the 1991 season, and the field was named "Wagner Field" in honor of Dave and Carol Wagner of Dodge City.

1993: K-State put the finishing touches on its facility improvements with a $3.3 million five-level press box, including suites, and a $2.2 million indoor facility.

1996: The $1 million Academic Learning Center became a part of the Vanier Complex, hosting study facilities for all K-State student-athletes. A $2.6 million project added a 20x26 foot JumboTron, new scoreboards and marquis message board.

1999: Following the 1998 season, the facility underwent a $12.8 million expansion project. An additional 8,000 permanent seats were added, including a club seating area and 31 additional sky suites. The project raised the total capacity of KSU Stadium to over 50,000 with temporary seating.

2002: A new FieldTurf playing surface was installed. The $850,000 project was completed in late May of 2002 and featured an innovative sand and rubber infill mixture and was the newest technology in competitive field products.

2003-07: The Vanier Football Complex received a complete makeover that included a new training facility, weight room, equipment room, coaches' offices, meeting rooms, locker room and permanent seating in the north end zone.

VANIER FAMILY FOOTBALL COMPLEX

2006: New video and message boards were installed at the north and south ends of Bill Snyder Family Stadium at a cost of $1.7 million. The south end of the stadium received a fully integrated ProStar VideoPlus display system that measures 23' X 61'.

2007: The seating in the lower bowl of Bill Snyder Family Stadium was completely upgraded, including new chairbacks below the press box on the west side of the stadium and aluminum benches throughout the balance of the lower bowl. A new stadium sound system was also installed.

2011: Phase I of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master renovation plan began. A new AstroTurf Gameday Grass 3D infill playing surface was installed as well as construction of additional restroom facilities on the east side view level of the stadium.

2012: Construction began on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – the West Stadium Center. The new $75 million WSC included new amenities for all fans at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. New concessions, restrooms, press level, suites, club and loge seating and ticket offices replaced the facilities on the west side. Additionally, a new Team Fan Store and Hall of Honor were included on the main Concourse Level.

2013: Construction on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – West Stadium Center completed in time for the start of the season.

2014: Construction began on Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – the new Vanier Football Complex – following the completion of the season.

2015: Construction on Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – the new $65 million Vanier Football Complex – completed in time for the season.

2016: Phase IIIB of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan, which features a new video board, showcase stage for the marching band and visiting locker room, was completed in time for the season.

2018: K-State replaced its playing surface as it installed AstroTurf's newest product – RootZone Trionic 3D – becoming the first Division I football program in the country to install the product. Additionally, the east side club was renovated.

2020: Construction on the South End Zone project began. In time for the 2020 season were two new video boards in the southeast and southwest corner to mirror those in the north end.

2021: The Shamrock Zone in the south end zone was completed and transformed the south concourse by providing a completely covered walkway area with consessions for general seating in the south end zone. Above, suites, loge boxes and a club area services both football and basketball.

2023: The new Shamrock Practice Facility was completed. Located on the east side of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the facility helps the program save time from meetings straight to the practice field, while side-by-side full-size indoor and outdoor fields provide ample space for full team and positional work.

2025: Hellas' Matrix Helix playing surface was installed prior to the season inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium and on the indoor and outdoor practice fields.

Note: Prior to the opening of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the Wildcats played in Memorial Stadium, which opened in 1924 and still stands on the main campus.

K-STATE SONGS

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of a 1903 campus contest. H.W. Jones (1888) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing of the words from Kansas State Agricultural College to Kansas State University.

Alma Mater

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell, I think of thee Alma Mater.

"K-S-U, we'll carry the banner high, K-S-U long, long may thy colors fly. Loyal to thee thy children shall swell the cry.

"Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater."

Wildcat Victory

"Fight you K-State Wildcats. For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight.

"Glory in the combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be, fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!"

WABASH CANNONBALL

Everyone knows that familiar tune Wabash Cannonball. In fact, Wabash and K-State are almost synonymous. What many people do not know is how the song became an integral part of K-State athletics. In the fall of 1968, the department of music burnt down. Every piece of music in the building was destroyed. The only thing that was salvaged was what was in the band director's brief case. That included a piece of music titled the Wabash Cannonball. With an upcoming basketball game and no music, that left only one thing to do. The band members played the song loud and often. A song that originally had no connection to K-State has become a second fight song.

GOOD FOR A WILDCAT...

It was 1993 and the first year of the new $3.3 million press box. K-State's public-address announcer began what would become a K-State tradition. After a Wildcat first down, he would say, "Good for a Wildcat first down." Throughout the 1993 season, the P.A. announcer did this ritual alone. However, at the beginning of the 1994 season the crowd started to join in on the catchy phrase and began to shout it with him. Now, with the addition of the first down and touchdown arm motions, K-State's P.A. announcer no longer even needs to finish the phrase as the Wildcat fans finish it for him.

RING OF HONOR

K-State started a new tradition in 2002, as the football program announced the inaugural Ring of Honor Class. The distinction is designed to recognize those in the football program who have distinguished themselves on and off the field. Among the criteria considered is graduation from Kansas State with a student-athlete having been out of school for at least five years, quality of character, whether the person is an excellent representative of K-State and whether a person has achieved performance that warrants consensus All-America level status at K-State.

The inaugural induction class of 2002 included six members, while four members were added in both 2008 and 2015, and six more were added in 2022, bringing the total number to 20 players. The names of the players are displayed on the east side upper deck and club level of the West Statdium Center in addition to on a unique ring display in the West Stadium Center concourse.

The entire list of players in the Ring of Honor can be found on pages 208-209.

HARLEY DAY

A creation of former athletic director Max Urick, Harley Day, is one of the most popular days of the year for Wildcat fans. Led by Willie Wildcat, Harley Day participants, with their engines blaring, take the short ride around the playing surface of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, where they are greeted by a boisterous crowd.

RAY ROMERO (1947-49)

One of the first Hispanics to play in the NFL, Romero played for the Wildcats from 1947 to 1949 and was a member of the 1951 Philadelphia Eagles team.

HAROLD ROBINSON (1949-50)

Robinson was the first black scholarship athlete in the Big 7 Conference. A 2004 inductee to the K-State Athletics Hall of Fame, Robinson earned All-Big 7 First Team honors in 1950.

HOYT GIVENS (1949-50)

Givens was the first black non-scholarship football player in the Big 6 Conference. He joined Harold Robinson as the first two black athletes to compete in an event at the University of Oklahoma in Norman.

VERYL SWITZER (1951-53)

Switzer was the first black scholarship student-athlete to graduate from K-State. He held the school's career punt return record until 1995 and scored the second longest punt return in school history. Switzer was selected fourth overall by the Green Bay Packers in the 1954 NFL Draft.

▼ OVERVIEW

K-State was established in 1863 as the nation's first operational land-grant university. As such, the university's mission has always been rooted in the principles set forth in the Morrill Act: to provide teaching, research and service to the citizens of Kansas and beyond. K-State is governed by the Kansas Board of Regents.

In the fall of 2023, K-State launched its next-generation land-grant university strategic plan. Building on our foundation, we will once again lead the way as the next-generation land-grant university — operating as a future-focused, inclusive and connected community that inspires discovery, creates prosperity, impacts society and transforms lives in Kansas and beyond.

About Our Campuses

The Manhattan campus encompasses more than 2,320 acres, including agricultural and research facilities. The campus is known for its historic limestone buildings. This classic college town, located 125 miles west of Kansas City in the rolling Flint Hills of northeast Kansas, is home to more than 56,000 residents and growing steadily, attracting local and national businesses.

One hour west, in Salina, is the Kansas State University Salina Aerospace and Technology Campus, which is known for its educational focus on experiential learning, professional pilot program and its renowned unmanned aircraft systems programs.

K-State Olathe, in the Kansas City metro area, offers digital skills bootcamps, including cybersecurity and digital marketing. A range of professional development workshops related to the animal health industry also are offered. In addition, the campus offers academic programs that include a bachelor's degree completion program in hospitality management and master's and doctoral degrees for professionals seeking career advancement in a variety of science-based fields.

K-State Online, home to 100-plus online and distance programs, is your connection to education that puts you on a path to amplify your potential. Professional development workshops and enrichment programs are also offered through this campus.

K-State Research and Extension offers numerous extension centers, offices and other facilities in every county in Kansas, as well as in Nebraska.

DR. RICHARD LINTON

University President

Virginia Tech, 1988

k-state.edu/president

Dr. Richard H. Linton is the 15th president of Kansas State University, serving in the role since February 2022. He earned his bachelor's degree in biology (1988), master's degree in food science (1991) and Ph.D. in food science (1994), all from Virginia Tech University. Linton participated in the Food Systems Leadership Institute from 2009 to 2011 and completed the Harvard Graduate School's Institutional Educational Management Program in 2018.

At Kansas State University, Linton has led the creation and implementation of Next-Gen K-State, a strategic plan that will guide the university through 2030 and beyond. This initiative has resulted in significant advancements in student recruitment and success, a remarkable increase in research funding, enhanced statewide engagement and economic development, improvements in research and teaching facilities, record-breaking fundraising and competitive achievements in athletics. This new university strategy has increased undergraduate and graduate student numbers to over 20,000, enhanced competitive research by more than 20%, brought in nearly $700 million through philanthropy, and led to over $150 million in state and federal support. Key universitywide initiatives created by the plan include a statewide economic growth plan called K-State 105, and interdisciplinary efforts, including in biomanufacturing and biosciences, digital agriculture and advanced analytics, and water.

Before joining Kansas State University, Linton served as dean of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences at North Carolina State University (2012-2022), department chair of food science and technology at The Ohio State University (2011-2012) and a faculty member in the Department of Food Science at Purdue University (1994-2011). At Purdue, Linton was the founding director of the Center for Food Safety Engineering and the associate director of agricultural research programs.

As dean at NC State, Linton led a college of over 300 faculty, 3,000 undergraduate students and 1,000 graduate students. Under his direction, the college developed a strategic plan focused on enhancing people, programs and partnerships. Collaboration with industry and government were critical to the mission of the college, and Linton's dedication was demonstrated through the NC Plant Sciences Initiative and the NC Food Processing and Manufacturing Initiative, both aimed at job creation and addressing global agricultural challenges. Under his leadership, competitive research for the college reached $100 million annually, and the college raised $482 million during the NC State Capital Campaign.

Linton has held several key leadership roles, including membership on the Food and Drug Administration's Science Advisory Board and serving as chair for the Binational (Israel/U.S.) Agricultural Research and Development Fund, a position he was appointed to by the U.S. secretary of agriculture in 2018. He also previously chaired the Association of Public and Land Grant Universities Healthy Food Systems, Healthy People Steering Committee and the NC Governor's Task Force on Food Manufacturing.

President Linton and his wife, Sally, an ADHD/executive function life coach, have two children: a daughter, Lily, and a son, Chris.

K-STATE (2017-PRESENT)

The last three years could go down as one of the most successful periods in K-State Athletics history as Gene Taylor's program has taken the college athletics world by storm. Team championships, individual titles, postseason runs, record crowds, continued academic success and new facility enhancements have all been the cornerstone of recent Wildcat success.

This past year, Chris Klieman's football team won nine games and were Rate Bowl champions, the women's basketball team garnered another Top 10 ranking and a trip to the Sweet 16 under Jeff Mittie, while Pete Hughes and the baseball squad advanced to its second straight NCAA Regional. On the golf course, Stew Burke's women's squad advanced to the NCAA Championships for the first time in school history and were led by All-American Carla Bernat, who also won the prestigious Augusta National Women's Amateur title, and Big 12 individual champion Sophie Bert. Two new coaches began leading their respective programs in 2024-25 as Travis Geopfert took over the track and field/cross country program and Colleen Corbin in women's soccer.

The 2023-24 campaign was highlighted by a Super Regional berth for baseball, just the second time in program history that the Cats have won a regional and advanced to the supers, a Pop Tarts Bowl win for the football team and a women's basketball season that saw the Wildcats rise to as high as No. 3 in the national rankings before hosting the 2024 NCAA First and Second rounds in Manhattan. Jason Mansfield's first season leading the volleyball program included record crowds in the new Morgan Family Arena and numerous wins over Top 10 opponents.

That all came on the heels of Klieman's football team winning the 2022 Big 12 Championship and playing in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, and Big 12 Coach of the Year Jerome Tang and his men's basketball squad making a remarkable run to the Elite Eight following a preseason poll that picked the Wildcats to finish last in the league. Both coaches were hired at K-State by Taylor, who was also named the 2022-23 Cushman & Wakefield FBS AD of the Year following a record year.

A former member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee and current member of the LEAD1 Board of Directors, Taylor was named the Director of Athletics at K-State in April 2017. During his tenure K-State has seen the football program qualify for six bowls and win the 2022 Big 12 Championship, the men's basketball team win a Big 12 Championship, earn an Elite 8 appearance and advance to two NCAA tournaments, the baseball team win the Fayetteville Regional and the women's track and field team win back-to-back Big 12 Outdoor championships.

Additionally, Taylor and his staff have fundraised and implemented a department-wide facility master plan that benefits all Wildcat teams including the newly completed Indoor Track and Field Complex, the Morgan Family Arena for volleyball, Morris Family Olympic Training Center and the Shamrock Practice Facility for football.

Taylor, who was named the eighth-best Athletic Director among FBS programs by Stadium in 2020, has implemented a strategic plan for the department which places an emphasis on the student-athlete experience, while his leadership in navigating the COVID-19 crisis, in addition to enhancing the department's already-strong diversity and inclusion program, has been well documented.

With the support of fans and donors, K-State Athletics has also continued to be financially self-sufficient and does not receive support from the university. In FY 2019, a year earlier than anticipated, the program ended the practice of receiving student privilege fees in support of the program. This move makes Taylor's program one of eight across the country to operate with no direct or indirect university and student funding or state support.

K-State Nation continues to support the athletics program in unprecedented fashion as overall pledges and cash gifts to the department during the 2024 fiscal year totaled $36.9 million, of which $26.1 million was designated for the Ahearn Fund annual giving program. Included in the $26.1 million in annual giving was a department record $1.1 million raised during the Powercat Auction.

Hiring and retaining top coaches is also a critical function of the program. Taylor hired Klieman to replace hall of fame coach Bill Snyder after winning four national titles in five seasons at North Dakota State, and in year four led the Wildcats to a Big 12 Championship. Taylor also hired Tang to lead the men's basketball program, Jordan Smith to take over the tennis program and Hughes in baseball, who took the Wildcats to just their second Super Regional in school history. Mansfield had a banner first year on the volleyball court as record crowds saw his squad knock off three Top 10 opponents at home. Burke, in his first season in 2023-24, catapulted the women's golf program up the national ranks and narrowly missed on qualifying as a team for the NCAA Tournament in year one.

Graduating student-athletes remains the top priority for the department and academic success has continued under Taylor's guidance as K-State continues to rank among the top schools in the Big 12 in APR and graduation success rate.

Taylor is a 1980 business management graduate of Arizona State, and he received his master's degree in sports administration in 1985 from St. Thomas University in Florida. He worked in the ticket office at Southern Methodist University in 1985-86 before joining the Naval Academy. His tenure at Navy included serving as the commissioner of the five-team Collegiate Sprint Football League that includes Army, Navy, Penn, Princeton and Cornell. He served 13 years as Athletics Director at North Dakota State before being named Deputy AD at Iowa in 2014.

Taylor and his wife, Cathy, have a daughter, Casey, and a son, Jared.

Welcome to K-State! Thank you for your interest in Kansas State football. The K-State Athletics Communications Office has produced the 2025 media guide to assist in your coverage of the Wildcats. Please feel free to contact any member of our staff with questions, requests or concerns. We look forward to working with you throughout the season.

▼ COVERING K-STATE

Weekly News Conference

Head coach Chris Klieman hosts a weekly news conference each Monday at the Vanier Family Football Complex beginning with lunch at 12 p.m. Klieman will address the media at 12:30 p.m., with requested players available from 1 to 2 p.m. A transcript of Klieman's opening statemen in addition to video and audio of the entire news conference is available at www.k-statesports.com each Monday afternoon.

News Conference Video

Broadcast-quality video files for TV newscasts of each weekly news conference are available for download on Monday afternoons. Contact the K-State Athletics Communications staff for access instructions.

Other Availability

Assistant Coaches: Coordinators will be available each Thursday at 2 p.m., inside the Steel & Pipe Team Theatre.

Players: All player interviews MUST be arranged through the K-State Athletics Communications Office. During the season, Wildcat players are available to the media only at Monday news conferences. To request players for the weekly news conference, media should contact Associate Athletics Director for Communications Ryan Lackey via email each Sunday by 3 p.m.

▼ GAMEDAY INFO

Working Credentials

Media outlets interested in covering K-State football on either a season or individual-game basis must to submit all applications for credentials through the K-State Athletics Communications credential website at www.kstatesports.com/media. K-State is unable to process written requests for football credentials. Please be sure and review the department's credential policies at the bottom of this page. Prior approval of credentials does not guarantee a credential in 2025.

Because of inconsistent mail delivery service on tight deadlines, media passes will not be mailed. Passes may be picked up at a location to be determined by the K-State Athletics Communications Office. Individuals picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable and are issued based on Kansas State's credential policy.

Admission to the press level is for working media only. Only those media with official K-State credentials will be admitted. Friends, spouses, children under the age of 16 and non-workers are not welcome in the press area.

Press Parking

Press parking is limited and will be issued upon request on a first-come, first-served basis as available. Contact the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office regarding details and directions.

Photographers

Only a limited amount of accredited photographers/videographers on assignment from recognized media outlets will be issued sideline credentials. All photographers must obtain and wear a K-State Athletics vest (available in the press box on gamedays) and a media pass to shoot inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium. NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 20-yard lines (the team areas). Children under 16 years old are not permitted on the sideline.

Photographers are asked to stay behind the white dotted line on the field with priority given to individuals operating cameras and parabolic microphones for the television network broadcasting the game.

The designated photographer work space is on the field level of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, just inside the northeast (visiting team) tunnel. Tables, chairs, power strips and wireless internet are provided. The area may be used on a first-come, first-served basis.

Visiting Radio Stations

To inquire about access to Kansas State's existing radio courtesy lines, visiting radio stations should contact Ben Boyle, K-State Sports Network General Manager, at (785) 532-2702. Only those stations recognized as the official originator for the visiting team will be afforded broadcast facilities. For national networks, a rights fee is charged. National networks are also required to protect the broadcast footprint of the K-State Sports Network. Broadcast facilities for national networks are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Websites

K-State reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with legitimate news outlets. Credentials will be issued to official online services of national, over-the-air or cable networks or established publications which are staffed by full-time employees whose primary function is to produce content from the game. Membership in a writer's association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials or interviews.

Road Credentials

Obtaining media credentials for K-State road games is the sole responsibility of each media outlet. Credentials are granted at the discretion of the host institution. Please be specific when requesting the type of credential needed. Opponent SID email addresses are listed on pages 10-11.

▼ MEDIA SERVICES

Weekly Release

The K-State Athletics Communications Office provides its weekly football release via email. Updated notes and statstics are first available at Chris Klieman's weekly press conference on Monday at 12 p.m., while they will be available online on Monday afternoons at www.kstatesports.com. To receive K-State's weekly notes package via email, please contact Ryan Lackey.

Weekday Working Space

K-State provides work space for media outlets in the Athletics Communications Office following each Monday and Thursday news conference. The office is located on the sixth level of the West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium and is fully equipped with wireless internet access.

Gamedays on the Dev Nelson Press Level

The Dev Nelson Press Level includes a working area for print media, home and visiting radio networks, home and visiting coaches' booths, opposing athletics director booth, TV booth, radio spots, coaches' video and a photo deck.

Press Box Services

A limited number of pregame notes and flipcards in hard copy form are available for media in the press box prior to each game. Otherwise, media is asked to view those materials via the K-State Football Media Center (www.kstatesports.com/fbmedia). A limited number of hard copies of quarter, halftime and final statistics, a running play-by-play and postgame quotes from coaches and players of both teams will be available in the press box as well.

Live running statistics are available on TVs throughout the press box and online at kstate.statbroadcast.com during the game. Final stats, notes and quotes will be made available to the media and are posted on the official K-State Athletics website shortly after the conclusion of each contest.

Internet Access

The Dev Nelson Press Level is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Please contact a member of the K-State Athletics Communications Office for access and usage instructions. Wireless internet credentials are for media only and are not to be distributed to the general public.

Postgame Policy

Kansas State's locker room is closed. Media in the press box will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Ryan Lackey at the start of the fourth quarter. Coach Klieman and requested players will be available in the Steel & Pipe Team Theater on the third floor of the Vanier Family Football Complex following a brief cooling off period.

Postgame news conferences for visiting teams will take place in the designated visiting team interview area, which is accessible through the visiting team tunnel in the northeast corner of the stadium.

Postgame Highlights

Broadcast-quality files of highlights for use in newscasts following all home games are available. Please contact the K-State Athletics Communications Office or K-StateHD.TV staff for access instructions.

Media Meals

A pregame meal is served in the Dev Nelson Press Level two hours prior to each game. The meal is reserved for working members of the media with proper credentials. Milk and ice cream are also provided for all games courtesy of Hiland Dairy of Manhattan.

▼ CREDENTIAL POLICY AND GUIDELINES

CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office based on the following priorities and guidelines.

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
2. Daily newspapers and websites regularly covering Kansas State University, the current-game opponent or another Big 12 school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
3. Officially recognized Kansas State University student publications or electronic media outlets.
4. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Local radio/television stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show will receive top consideration.
5. Non-daily newspapers reporting on the game.
6. Websites/blogs will only be afforded credentialing opportunities if affiliated with legitimate news outlets*.
7. Freelance photographers will not be afforded credentialing opportunities unless hired by legitimate news outlets* or the opponent media relations staff. Personal NIL photographers are not permitted.

 The definition of "legitimate news outlets" is at the sole discretion of K-State Athletics*

These guidelines were developed prior to July 1, 2025 and are subject to change due to any alterations in city, county, University or Big 12 Conference policy.

OTHER CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

1. With the exception of media covering Kansas State daily, all passes are issued on a game-by-game basis with consideration of available working space.
2. Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.
3. Kansas State reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not recognized as a legitimate media organization.
4. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.
5. Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 16 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.
6. Restrictions have been made on the usage of internet video of K-State Athletic events. Highlights of game action and/or press conferences from K-State events are limited to and cannot exceed three (3) minutes in length per event.
7. Each outlet requesting credentials will be permitted a MAXIMUM of TWO "on-field" passes which can be designated for still photography or video use. These two passes MUST be utilized in a working fashion and each user must check out a PHOTO VEST from the press level (which must be worn on the field at all times).

WYATT THOMPSON

Voice of the Wildcats

A seven-time Kansas Sportscaster of the Year – including five of the last seven years – 2011 recipient of the Hod Hummiston Award and 2022 inductee into the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame, play-by-play announcer Wyatt Thompson serves as the anchor of the K-State Sports Network and returns for his 24th season behind the mic as "Voice of the Wildcats."

K-State's Senior Director of Sportscasting, Thompson also serves as host of the Chris Klieman and Jerome Tang radio shows. In addition, he is heavily involved in various Catbacker Club, alumni and athletic department functions, frequently serving as a keynote speaker.

Thompson came to K-State from Colorado State, where he was the play-by-play voice for the Rams' football and men's basketball teams for five years. An accomplished broadcaster, he won the Colorado Broadcasting Association award for best play-by-play in 2000. In addition to his duties at CSU, he was also a sports reporter for Clear Channel Denver, the "Countdown to Kickoff" host for the Denver Broncos on KOA Radio and hosted the "Zone Sports Insiders" show on 760 The Zone in Denver.

Thompson started his broadcasting career in 1976 as a sportscaster for various high schools, colleges and universities in Kansas, spending time at stations in Hays and Goodland. He was recognized with the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Play-by-Play Award in 1982 and the Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year Award in 1989. He and his wife Karen reside in Manhattan.

STAN WEBER

Analyst

Providing the color analysis is former Kansas State quarterback Stan Weber. Now in his 39th year in the booth and having called 468-consecutive games entering 2025, Weber passed legendary broadcaster Dev Nelson, who called games for 25 years, for the longest tenure of a K-State radio broadcaster.

In addition to these duties, Weber provides color commentary for men's basketball games on the K-State Sports Network as well as ESPN+ broadcasts.

A native of Goddard, Kansas, he served as captain of the 1984 team and led the Wildcats in rushing while earning Academic All-American honors.

Weber, who graduated magna cum laude, received his bachelor's and master's degrees in accountancy from Kansas State and currently serves as President & CEO of Tower Properties in addition to his broadcast duties. Weber was also a 2009 inductee into the K-State Accounting Hall of Fame, a 2014 inductee into the Kansas Shrine Bowl Hall of Fame, and a 2019 inductee into the Goddard Public Schools Hall of Fame.

Weber and his wife, Nancy (Freshnock), a former K-State cheerleader, have four children – Brittani, Stanton, McKenzi and Landry. Stanton played five years on the K-State football team and served as the 2015 special teams captain, while he is currently the Special Teams Coordinator at Toledo. Landry also played five seasons as a wide receiver for the Wildcats, and McKenzi played volleyball at K-State. The Webers reside in Lenexa, Kansas.

MATT WALTERS

Sideline Reporter, Pregame and Postgame Host

Matt Walters is in his 21st year as the Wildcats' sideline reporter and host of the network's pre- and postgame show. The 2013 Kansas Sportscaster of the Year is also a 31-year veteran of K-State baseball broadcasts, while he also previously hosted the popular 'Powercat Gameday' football pregame show for 20 years on KMAN and KMKF. Walters also serves as an analyst for a portion of the men's basketball broadcasts on the K-State Sports Network as well as play-by-play duties for women's basketball.

A 1992 graduate of Kansas State and native of Russell, Kansas, Walters worked nearly 10 years as Vice President/Commercial Product Specialist at Manhattan's Commerce Bank, while he worked in a variety of roles at Manhattan Broadcasting the previous 20 years. He is currently a sales associate for Schurle Signs, which is based in Riley and Lawrence.

In addition to being named the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA) in 2013, Walters also received the prestigious Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year in 2005. He and his wife Janelle – and their fur-children Murphy, Maggie Jo and Charlie – live near St. George.
